JORDAN SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

Papers Were Given By Gay '17, Woodcock '18, Kneeland '18

The first subject discussed was "Infantile Paralysis' and this paper was delivered by Mr. Gay. He spoke briefly about the size and form of the anterior poliomyelitis, the germ causing this disease. Mr. Gay showed by means of diagrams just where this germ finds its lodgement and be also gave Dr. Josephine B. Neal's method of removing the germ. He said that the poliomyelitic forms in some manner, get into the fluid surrounding the spinal cord and the only method yet discovered of removing them is by injecting a needle into the spinal column and drawing out some of the fluid. Mr. Gay emphasized the fact that this is necessarily a very delicate operation, for, if the spinal cord is touched by the needle, paralysis would result anyway. Mr. Woodcock followed Mr. Gay with a very interesting lecture. He said, if two views of the same object are taken with cameras about four inches apart and the pictures are viewed through a stereoscope, they appear to have 'depth'' or perspective effect as each eye sees a slightly different view as in real life.

In the same way motion pictures could be produced by having a double camera, which would have two films and two lenses. The two pictures could be thrown on the screen, in the same form as the ordinary stereoscope, by means of a special projecting apparatus with a device for splitting the light from the arc. These pictures, he said, would have to be viewed thru special glasses, which would focus on the screen. Another thing mentioned by Mr. Woodcock was the coloring of the films, which could be done by coloring one film red and the other green, the colors customarily used. By means of the two cameras and the glasses one color would be superposed upon the other and thus produce natural effects.

A brief outline of the "Formation and Recovery of Pearls'' by Mr. Kneeland, in which he explained the process by which the Mollusk forms the pearly coating about a foreign body and the old and new methods of securing these pearls, completed the work of the evening.

MERRY PARTY OF BATES GIRLS ENJOY CAMP SUPPER

On Saturday afternoon, a merry party of Bates girls rode out to Miss Lillian Tash's house for a camp supper. After arriving, the guests tramped through the fields and played outdoor games, and then came back to the house to fry bacon and boil coffee over a campfire. After everyone had eaten all the bacon, sandwiches and cake that she possibly could, the Victrola was played and

All business communications should be addressed to the Business Manager, 36 Parker Hall. All contributed articles of any sort should be addressed to the Editor, Roger Williams Hall. The columns of the "Stupent" are at all times open to alumni, undergraduates and others for the discussion of matters of interest to Bates. The Editor-in-Chief is always responsible for the editorial column and the general policy of the paper, and the News Editor for the matter which appears in the news columns. The Business manager has com-plete charge of the finances of the paper.

TIRED?

Dr. Grosvenor certainly struck many sympathetic chords when he said in our chapel, "It is sometimes harder to stay than to go." We all know the advantages of those who have forsaken us as regarded from a selfish standpoint. The odds seem hopelessly in their favor and we will not endeavor to change them by dissembling. But we may look at the matter, even selfishly, from another angle. We are not to follow with one of those nature dissertations showing the beauty of the dandelion or the earth worm; those may be found flowing from the pen of a local contemporary. Just try this. Take a book and seat yourself on the bank by Hathorn. If you wish to look at the book, that will not be amiss, but first register every detail of the growing beauties of our campus as they unfold everywhere. Enjoy the whimsical breezes that ruffle the verdant blades about you and the joy of relaxation of mind and body. This old world is not so bad after all. is it? Here is but the center of a vast web of fancy and we leave the spinning for you. Perhaps you may spare only a few moments, but mayhap the cares of the day may seem somewhat lighter as you again resume them.

OBSERVANT CITIZEN

Only those of "colossal nerve" pene trate to the interior of the library while the Seniors are rehearsing for the Greek play. At other times, the steps of the same building are so cluttered up with Seniors in groups of two, that it is almost as difficult to reach the door.

Great interest is being shown in the grading operations which are going on in the rear of the Chemistry Laboratory. The knoll which formerly graced the location is slowly disappearing, and the ground is being cleared of underbrush and other encumbrances. Whether the ground is the site of a future munition plant, a new gym, or mere material for further agricultural experimentation, is yet to be learned. While the base ball team was at Bow-doin for the Ivy Day game, the Bates $2.00 per year in advance other three or four fellows who re mained behind.

A visitor, standing before Roger Williams Hall one day last week, and watching the evolutions of the Bates Army, was heard to make some more or less irrelevant remark about a "Thin red line of 'eroes.''

The Lewiston Fire Department, together with the Auburn Department, was not called out last Saturday evening for a brisk blaze on the path in front of Roger Williams Hall. Not even the customary watchman was attracted by the blaze. The fire was discovered by three Sophomores, before any great headway had been made. The flames were under control at all times. The loss will not exceed $5,000. There was no insurance. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. No arrests have been made.

Many of the students feel that the compulsory system in connection with the final examinations leaves a great deal to be desired. Under the voluntary system, those who enjoy examinations would be enabled to pursue their own peculiar form of happiness unhindered by the presence of the others who are not so enthusiastic about the pastime. It is also a general impression that, in the present depleted condition of the student body, it would be unwise to leave the dormitories unguarded for the length of time that would be required for the examinations. The voluntary system would permit some of the more conscientious students to remain away from the class rooms to look after the college property. This would be much less expensive than hiring guards.

Where are the heroes who so eloquent ly presented the cause of the Commons before the men of the College, and so boldly proclaimed the era of military training for Bates? The Commons no 1902 longer echoes to the sound of their foot steps, and the parade ground hears no more the sound of their voices raised in 1904 stern command.

Isn't it rather cruel for a professor to allow his classes to sleep away a 1905 whole semester and then wake them up for a final examination?

Not many days ago, one of our numof the Student this semester unless new ber was bent on joining his forces with ollege Hoover to aid in carry more or less at a standstill and the which should result in lowering the editorial staff of this paper is more of prices of food. favorable physical examination but serenely happy over the "job he almost secured. Good job, too! "

You loyal Bates men and women who have supported athletic teams in all seasons of the year, when it seemed certain that those teams would be defeated, did it not make your heart swell with pride at the installation of Phi Beta Kappa? Were you not stirred through and through as you heard described a prophecy of fifty years ago, and saw its fulfillment? If you were not filled with pride, and inspired to a more useful life then you are not a true Bates man or woman. You should go home at once, nor expect to be excused on the ground of patriotism, or think to get credit for the remainder of your year's work.

What sort of Bates spirit is it that allows two or three town fellows who wear several glasses more than is good for them, to pollute the air at our base ball games? Are the pollcemen orna ments or were they hired to insure protection to law abiding citizens? Should the mind be protected from filth as well as the body from personal injury? Then why allow noisy blasphemous drunks on the grounds?

Whenever you meet a workingman now you have to look sharp to see if it is not a Prof. returning from his gardening labors.

The surveying class is offering as a by-product a course in farm management. The first lesson in the course consisted in an attempt to milk the bovine quadruped belonging to our es teemed Math. Prof.

We talk a great deal about Bates spirit. Does this spirit meet the play ers of all opposing base ball teams and give them a royal good time while they are here? But perhaps that isn't what we mean by Bates spirit.

BATES GRADUATES NOW FOREIGN COUNTRIES

The following list of Bates graduates that have served or are now serving as missionaries in foreign countries is printed here in order that additions to the list may be suggested by readers of the Student. It is desired to obtain a correct roll of all Bates graduates that have been or now are Christian missionaries. This roll is to be kept on exhibition in the college library, or in some other suitable place. Will any reader of this article write to the Gen eral Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Bates College, if omissions are noted in the list of missionaries? Class of

Data Upon Class Organization Reported From the Class Secretaries Association

Through the initiative of the College Club there was organized three years ago an Association of Class Secretaries of the Bates College Alumni. Two officers were elected, C. E. Turner '12 being General Secretary, and H. W. Rowe '12, Assistant Secretary.

The object of this association was to strengthen and unify the organization of the various classes, and to this end some progress has been made. The officers have attempted to collect data regarding the organization of each class and present the information obtainable in the following table.

In preparing this table it has been necessary in many instances to abbreviate the answers to the questions, and it is further probable that some errors may appear in the data. For these errors the General Secretary assumes the responsibility. It should also be stated that much of the information has been supplied by people who were not regularly elected Secretaries. In many of the older classes no regular organization exists and many of the people in the following list of Secretaries are loyal alumni who have volunteered to serve until a regularly elected Secretary can be secured.

The list of Class Secretaries or people who are serving as Secretaries is as follows.
