FIELD GOAL IN LAST PERIOD DEFEATED BATES AT WORCESTER

DROP KICK BY DALY NEAR END OF GAME GAVE HOLY CROSS 3 TO 0 WIN

Garnet Line Held Well While Backfield Several Times Threatened Opponent's Goal

Bates lost to Holy Cross at Worcester last Saturday by a score of 3 to 0. The victory was due to a field goal from the Bates 25-yard line by Daly of Holy Cross in the last minute of play. This was just a few minutes after a similar try by Davis of Bates had been so close that the ball struck the cross bar and bounced back onto the gridiron.

This will show that the two teams were practically an even match and only fortune, or perhaps we should say misfortune, prevented the Garnet from getting the decision. Our team, with Southey unable to make the trip on account of illness, put up a great fight in the line, while the Holy Cross players had their forward pass game working to perfection. They succeeded in several fine spirals that netted good distances, the Bates backs seeming unable to fathom their method of advancing the ball by this route. Otherwise than this, and once through right tackle, the only way Holy Cross could advance the ball was around Bates ends. Substitutes were sent in by Coach Parks in an endeavor to stop this leak in our defense, but they were only partially successful.

But when the home team attempted to buck the Bates line, they found it a vain hope. Time after time the men were thrown for no gain, or a loss. On the other hand, when the Bates backs began their line plunges, they found that the going was much easier. Bates had the ball on the Holy Cross 12-yard line once and once on their 15-yard line, besides making two attempts for field goals. The backs were all working well, Cutler especially showing his title to a place on the eleven.

The game demonstrated that we have a game bunch of players and that they are fast rounding into a football team that will cause trouble for more than one Maine college before many weeks.

Annual Trip To Fish Hatchery Held After Several Postponements

"The third time is surely charmed" agreed the Freshmen, when they found that, after being twice disappointed, they were at last to have a pleasant Saturday. For this reason, it was with more than ordinary delight that they made the trip to Lake Auburn and the fish hatchery in two special cars provided by "Uncle Johnny" Stanton. Needless to say, nearly every member of the class was present. The members of the faculty acting as chaperones were Prof. and Mrs. Coleman, Sec. and Mrs. H. W. Rowe, Mr. Brown, Mr.

PRESIDENT PURINTON THE LEADER AT SECOND REGULAR Y. M. C. A. MEETING

MEMBERS URGED TO BOOST ALL DEPARTMENTS OF THE ASSOCIATION WORK

Work Of Each Department Outlined By The Chairmen

The second regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held October 4, in Libbey Forum under the leadership of the president, Arthur L. Purinton.

Mr. Purinton spoke briefly on the subject, "Will You Boost?", saying that the Association aimed constantly to keep before its members the work being done and planned by the cabinet and committees. He called upon the heads of the departments to present the different phases of activity.

William F. Lawrence, '18, spoke for the Administration Department which consists of three divisions, Publicity, Membership, and General and Office. He said that he had a good staff of artists who would post notices of the meetings from week to week and keep the student body informed of special events. The Membership Committee, he said, would canvass every man in college in the endeavor to enroll him as a member of the Association. He spoke also of the efficient office system which is in vogue at present in the headquarters at Roger Williams Hall.

Herbert E. Hinton, '17, as chairman of the Bible Study Committee, presented plans for Bible Groups this fall, giving the courses and leaders, with instructions as to enrollment.

Theodore E. Bacon is chairman of the Campus Service Committee, which is divided into eight sub-committees, the New Student, Tutoring, Entertainment, Book Agency, Sick Visitation, Lost and Found, Employment and Handbook. He emphasized the work of each of these committees and said that the success of his department depends on the attitude of the students and their co-operation.

Community Service is an important department. Robert A. Greene, '17, is chairman. He has divided his work into three Committees, Religious Deputation, Church and Community Co-operation, and Educational Classes for Foreigners. Mr. Greene appealed for the support of every man in the college.

Charles C. Chayer, chairman of the Religious Education Committee, told of certain reforms that have been instituted under the direction of this committee, and gave a list of men who will speak at the weekly meetings. This list includes Prof. Ramsdell, who will speak on "Gambling and Betting," and Prof. Jordan, whose subject will be, "The Ethics of the Side-door Pullman."

General secretary Harry W. Rowe brought up the proposition of a Y. M. C. A. Forum at which there will be opportunity for questions and discussion under the leadership of able speakers.

J. L. Sherman, '17, spoke briefly of the Northfield Student Conference, giving his impressions of the Conference as a whole, its object and the double opportunities which it affords of hearing wonderful addresses by great men, and mingling with students from colleges and universities all over North America.

President Purinton closed the meeting by making another appeal to boost the work of the Y. M. C. A.

Sawyer, and Dean Buswell. After visiting the hatchery, the class met at the little grove nearby, where games and races were held until lunch time. Then they proceeded to the farmhouse, whose hospitality many of us will long remember, and devoted themselves to the bountiful picnic dinner. Finally, after climbing interesting Mt. Gile, they concluded their picnic with the ever-delightful boat rides on Lake Auburn, and the traditional visit to the cider mill.

FRANCIS P. MILLER OF NEW YORK HERE IN INTERESTS OF WAR RELIEF FUNDS

CONDITIONS IN PRISON CAMPS OF EUROPE DESCRIBED IN HIS CHAPEL ADDRESSES

Also Speaker At Y. M. C. A. Banquet Thursday Evening, Oct. 5

Francis P. Miller of New York, one of the traveling secretaries of the Y. M. C. A., visited Bates Thursday and Friday of last week in the interests of the war relief fund. In his address at chapel Thursday morning, Mr. Miller described the sufferings of the soldiers in the prison camps of Europe, and the work that was being done by the Y. M. C. A. to better conditions. He said that a hundred more secretaries were needed to carry on the work of supplying these unfortunate sufferers with the necessities of life and with such articles as would distract their minds from the horrible surroundings in which they were placed. In order to meet this need which humanity demands, a campaign is being carried on among the colleges and universities of this country for the purpose of raising funds. He expressed the hope that Bates would contribute generously to the fund.

Thursday evening the Y. M. C. A. held a banquet at the Commons, and again Mr. Miller addressed the students and a large number of the faculty. This time he spoke upon the value of Bible study and, in particular, of the groups that were being formed among the students for fall study. He said that the Bible is a source to the solution of modern problems. Capital and labor problems may be settled by principles found in the Bible. The Bible, in fact, is a source book for all phases of life. Truth and power are found there. The ideal of personality has its origin within its covers. Great men and Reformations found the source of greatness and change in the New Testament. Because of this, it is being used by college organizations. The Book can mold men and character.

At the conclusion of the speech Mr. Rowe outlined the courses for the various classes, and expressed the hope that every student enrolled would attend regularly the group to which he had been assigned.

Mr. Miller made his last address at chapel Friday morning. He again touched upon the unbearable conditions in the prison camps, and made a strong plea for aid in the relief work. Pledge cards were distributed and nearly five hundred dollars realized from faculty and students.

The work of the war relief organizations of the Christian Associations of this country cannot be commended too highly, and every contributor should realize that his or her gift has perhaps saved a human life, or distracted some mind from insanity. Bates could not have used money to better advantage.

PHILHELLENIC CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The first meeting of the Phil-Hellenic Club for the year was held in the Physics Room, Carnegie Hall, on Thursday evening, October 5.

Mr. Coleman, the vice-president, presided. Owing to the death of Mr. Von Tobel, the first president, during the summer, the first business of the club was to draw up and adopt resolutions in regard to his death.

Misses Nancy Sprowl, Leonora Hodgdon, Dorothy Haskell and Vera Milliken, all of the class of 1919, were admitted as new members.

After listening to plans for the next two meetings outlined by Miss Doris Haskell, the club enjoyed a fine stereoscopic lecture upon Greece, which gave a very clear idea of the appearance of scenes of historical and literary interest as they are today. This lecture was read by Mr. Watkins, 1919, who received a vote of thanks from the club.

JUNIORS LEAD IN TRACK MEET AT END OF FIRST DAY WITH 32 POINTS

EIGHT EVENTS OF INTERCLASS MEET RUN OFF YESTERDAY

AFTERNOON

Jenkins Of Freshmen Makes New College Record For The Mile

At the end of the first half of the annual interclass track meet, which was held on Garcelon Field Wednesday afternoon, the Juniors were leading with a total of 32 points. The Sophomores were second with 26, the Freshmen third with 22 to their credit, while the Seniors had collected only 7. Contrary to the usual custom with fall meets, the weather was fairly decent and a good crowd was in attendance.

One college record was broken. The mile record of 4:40 4-5 was lowered to 4:39 by Jenkins of the Freshman class. This event was competed by the greatest group of long distance runners ever to represent Bates. The list included Lane, the former record holder, and Gregory, the present holder of the two mile record. Jenkins took the lead at the crack of the pistol and easily maintained it to the end. DeWolfe, who ran a close second during the first half mile, tired during the last half and finished fifth. Gregory, Lane and White finished in the order named.

There were six heats in the 220 yard dash. Lawrence, Oberg, Woodman, Fowler, Hobbs and Barron, were the winners of their respective heats. Oberg caused considerable surprise by winning the final after a hard race. He has developed well and should make a good furlong man. The time was 24 1-5 seconds.

Peterson showed good form in the high hurdles and won in the good time of 18 seconds. Coleman and Watson were the only other entries.

Jenkins added another five points to his team's total by winning the half mile. Capt. Lawrence of the varsity kept at his heels during most of the race, but lacked the spirit at the finish. Larkum's running was very good. The time was 2 minutes 13 seconds.

The Juniors were especially strong in the weight events, securing 17 points in the shot put and hammer throw. Quimby did the unexpected by winning a first place over "Soldier" Adam in the shot put. Ross had no difficulty capturing first in the hammer throw. His heave of 106 feet was good considering the fact that he had just come off the football field.

The half mile walk occasioned considerable merriment among the spectators. "George Bonbag" Bryant took the lead on the second lap and displayed championship form to the finish. Duffett, who won the City Hall walking event last winter, was disqualified near the finish for breaking the walking rules and thereby lost a second place. Rice crossed the tape behind the winner closely pursued by "Cock Robin" Taylor and Acoff.

The high jump was the last event to be completed, and Gifford repeated his performance in the dual meet with Lewiston High by taking first place. The height was 5 feet 4 inches.

The band furnished music during the afternoon and performed very creditably. The remainder of the events on the program will be completed today.

The summary:
120 yard high hurdles—Won by Peterson, '17; Coleman, '18, second; Watson, '19, third. Time, 18s.

One mile run—Won by Jenkins, '20; Gregory, '19, second; Lane, '18, third; White, '19, fourth. Time, 4m, 39s.

220 yard dash—First heat—Won by Lawrence, '18; Stetson, '20, second; Baker, '18, third. Time, 25 3-5s. Second Heat—Won by Taylor, '19; Oberg, '19, second; Olson, '20, third. Time, 23 4-5s. Third heat—Won by Woodman, '20; Dyer, '18, second; Duffett, '20, third. Time, 25 1-5s. Fourth heat—Won by Fowler, '18; Winslow, '20, second; Castner, '20, third. Time, 26s.

N. H. STATE AT BATES SAT.

GRANITE STATE COLLEGE HAS STRONG TEAM AND HARD GAME IS EXPECTED

Bates Men With Few Exceptions In Good Condition

Next Saturday Bates plays her first real home game of the season. New Hampshire State College, with the best team that it has had for many years, is the opponent and football enthusiasts can be assured of a snappy game. Two weeks ago the New Hampshire college forced Maine to a scoreless tie and, in addition, kept the ball in Maine territory most of the time. Last Saturday the strong Colby team defeated them 13 to 0. Thus it can be seen that a close game is in order, and although comparisons are usually misleading it gives the dopesters an opportunity to line up the Maine colleges.

The Garnet returned from Worcester in good condition and resumed hard practice Tuesday afternoon. The team has been very fortunate this year in coming thru the big practice games without permanent or serious injuries. "Bo" Kennedy has not yet been able to resume practice with the squad, but should be in shape for the Maine game a week from Saturday. His return will mean much to the offensive strength of the backfield.

Much regret is felt at the loss to the team of Southey, the big tackle. He was taken sick just before the Holy Cross trip, and it is feared that he may not get into the game again this year. He has a bad leg and a severe cold, and was taken to the hospital Tuesday.

With the exception of these two men the squad is in good physical condition and ready for a hard game. Capt. DeWever never was better than he is right at present, and the other backfield men are playing a steady game. Cutler is proving himself a good man on the offense and defense, and Moulton and Davis are playing better than ever. The Holy Cross game uncovered a little weakness at end, but this undoubtedly will be eliminated before the state series opens.

Knight took Southey's place in the line last Saturday and worked well. The line should hold well next Saturday and at the same time greatly aid the backfield on the offense.

The game will surely be worth while to watch, and a large crowd should be present. Every male student of the college should be in the cheering section.

Game called at 2.30.

Fifth heat—Won by Hobbs, '18; Garland, '18, second; Rice, '20, third. Time, 25 3-5s. Sixth heat—Won by Barrow, '19; White, '19, second; Davis, '20, third. Time, 25 4-5s. Finals—Won by Oberg, '19; Taylor, '18, second; Fowler, '18, third; Woodman, '20, fourth. Time, 24 1-5s.

Half mile walk—Won by Bryant, '19; Rice, '20, second; Taylor, '18, third; Acoff, '19, fourth. Time, 4m 13 1-5s. Half mile run—Won by Jenkins, '20; Lawrence, '18, second; Larkum, '19, third; Powers, '19, fourth. Time, 2m, 13s.

High jump—Won by Gifford, '20; Gross, '20, second; Peterson, '17, third; O'Donnell, '19, fourth. Height, 5 ft., 1 1/2 in.

Hammer throw—Won by Ross, '18; Quimby, '18, second; Doe, '18, third; Adam, '19, fourth. Distance, 106 ft.

Shot put—Won by Quimby, '18; Adam, '19, second; Dyer, '18, third; G. Doe, '19, fourth. Distance, 33 ft., 4 in.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THE STUDENT

What is the matter with the Bates Student? You who are interested in its columns, you who read it occasionally, you who know of its existence only through the gossip of your friends,—have you ever given a moment's consideration to this question? Is there a man in college who is sufficiently sure of himself and of his opinions to dare to come out openly and, without any qualifying statement whatever, deliberately accuse the Bates Student of being a first class college paper? If there be such a man among us, we should like to make his acquaintance; but we are inclined to think that, in the vernacular of the street, "there ain't no such animal around." Such optimism in judging the worth of our college publication is not common,—at least not on the Bates campus. But, if, on the one hand, the amount of unadulterated praise for the Student does seem to be rather conspicuous by its absence, on the other hand, the store of genuine criticism laid at its door is not suffering severely from a similar disease. Most of us can pick flaws where there are flaws to be picked; not all of us can find good points where perchance none are to be found. Admitting that the Student may be and probably is full of imperfections, let us overlook for the time being the minor ailments to which it is subject and let us consider two of its more serious afflictions.

The Student has a comparatively small number of subscribers. Now it should not be inferred from this statement that there is not a fair subscription to the paper. We do have a good number of subscribers, but, at the same time, it must be confessed that our list is nowhere near as complete as it ought to be. The name of every student in college and the name of every member of the faculty should appear on this list. It is needless to add that this is not the case. If you knew how many right here in college do not take the Student, you would be surprised to say the least. Of course it is entirely unnecessary for us to remind you that as undergraduates it is your duty to subscribe to the Student. Such action on your part is nothing more than a mark of college loyalty and is taken for granted. If the Student were not worthy of your support, the college would not maintain it. Therefore, your position in regard to your college paper is perfectly clear. And now a few words to the Alumni in this connection. Our list of Alumni subscribers would make you smile. If the Alumni would only wake up to the fact that it is for their interests as well as for ours for them to subscribe to the Student, we would be obliged to suspend publication for a week or two in order to catch up with the mailing list. As it is, the number of Students which we send weekly to Bates Alumni does not cause any particular commotion at the post office.

About once in so often someone kindly informs us that the Student is not fulfilling its mission as a representative publication. We are criticized frequently because we fail to give due space in our columns to happenings which appear of minor importance to us. There may be some truth in this charge, but whose fault is it that the Student does not adequately represent the college and always print things which should be printed? Is the board of editors to blame, or is the college in general at fault? One thing is evident, the undergraduate body does not recognize, or, if it does, it does not choose to acknowledge its obligation in the matter of contributing material to the columns of the Student. It is almost an impossibility to get an article written either for the Magazine or for the Newspaper outside the staff of editors. With a very few exceptions hardly a man in college has contributed to the Student during the entire year. In short, the Student instead of containing the ideas and thoughts of the students of Bates, in reality is the work of a few, most of them belonging to the staff of editors. "But," you say, "that's their business." True, but is this any reason why you should not submit material once in a while? We do not expect you to write the paper, but we do expect to receive contributions from you occasionally. Can the Student adequately represent you unless you are willing to co-operate with it? While you are thinking along this line, you might also ask yourself this question: "Who will be called upon to carry on the work of the Student next year?" Does this concern you? It may not, but it should. Think this over; then sit down and write a story for the Magazine Section or a bit of news for the News Section. Perhaps, after all, the failure of the Student to be representative is not altogether the fault of the editors.

And now another word to the Alumni. First, we want your subscriptions. Second we want you to send in material for publication. We receive some from you now, but not enough. We want you to feel that you have an interest in the Bates Student as well as we who, for the time being, have the honor to be its editors. Give us the opportunity to represent you in our columns.

Undergraduates, Faculty, Alumni, All,—the Bates Student is your paper. Support it.

FRESHMAN CAPS

College traditions are sacred. The man who deliberately and intentionally disregards a time honored custom, be he senior or freshman, at once stamps himself as unworthy of his college. Bates like all other colleges has her traditions and customs. It has long been a practice with us for each man of the freshman class to wear, as an indication of his rank in college, a so-called "freshman cap" from the day of the freshman-sophomore baseball game until the close of the football season. Usually the freshman class as a whole has seen fit to observe this custom without advice from any authority higher up than that represented by the sophomores. This year, however, a somewhat different situation seems to have arisen. Perhaps the freshmen do not appreciate the nature of the edict that says they shall purchase "freshman caps" and wear them during a stated length of time; perhaps they do not choose to consider this tradition of the college worthy of their attention; perhaps they think that in refusing to comply with this command they are showing class spirit. Be it as it may, one thing is apparent. Some of the members of the class of 1920 are making themselves conspicuous by their failure to wear their "freshman caps." Not only is it a common thing to meet a "freshie" down town sans his "cap," but even right here on the campus in broad day light and in the face and eyes of everybody this before, unheard of, state of affairs is rapidly becoming a regular occurrence. The Student Council requires two things of every freshman. First, you must buy a "freshman cap;" and second, you must wear it. Any freshman who refuses to respect this edict is a disgrace to Bates. You cannot hope to become a good upper classman unless you have made a success at being a good freshman. As a general thing, when a man enlists in the regular army he does not receive a captain's commission before he has proved his ability as a private in the ranks. Bates does not expect you to be any thing but freshmen for some time yet, but she does expect you to be freshmen and as such she demands that you respect and observe college traditions. Therefore, freshmen, show your spirit and loyalty by wearing your "freshman caps."

THE N. H. STATE GAME

Next Saturday afternoon we are to have our first opportunity of the season to witness a real football game. We shall see our men in action on Garcelon field for the first time since the opening scrimmage with Fort McKinley three weeks ago. During those three weeks they have been hard at work—how hard no one of us can realize who has not been through the mill himself,—and when we assemble to watch them engage in battle with New Hampshire State we shall find our men as fit as training can make them and ready to go into the game with all the fight and "pep" and enthusiasm for which Bates is famous. New Hampshire will be represented by one of the strongest elevens she has had for years, and the boys from the "Granite State" are coming to Bates with blood in their eyes. Except for a victory last year and a tie in 1911, New Hampshire has lost every game played with us since 1909. But this year New Hampshire is out for scalps, and she will not be scared by the formidable appearance of our past record. Plans are on foot for a large number of students to accompany the team to Lewiston and, if they materialize, we may expect to see a good sized delegation on our campus next Saturday. Let us not forget the courtesy which has always been shown us at Durham and may we strive to make their visit here one that they will ever recall with pleasure.

When Bates and New Hampshire line up for the first kick-off, where are we going to be? This query needs no answer. Every man and woman in college will be in the grandstand ready to back the team with every last ounce of loyalty they have in them. A team with such a record as ours is worthy of the support of every Bates sympathizer. Here is our first chance of the year to show a little of that Old Bates Spirit. Get behind the band, everybody, and give the boys in garnet such a backing as they have never had before. New Hampshire State is coming here with a cheering section. Let's show them a thing or two. Let's demonstrate for their benefit the best college spirit of any college in the country—the Old Bates Spirit,—the spirit that is unconquerable in defeat and humble in victory.

OBSERVANT CITIZEN

An Old Bates football captain saw the game with Holy Cross last Saturday. He said that our men are certainly a great bunch of fighters. A Harvard man seeing the same game asked: "Are they all Bill Carrigans up there in Lewiston?"

We are glad to hear that the team is putting up not only a strong and masterly game but a game that is clean in every respect.

Don't forget that there are sick men in the college. Drop in and see them.

The Student Council has the name of every lost freshman who is not wearing a cap. Men from the local high schools are the chief offenders.

Add Victor Swicker and M. W. O'Connell to the long list of 1916 graduates who have found time to return to our campus.

We erroneously have the idea that these people, thinking themselves indispensable to the further operations of the college, come back occasionally to see of Bates is still here.

Walter Oakman is perfectly welcome to the class of 1917, but the seniors have not forgotten that he was a sophomore when they were freshmen.

Take a peep at the tidy appearance of the Commons door-yard and you'll know some industrious woman had a hand in it. The new lattice work covers up a multitude of garbage cans and rubbish.

Put your name-card on the door of your room. This will eliminate the necessity of entering several rooms be-

Instead of deeming it a valuable opportunity many of us look upon Bible Study as a joke. The professors don't get extra salary for the time spent in preparing the lectures and leading the groups. BATES 2ND OVERCOME BY BIG HEBRON TEAM 27 TO 0

COLLEGIANS WITH PATCHED UP
ELEVEN NO MATCH FOR PREP
SCHOOL HUSKIES

Wiggin Played Star Game At End And Should Bear Watching

Hebron Academy won from Bates Second Team by a score of 27 to 0 at Hebron Saturday. The preparatory schools boys outplayed the collegians and used a team of substitutes for the greater part of the game. The old fashioned game was used throughout, and at no time were the collegians near the Hebron goal line.

That is the way it appears on the face of it, sure enough, but credit should be given to our men for the fight they put up under the circumstances. With Duffett suddenly taken away on account of the illness of Southey, and several other men who have been practicing in the second team line-up for the past two weeks not making the trip, the make-up of our team was more or less uncertain. At the last moment men were pressed into service who did not know the trick plays or many of the signals at all. Thus our men were forced to fall back on a style of play that could only prove unsuccessful against heavier opponents. Wilder was hurt in the first few minutes of play and forced to leave the game.

The Hebron aggregation is surely a fast one, and as for size,—when asked regarding this important point, Manager Hobbs remarked, "Well, just think of twenty Monty Moore's coming on the field to represent the Green, and then you have an idea of what we saw when we saw the Hebron bunch." This seems to be the verdict of all those who saw the game, and we may well give the prep school lads credit for a team that should have no difficulty with our representatives.

C. Wiggin played a fine game at end and should make a strong bid for a varsity position.

The summary:

PROF. HARMS SPEAKS BEFORE THE Y. W. C. A.

Takes For His Subject The Value of Bible Study

Prof. Harms addressed the Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday evening, Oct. 4. He was introduced by Ruth Skinner, chairman of the Bible Study Committee, and gave an informal talk on the value of Bible study, which was very helpful and inspiring.

In his opening remarks Prof. Harms said that Bible study was never more urgent than it is today. After the war there will be a time of great religious awakening. College women will soon go out as leaders. They need preparation to meet the opportunity which is already at hand.

He quoted Dr. Gillies of Minneapolis, who has accused Christians of today of being superficial in their reading and of reading poor literature. He also says they are not reading their Bibles. They are leading lives of action rather than lives of thought.

The aim of Bible study is to bring us closer to God. We are drifting away from the Great Source of Life. Nothing is worth while in this world unless it begins with God and ends with God. Lincoln, in the struggle of the Civil War, did not ask God to be on his side but prayed that he might be on God's side. We should be alone with God a few minutes each day and stop to think where we are.

The study of the Bible teaches the life of service. In this connection he gave Dr. Gillies' answer to, "What is Christianity?" "To Know God and do His will; to accept gratefully what He sends us and do faithfully what He bids us; to pray as we would talk with a friend; to trust where we cannot understand, and to believe Him kind even in things that hurt; to keep unspotted from the world's sin and unselfish toward the world's need; to love those whom we cannot like and to hate no one; to be true when others are false, brave in the midst of cowardice, and kind in return for injuries, to pity our enemies, enjoy our friends and serve our Heavenly Father above by helping His children on earth, in fact to be like Christ in love and life, in service and sacrifice—that is salvation—that is Christianity and that is the ideal toward which this Book of Books ever leads us."

Prof. Harms closed with a few words of earnest prayer. The meeting ended with a solo by Gladys Skelton.

SECOND CORN ROAST OF THE YEAR INITIATED BY THE JUNIORS

Legendary Spot By The River Again The Scene Of A Class Picnic

The second camp supper of the week took place Friday afternoon, when the class of 1918, under the chaperonage of Prof. and Mrs. McDonald, and Prof. and Mrs. Coleman, gathered by the river. It was about five o'clock that a group of girls carrying garnet sweaters, tin cups, spoons and various packages, appeared on the steps of Rand Hall. Occasionally a few anxious masculine figures could be seen in front of Parker Hall, and soon a few of the most courageous ventured across the street to Rand. At last the party was ready and, after the few minutes' walk, arrived at the river, where fires were already blazing. For a little time the girls sat on the rocks gazing at the beautiful Androscooggin, while the men plundered the woods for forked sticks.

Just at dusk, everyone made a raid on the commissary department, securing ears of corn, rolls, "dogs," mustard, and doughnuts. Then followed a period of "watchful waiting" until the corn and frankfurts were sufficiently burned. Of course, the usual number of "dogs" were lost in the fire and much of the corn was black on the outside and very raw within. But such things were merely trifles, and the supper was a great success. After everyone's hunger had been satiated, the fires were replenished and the whole company gathered about it for the "after-dinner speeches." Jack Spratt, the toastmaster, said that the watchword of the class was Originality. The first toast by Zack Taylor was "Water." Then followed a very interesting little talk, "Why Girls Leave Home," by Frank Blackinton. "Billie" Wright responded with, "Why Boys Leave Home," and Genevieve McCann told of life "Behind the Bars." Brooks Quimby gave a toast to "Education." A song by Prof. McDonald and a speech by Prof. Coleman closed the program. The rest of the time was spent in singing, and acting charades.

SEVERAL SHIFTS MADE IN FOOTBALL TEAM

Practice Wednesday Afternoon Revealed New Combinations

Several shifts were made in the football team during the practice, Wednesday afternoon. Moulton, who has been playing all season at halfback, was shifted to one of the end positions. Davis and Talbot alternated at quarterback. It is possible that Davis may be played at halfback some of the time. Hickey was tried at tackle instead of end. C. Wiggin was transferred from the scrubs to the varsity to alternate with Murray. These shifts seemed to work well and some of them may be made permanent.

It is evident that Coach Parks intends for every man to earn his position if he plays on the varsity. Every player is working hard to earn this right and that is what produces a fighting team.

"Bo" Kennedy was out in uniform but did not participate in the scrimmage. His ankle is still a little weak and it is not likely that he will be played regularly before the Maine game. Meanwhile Cutler is playing a slashing game at halfback.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

First Three Rounds of Both Divisions Completed

The semifinals have been reached in both the upperclass and freshman class tennis tournaments. These trials have been going on for practically a week now. Powers, Duncan and Stillman have survived thus far in the upper-class division. Two of these will be eliminated by competition and the winner will play Capt. Purinton. The winner of this match will play Edwin Purinton, the holder of the Maine intercollegiate singles championship. A nice cup goes to the final champion.

Upperclass tournament summary to date:

1st round—Powers '19, beat Wilson, '17, 7-5, 6-3; Mills '17, beat R. Purinton, '17, 6-1, 6-0; Elwell, '19, beat Tilton, '19, 6-1, 6-4; Duncane, '18, beat Lawson, '19, 6-0, 1-6, 6-0; Quimby, '18, beat M. Smith, '19, 6-1, 6-4; Lane, '17, beat Hobbs, '18, 6-4, 6-3; Caverly, '17, beat Thurston, '18, by default; Spratt, '18, beat Alkazin, '19, 6-3, 6-1; Stillman '19, bye.

2nd round—Powers beat Mills, 2-6, 6-0, 8-6; Duncane beat Elwell, 6-2, 6-3; Quimby, bye; Lane beat Caverly, 6-3, 6-4; Stillman beat Spratt, 6-0, 6-3.

3rd round—Powers, bye; Duncane beat Quimby, 6-1, 6-1; Stillman beat Lane, 6-3, 6-4.

FRESHMAN TOURNAMENT

Freshman tournament summary to date:

1st round—Davis beat Stetson, 6-2, 6-1; Woodman beat Kirschbaum, 7-5, 6-4; Burgess beat Berman, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1; Ireland beat O. Tracy, 6-2, 6-4; L. Tracy beat May, 6-2, 6-4; Guphill beat Lundholm, 6-4, 8-6; Moulton beat Castner, 6-0, 6-1; Wilder beat Moulton, 6-1, 6-4; Cutler, bye.

2nd round—Woodman beat Davis, 6-3, 6-1; Ireland beat Burgess, 6-1, 6-0; L. Tracy beat Guphill, 6-0, 6-4; Wilder beat Cutler by default; Lucas, bye.

3rd round—Woodman, bye; Ireland beat L. Tracy, 6-1, 6-0; Lucas beat Wilder by default.

These three men will play for the championship.

JORDAN SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY

The Jordan Scientific Society held its first meeting of the year Tuesday evening, October 10. The meeting was short and devoted entirely to business. The new members signed the Constitution, and President Hatch pointed out the work expected of each member.

Refreshments of sweet cider and fancy crackers were served at the conclusion of the business session.

LOCALS

Four hundred and eighty-five dollars was raised at Bates for the war relief fund. We wonder what will become of the Quality Shop.

The freshman class is displaying wonderful spirit thru the number of men that it is sending into the various activities of its class and of the college. We are certainly glad to get hold of men of talent, who are willing to use it for the good of the college.

"Bo" Kennedy is still improving rapidly. He hopes to be in shape for the New Hampshire State game.

The Glee and Mandolin Clubs have both begun work and are making rapid progress under the direction of their respective leaders, P. W. Lane, '17, and G. T. Pendelow, '17. The combined clubs expect to make two trips this year, one thru Southern Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts during the early part of January; the other thru Northern Maine sometime in the spring.

The following officers have been elected by the freshman class: S. A. Woodward, pres.; P. R. Winslow, vice-president; Miss R. A. Clayter, secretary.

F. E. McDonald, '17, is serving as inspector of the cement used in the construction of the new fence on Garcelon Field. This fence is rapidly nearing completion, and when finished will be lined with hedges to obscure the view from the outside.

It is expected that Coach Parks will soon favor us with a solo in chapel. Doctor Parks is a singer of experience, having sung in the choirs of various Boston churches.

Prof. Hartshorn and Prof. Jordan attended the inauguration of the new president of Dartmouth College at Hanover last week.

The quality and quantity of the track material which has been revealed in the freshman class is very encouraging.

J. E. Mosher, '18, has returned to college, following a severe illness.

"Pete" Soutar, the former Dartmouth end, is helping the Bates coaches, paying special attention to the end candidates.

Everyone will be glad to know that Dr. Leonard is again able to meet his classes.

Charles Rankin, '16, and Victor Swicker, '16, visited friends on the campus Monday.

The sophomore class has elected the following officers: pres., H. L. Stillman; vice-pres., Miss H. E. Hutchins; sec., Miss Imogene Smith; treasurer, T. Fujimoto; chaplain, H. L. Potts. G. S. Baker was elected class track captain.

The fall Bible study courses of the Y. W. C. A. opened Sunday evening, with the exception of Dr. Tubbs' class which began last week. There is much enthusiasm for Bible study this year and an exceptionally good attendance is expected each week.

The Misses Esther Green, '17, Cecilia Christensen, '19, Ada Bell Kennan, '19, and Evelyn Arey, '20, attended the opening of the Maine Musical Festival at Portland, Monday evening.

Miss Laura Mansfield, '18, spent the week end with her relatives at Freeport, and attended the Musical Festival at Portland, Monday night.

Last Thursday morning the conference hour for the young women was taken up by Chief Moriarty of the Lewiston Fire Department, who demonstrated the use of the fire extinguisher, and gave some very useful and practical suggestions for the dormitory fire drills.

The Rand Hall Seniors gave a banquet, Saturday evening, in honor of the birthday of Miss Hazel Campbell. The 1917 girls occupied a large table at the end of the dining-room, where the birthday cake and ice cream were served in conjunction with the regular dinner.

CAMPUS BIBLE STUDY BEGUN

Sophomores Lead In Enrollment

Campus Voluntary Bible Study began last Monday evening with a total enrollment of 135. Of this number 36 are freshmen, 40 are sophomores, 35 are juniors, and 24 are seniors. The Campus Groups will meet every Monday evening during the rest of the fall. Intensely interesting courses are being offered this year, especially for the juniors and seniors, and it is expected that the total enrollment will be considerably increased by the end of the week.

SOPHOMORES ALSO UTILIZE THE RIVER BANK FOR CAMP SUPPER PURPOSE

Usual Good Time Enjoyed Last Saturday Evening

On Saturday evening the Sophomore class tramped to the river for a camp supper. At half past five the last delinquent had arrived and things began to happen immediately. The girls separated into little groups for conversation until the men had gathered a suitable pile of oxidizable material.

In a few minutes the fire was blazing away brightly and the pressing part of the evening began. In an astonishingly short time frankfurts, rolls and doughnuts had completely disappeared. More logs were piled on the fire, and a half-circle formed around it. Miss Newcomer stepped into the ring and recited an Uncle Remus story. Miss Stevens then presented the Misses Wright, Newcomer, Holmes and Hutchins as her imported mechanical dolls. Properly wound, they astonished their audience by walking, bowing and speaking in a truly wonderful manner. This act was followed by a comic song with a cast of four. Professors Chase and Hertell crowned this part of the program with speeches.

Singing was the next event on the program and included everything from Sweet Adeline to the Faculty Down. Cheers for the chaperones, Bates, and the class closed the evening.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION HELD ANNUAL CAMP-FIRE SUPPER OCT. 3

River Bank The Scene Of Feasting And Merrymaking

Tuesday evening, October 3, the annual camp supper of the Young Women's Athletic Association was held. Shortly after five o'clock most of the girls met at the favorite spot on the river bank, where some proceeded to build the huge campfire, while others played ball with an old broom and a roll of cloth. This engrossing sport did not, however, hold them long after the supper call was sounded.

Passing around in a more or less orderly manner, each girl received on her paper plate, rolls, bacon, olives, cake and an apple. Then followed the fun of roasting the bacon and making the coffee.

After the supply of food had been efficiently dispatched, the plates were added to the blazing fire, and a large circle formed around it by the girls. Mrs. Chase, the chaperone, taught them an old round-song, familiar in the former days of Bates. This was followed by miscellaneous songs and cheers, ending with the good old "Alma Mater" and the Bates yell.

ALUMNI NOTES

1893—Rev. George Lincoln Mason, minister of a Unitarian Society in Green Harbor, Marshfield, Mass., 1909 to 1916, is now pastor of the Universalist Society at North Orange, Mass. While at Green Harbor he was secretary and treasurer of the Green Harbor Improvement Association. Partly through the efforts of this Association the legislature of Massachusetts appropriated fifteen thousand dollars to dredge out the harbor. While at Green Harbor, Mr. Mason was librarian of the village library and corresponded regularly for newspapers. He also delivered lectures and was an advocate of woman suffrage. His older son is in the U. S. Navy. His wife occupies the pulpit of her husband when he is absent from town.

1904—Alice Sands Stockwell and her daughter, Elizabeth, have spent the summer at the home of Mrs. Stockwell's parents on Nichols Street.

1910—C. A. Magoon is the author of two important bulletins recently issued by the Washington Agricultural Experiment Station, Pullman, Wash., on Rural Sanitation and Isolation and Cultivation of the Bacterium Tuberculosis.

1914—Charles E. Hadley has entered upon his second year at the Virginia Union Univ., as teacher of physics and chemistry, and is active in the musical interests of the City of Richmond as well as in the University.

1916—Harold J. Cloutman is studying law with the firm of Winslow, Keenan and Budd, New York City, and attending the Fordham Evening Law School.
