GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUB TRIP

The combined Men's Musical Clubs gave their first concert Friday evening at Biddeford. It was held at the High School hall, under the auspices of the Biddeford High School Athletic Association. The whole program was carried out very successfully, Woodbury's graceful recognitions of applause being a great addition to the features put on by the Mandolin Club. Readings by Paul Potter were highly applauded, McCann and Morris also were called made up of O. Tracy, L. Tracy, and Stetson gave a selection. It proved to be a delightful concert however in spite of the loss of the men stranded in Lewiston. There was a large audience including Asher Hinds and Webber, and the entertainment was followed by dancing. During their stay in the city, the men, who gave the concert for the benefit of Troop 1 of the Boy Scouts, were entertained at different homes. The Program:

upon to give a number of encores. On account of the storm, the concert which was to be given at Waterboro, Saturday evening, was cancelled. Half of the club spent the Sunday in Portland, a few returning to Lewiston. When the men gathered at Westbrook Monday evening, it was found that they were without the services of a number of musicians; Chamberlain, Woodard, Morris, Freedman, Allen and Paul being among the missing. This necessitated a shortening of the program. The Male Quartet was unable to give their selections, having no second tenor; and Mr. Morris, being absent, could not give his number. In place of these parts of the program, Mr. L. Tracy, sang a solo, and a trio

FRESHMAN HOLD PRIZE SPEAKING

MISS BACHELIN AND GALVARISKI WIN FIRST HONORS

Freshman Prize Speaking was begun on Saturday afternoon, amid a raging blizzard. The gods of the storm contended with the gods of oratory for volume—the result is still in doubt. Because of the unprecedented weather conditions, there were five orators and two judges, to say nothing of the orchestra, missing at the appointed hour. Nevertheless, Marjorie Thomas and Loys Wiles were drafted as judges and as many speakers as were present orated. The rest of the program was completed on Monday afternoon.

As a result of the judges' deliberations the prizes were awarded to Miss Jeanne Bachelin and Stanley Galvariski. Miss Bachelin was especially good in her selection, "De Stove Pipe Hole"; while Stanley Arthur Galvariski delivered "A Plea for Cuba" with his customary tact. Too much cannot be said in praise of the other speakers, each of whom plainly showed the careful training of Professor Robinson.

The Committee of arrangements was composed of Nellie Milliken, Harold Burdon, and Carl Purinton. Altho working under great difficulties, the committee is to be congratulated on engineering a really successful affair.

The entire program was as follows:
Prayer, by Rev. Geo. F. Finnle
De Stove Pipe Hole, Drummond
Jeanne Cecile Bachelin
Eulogy on Roosevelt, Root
Edward Freeman Roberts
How the Camel Got His Hump, Kipling

DEBATING BRIEFS

Bates has recently received a request from Bowdoin for a dual debate this year. In view of the fact that our schedule has been completed and that another debate would mean much trouble, the request was granted on three conditions. These were, that Bowdoin should enter a three year contract with Bates, that Bates should name the subject for this year, and that the debate be held not before April 30th. Bowdoin's reply has not been received as yet, but whatever her answer, Bates has proved her desire and willingness to meet Bowdoin in this activity.

Freshman "decs" are over! What did you think of the oratorical possibilities of '23? They looked rather good to us.

A certain member of '22 recently "brought down the house" in oratory class by his description of the schoolhouse at "Nawth Sebago". That phrase "public-minded citizen" has become famous overnight!

Wellesley, Mt. Holyoke, Vassar, and Smith College have abandoned the system of admission by certificate, and now condition admission on examination only.

HIPPOLYTUS

Hippolytus, a tragedy by that master, Euripides, is a tragedy of interest. Phaedra, the queen, wife of Theseus wastes away with sickness, the cause of which it is impossible to find. At last, the old Nurse discovers the cause, love of Hippolytus. What happens is what you, the audience, will find out, when you come to Hathorn Hall on March 12. Miss Gladys Hall as the Heroine promises to be the star of the production, while Miss Izetta Lidstone, as the old Nurse is exceedingly fine in her part. Mr. Dukakis, as Hippolytus, gives an excellent characterization of a young man of Ancient Greece, while Mr. Zarephes makes an excellent Theseus. Those four main characters are well supported by the rest of the cast. One of the most attractive features of the play is the work of the chorus. Choral work, it will be remembered, is always an important feature of Greek plays.

Let's all be there March 12 and have a real college evening all together.

LEAP-YEAR DANCE

Don't get excited! For it was held in the girls' gym Friday evening, March 5, for the benefit of the Inter-collegiate Service Association. Youthis (?) called for their ladyloves very ceremoniously at the appointed hour of 7:30, and all roads led to the gym. At the door dance orders were ready and there was no trouble filling them. A cosy corner was all arranged to suit the occasion. Soon the orchestra started to play and maidens long unused to dancing were surprised to discover that they hadn't forgotten how to dance, after all. Punch was served between dances. The dancing continued until 9:30 when the winking of the lights necessitated omitting several dances. By ten the last windblown kitchen canary had left the pleasant piazza and was safely within the walls of her dormitory. Everyone had the solliest of good times, and "The best time this year" was the general verdict, and "Why can't we have more like it?" The credit for the affair is due to Miss Dorothy Miller, president of S. C. S. A. and members of her committee, Miss Mary Bartlett and Miss Frederica Ineson. The committee wishes to thank the girls who so kindly furnished music; Misses Arvey, Lidstone, Carl, and Jordan.

BATES FRESHMEN MEET JORDAN HIGH

Tonight at City Hall our freshmen meet the track team representing the Jordan High School of Lewiston. It is a speedy bunch of yearlings who have been training for this meet, and some of them captured points in the recent dual meet at Brunswick. While confident of victory over the High school youngsters, the freshmen do not expect a walk-away, and the meet promises to be close and interesting. It is expected that a large and enthusiastic crowd of freshmen rooters will be on hand to cheer their classmates around the board track in the City Hall, and it would be a good idea for some of you other birds who find the time hanging heavily on your hands tonight to drop in and lend your voices. Remember that it is a Bates team that is performing tonight, and all Bates teams should be supported by the entire student body.

Some fast boys are entered for the twenty-five yard dash, including Bernard, Lindley, Batten and Galvariski. This same quartet makes up the relay team, which defeated Bowdoin freshmen so decisively. The relay race tonight will be one the interesting events. Batten is expected to show his heels in the 600 yard run, while Abe Levine, who has done some good work this season in inter-collegiate meets is entered for the 1000 yard run. The other events include a potato race, broad jump, running high jump, hop-skip-and-jump, and shot put.

The folks who borrow trouble seldom need it. "There are two kinds of jokes at which students should laugh—the funny ones and the ones the profs. tell." —The Campus

EDITORIALS

It has been said that college life is a period of preparation for the great life work which comes after. That is true. But there is more to it than that. Formerly there prevailed an idea, which fortunately is being combated by best thinkers and writers of the present, that the student had absolutely no connection with the outside world. He was shut up in the past with his classics to develop into a man of the world at the end of his college career. Today, and justly so, far more emphasis is placed on the college man's relations with the world at large. He is expected to study the great problems which confront the nation. He has served in our armies. He is counted as one of the great forces for good in the period of reconstruction. To do these things he must get away from the old idea that his connection with today's affairs has been severed. To break old habits of that may not be easy, but it can be done. Bates prides herself on the fact that she keeps abreast of the times. This is true in thought and partly true in deed. Our courses in history and economics devote a great deal of time to the discussion. More than that, some few Bates men and women are engaged in Americanization work in the city of Lewiston. They are teaching foreigners our language and our ideals. There is a chance for more of this work, however. Every student should not only be studying these questions but he should be trying to apply the knowledge he has gained. What each one's work would be could be best decided by himself, but preferably it should be along the lines which he intends to follow when he leaves college. Every American, in this period of reconstruction must put his shoulder to the wheel and push with Uncle Sam.

We are very sorry to have to comment on a subject which should have been closed last fall, but it seems necessary. We refer to the attitude of the Freshmen to upperclassmen and to the college. One or two seem to have forgotten that Bates men are gentlemen and not cave dwellers. Bates will not tolerate a bully, and the sooner a person finds that out the better for himself. A word to the wise— For another thing, Bates College is still being run by the regular authorities in spite of the chesty appearance and positive utterances of a few Freshmen. Even if a Freshman does know a great deal more than any upperclassman possibly could know, a proper respect for age should teach him to conceal the fact. We do not expect that a Freshman should be slavish. Subservience is one thing and gentlemanliness is another. Since hazing has been abolished here an appeal to common sense must be the only recourse, and unfortunately that may fail—for a sufficient reason. As these radicals are in a small minority the rest of the class might redeem their honor by showing them the error of their ways. We hope the offenders will take this gentle hint and reform themselves before persuasion becomes necessary.

LOCALS

Dean Buswell, who attended a Dean's Conference at Cleveland, last week, has returned.

Edna Merrill has been spending a few days at her home in Mechanic Falls.

Eloise Lane passed the week-end in Boston.

Eleanor Brewster spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Portland.

Clifford and McKinley, '23, were visitors in Portland over Sunday, Mr. Clifford attending the Bates Glee Club concert at Westbrook, Monday evening.

Abe Levine, Oscar Howe, Fogg, Irving, Wiggin, Cleaves are among the missing at J. B. Hall, these artists being away with the Musical Clubs on their trip through the state.

Miss Olive Stone has cast her lot with the Milliken House girls for a few days, and Miss Dorris Longley has been taking her place off-campus.

Miss Hazel Luce spent the week-end at her home in Hallowell. Some people take quick action when they find themselves under the mistletoe; but others don't even know when they are under it.

The Apostle Paul, spent six cold, dreary, dark hours in the frigid, icy, snowbound M. C. R. R. between Portland and Lewiston all for the sake of seeing Marguerite Clark Saturday evening.

Well, the Coop is at peace once more. Miss Alice Parsons has recovered from the measles and Miss Rosalia Knight is again at classes after an attack of the grippe. Nobody else has taken sick yet.

Miss Dorris Longley entertained her father from Norway recently.

The Milliken House circus fell flat, and all the elephants and zebras tramped over to Chase Hall instead.

"Is this poetry or isn't it?" Perhaps it made him strong enough to come back to classes. Who knows?

Misses Alice Cunningham, Mildred Baker, and Marion went home over Sunday as per custom, but land knows how they are going to get back again.

Miss Ruth Dunlap has been confined to her room with the grippe.

Whittier House is behaving beautifully. Be it here announced that their reception room is so little in use that they want to rent it out!

Snowbound! Miss Alice Jessiman and Miss Clarice Small at Rumford, Me; Miss Elizabeth Atwood, Miss Gertrude Lombard, Miss Doris Files, and Miss Nelly Milliken at the Blaine Mansion, Augusta, Me; Miss Beatrice Adams at Winthrop; Miss Georgianna Hayes and Miss Ruth Hanson at Gorham, Me; Miss Elizabeth Files and Miss Elsie Roberts in Auburn, Me;—snowbound for some days, we fear, if the reports we hear may be trusted.

The few individuals who were left in Frye Street House after the general exodus upon Friday, had a real spread Saturday night with an informal dance—strictly private—afterwards, and when that pleasure failed—impromptu dramatics.

Miss Constance Walker, '21, has recently visited her home in Bridgton, Me., for a few days.

Miss Harriette Ohler of Portland, Me. spent a few days lately with Miss Mildred Widber at Cheney House.

Cheney House noticed an interesting sign upon the door of the room in which Miss Vernice Jackson and Miss Marjorie Thomas reside. The sign read "At Home, Dustless Day, March 7, 1920." We think that similar signs might appear upon other doors bearing similar legends. Such might be "Picked Up Corner"; "Spick and Span Cozy Home" and others.

To the eight girls who gathered in Miss Hall's room in Cheney House, Saturday night, the study table, laden with goodies made an irresistible appeal. And to whom would it not, when chicken sandwiches, egg salad, pound cake, crackers, olives and fruit appeared to view. Miss Arlene May poured cocoa. After all had eaten their fill a regular 1921 sing was held. Lights winked all too soon, to end the best evening yet that top-floor Cheney has enjoyed—and there have been many such.

Kelly Smith is the latest to move to the top floor of Parker Hall. He has recently taken up quarters in Room 49, where he will keep "Bachelor's home".

The cold and windy weather of last Sunday did not deter Harold Mauter '22 from making his weekly visit in Auburn. There must be a reason.

Among the visitors of Parker Hall for the past few days, we have noticed "Dyke" Onnekobush, Donald Hopkins, Charles Tibodeau, and "Steve" Gould, all graduates in the class of 1919.

Maurice Earle is now in line to be awarded a medal of courage. He went home for the week-end. Afraid of being detained by the storm, he started back Saturday morning from Littlefield. The blizzard soon blocked the car, however, forcing him to walk to Sabstus, where he stayed overnight. He arrived here Sunday morning with both feet and a wrist frost-bitten, as the result of his bike from Sabstus.

Parker Hall now boasts of a champion boxer in Stanley Galvariski, '23. He recently clinched the inter-dormitory championship, by knocking out John Weeks, '23, the champion of John Bertram Hall in the first round of their contest in the Commons kitchen.

Jack Spratt, recently went on a successful feline hunt, bagging his game easily.

Oliver Austin, '23 read the weather report of "blizzards" last week and so decided to spend the week-end at his home in Sabstus, in hope of having an extended vacation. It is needless to say his hope was gratified.

Frank Dorner, '21, who recently underwent an operation on the knee for the removal of a tumor is not the only one who walks with a limp. Carl Belmore who hurt his knee in running, and Maurice Earle, with his frostbitten feet, both find it difficult to navigate.

A new "shark" has been found in Junior English. Maynard Johnson tells us that "Spiritual beings are subject to laws of gravity," and "Englishmen live in England."

The Y. M. C. A., Room 26, have announced and posted a definite schedule of their coming program.

Contributions are now being accepted for a robe for Father Mariner. Make all donations payable to the Ike Cunningham Fund. Call at Room 4 in order to see the new head of the co-educational department and his assistant.

OUR GRADUATES

BATES COLLEGE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

To Bates Graduates, Greeting:

The thirty-sixth annual gathering of the graduates of Bates College will be held at the Hotel Vendome on the evening of March the thirteenth. Dinner will be served at tables and as we plan to be seated at six o'clock, it will be necessary for us to gather not later than five-thirty.

The meeting which we held at the Copley Plaza last year, while it was fairly well attended, yet left us with a feeling that it was not exactly what we would have liked. Various suggestions have been made in regard to our next meeting, all of which have been considered. Some have expressed a desire to return to that form of gathering which for lack of a better name we will call the banquet form. We want a dignified meeting and at the same time one not too formal, and which will permit of social intercourse and opportunities to renew acquaintances. Furthermore, the cost this year being naturally much higher we felt that we wanted to offer all we could for the amount called for. The form of gathering which we had last year, if duplicated this time would cost us approximately $2.75 per person, and this would cover, as it did, a not very satisfactory collation.

Bearing these matters in mind we have decided this year to arrange for a sort of double form of meeting, combining the older style of banquet with the general good time followed by the social and dance.

Therefore this year we shall be seated at tables and be served with a good dinner. Following this we shall have a few after dinner speakers, not long and dry, and we hope sufficiently entertaining to be well worth our while in listening to them. Interspersed with the addresses will be solos by Mr. Earl V. Renwick of the class of 1918.

We shall plan to have a report from the Bates Club of Boston relative to the Athletic Fund, which that Club is assuming to raise, but there will be no solicitation of funds at this meeting.

After the brief program there will be a good long time for sociability and dancing. This latter part will be informal and yet planned so that every one will have as good a time as possible.

The cost for the entire evening's entertainment and dinner will be $3.50 per person, which price you will easily see is not as high proportionally as we paid last year and we are hoping it will be well worth twice as much.

Now in order to make this gathering a success, it will be the duty of every Bates man and woman who can possibly do so to be present. This is the one big meeting of the year, and regardless of whether you are old or young you should be loyal to this. There are five hundred of us on our mailing list, and out of that number ought we not to have at least three hundred faithful, cheering, loyal sons and daughters of Bates, who will try to make this meeting the biggest we have ever had and worthy of the love we bear our Alma Mater!

To insure a success, first, you must come; next, get in touch with other graduates and do all you can to persuade them to come also. Don't think there will be enough without you; there will not. WE WANT YOU. If we could make this invitation more emphatic rest assured we would do so. Now do your part and be present with us and make it a successful time and one long to be remembered.

Finally; and a very important item to remember;—fill out the enclosed card, affix a stamp on it and drop it into the mail as soon as possible on receipt of this notice. Plan first of all to come, but even if you cannot come, please return the card to the secretary. The number that the hotel will accommodate will be based on the number of cards returned to the secretary, and in his hands Friday afternoon, March twelfth.

If at the last moment you find that you can come and could not otherwise notify the secretary, telephone even as late as Saturday morning. Remember that guests are welcome so bring any number you please.

The Clubs left for Skowhegan, Wednesday where a concert was given. The rest of the trip will be carried out as scheduled, the Thursday night concert being at Rumford, Friday at Canton, Saturday at Gardiner, and Monday at Lisbon Falls.

On account of a conflict of dates, the concert which was to be held in Portland, Tuesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. was cancelled. Manager Tracy has secured a Portland engagement, however, the clubs being scheduled to appear at the High School, March 25. This will doubtless prove to be the most largely attended and most important concert of the season with the possible exception of the one to be given at the Lewiston City Hall on the previous evening.

Y. W. C. A. CONVENTION

From April 13th to 26th the Sixth Convention of the Young Women's Christian Associations of the United States of America will convene in Cleveland. Twenty-five hundred delegates are expected from the thousand centers located in small and large cities, town and country communities and colleges. From China, Japan, India, South America, Siberia, and the countries of Europe where the Y. W. C. A. has established work for girls, speakers and representatives will also come to give a world-wide report of what the Association has accomplished in the past five years. Unusual significance attaches to this Convention as it is the first to be held since 1915. The one called for 1919 was not held, in accordance with the general advice of the Government that all such gatherings be eliminated during the war period.

"The face of the world has changed since we met in convention in Los Angeles in 1915," said Mrs. Robert E. Speer, President of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. in her Call of the Sixth Convention sent out recently to all General Secretaries. "No change is greater than the new expectancy with which a troubled world looks to the mind and spirit of woman. Many problems of the present and future are in her hands. The call to the Sixth Convention is a summons to the members of the Young Women's Christian Association to seek the ways of the most effective service in a world which will never again be the same for women."

Two sections of the Association membership, the student and the industrial, are facing serious questions. Discussion of the basis of membership in a student Association and of a Christian order in industry are two of the problems that will engross the attention and the collective thinking of the twenty-five hundred women representing the thousands of Y. W. C. A. members in their home towns.

After the business of the day the evening sessions will be given over to addresses by men and women internationally known for their leadership in Christian thought. Dr. S. Earl Taylor, head of the Interchurch World Movement, Dr. Robert E. Speer, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, and Bishop Frank J. McConnell, of the Methodist Church are among the men who will address the Convention on world questions and the relation of the Y. W. C. A. to them.

"Of course, we all have our handicaps in life, but about the toughest case I ever saw was a stuttering boy whose voice was changing."
 —Will M. Cressy.

RAMSDELL SCIENTIFIC

A meeting of the Ramsdell Scientific Society was held Thursday, March 4, after a long vacation. A very interesting and instructive talk on "Meteors and Meteorites" was given by Miss Vernice Jackson, 1920, and the members were so interested in the subject that at the close of Miss Jackson's talk they asked questions and discussed different phases of the subject.

The officers and members of Ramsdell Scientific this year are: Vivian Edward, President; Mabel Haley, Vice-President; Ethel Weymouth, Secretary; Marjorie Thomas, Chairman of Executive Committee; and the other members are Vernice Jackson, Arlene Pike, and Edna Gadd. Miss Niles is an honorary member. The membership is limited to fifteen, and since at present there are only seven members, prospects of new members will be considered at the next meeting on March 19.

THE WAY THEY DO IT AT MAINE

Women of the University have Student Government

Student government for the women of the university has been discussed for many years. This year those interested in the plan have been pleased to see it put into practice. For the past week student government has been in effect and while it is still too early to judge, the results so far have been very satisfactory. Of course the rules and by-laws are not perfect and were not expected to be so. There undoubtedly will have to be some changes before everything will run smoothly but a big step has been taken in the right direction.

The attitude which the women are taking is that they have made the rules themselves and so cannot conscientiously disobey any of them. For a first offense the offender may be brought before their House Council which is composed of the house president and such members as she shall choose. If the offense is serious enough the offender may be brought before the Grand Council which consists of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Presidents of Women's Houses, one representative from each class, and president of the Y. W. C. A.

Following are the rules which the women have made for their government:

Regulations

I. House Rules.

A. Quiet House.

Quiet hours from 7:30 to 10:30 P. M. shall be observed in the houses, except on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings and evenings before and of holidays.

1. Slippers, or rubber heels must be worn during quiet hours.

2. There shall be no running or loud talking in the corridors at any time.

B. Piano.

1. Pianos and virolas may be played between 12:00 and 1:30 and 5:00 and 7:30 on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; from 12 to 1:30 and 5:00 until 10:00 on Friday; and from 9:30 A. M. to 10:00 P. M. on Saturday, Sunday and holidays.

2. Special permission for rehearsals or practicing may be secured from any member of the House Committee.

C. Lights.

Lights shall be extinguished at 10:30 P. M. Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; and at 11:00 P. M. on Friday and Saturday.

1. Special permission for one light out a week to 12 P. M. for each girl may be obtained from the House President.

2. Light rules shall be suspended during mid-semester and final examination weeks up to 12 P. M.

3. Students returning from evening entertainments later than 10:30 shall be allowed to keep their lights burning 30 minutes.

4. Provided that room mates do not use their light cuts on the same night a girl studying later than 10:30 P. M. is expected to work in the study halls or a room agreed upon for that purpose.

5. Guests in college houses shall comply with all rules regarding quiet and lights.

D. "Feeds"

No "feeds" shall be held after hours. 1. Light cuts shall not be used for "feeds".

E. Calling Hours for Men.

Calling hours for men shall be from 7:30 till 10:30 P. M. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, Saturday and Sunday afternoons and holidays.

F. Telephones.

Public telephones in the college houses shall not be used during quiet hours.

II. Privileges

All girls may have daytime privileges up to 10:30 P. M. with the exception of Friday and Saturday nights when the limiting time shall be 11:00 P. M. Exceptions shall be made for college affairs. Seniors shall be allowed in addition two nights out until 12:00. Permission for special occasions such as the Music Festival may be granted by the President of the association.

1. Permission to stay over night must be obtained from the House Chairman. (Registration is sufficient for girls going to their own home.)

2. No girl shall attend any off campus dances without either an escort or chaperone.

3. No girl shall visit a fraternity house where there is no chaperone.

III. Chaperones

Members of the student body shall not act as chaperones.

Chaperone shall be approved by a House Matron.

Matrons, parents, faculty members and wives of faculty members shall be regarded as approved chaperones.

IV. Registration

A. All girls must register—

1. For out of town absences in the day time and all absences from the dormitory after six at night.

2. For all absences which extend over night.

3. For all absences for which a chaperone is required.

B. Registration must in every case cover the following points:

1. Destination (full address.)

2. Time of departure (hour and date).

3. Time of expected return (hour and date).

4. Name of chaperone where one is required.

C. The system of blue and white cards shall be used for registration. Off campus girls are under these rules only while on the campus.

"Campus"—U. of M.

An average decrease of 23% from their previous maximum enrollments in normal schools this year, while colleges and universities show an average increase of 15%. Only nine normal schools out of 74 reporting to President Butler of Kansas State Normal list their present enrollments as equal to or above their previous maximums. Several of the schools are down 50% in attendance. Low salaries of teachers seems to be the principal cause.

LAW

THE BOSTON UNIVERSITY
LAW SCHOOL

Trains students in the principles of the law and in the technique of the profession so as to best prepare them for active practice wherever the English system of law prevails.

College graduates may receive scholarships not exceeding $75.

Course for LL.B. requires 3 school years. Those who have received this degree from this or any other approved school of law may receive LL.M. on the satisfactory completion of one year's resident attendance under the direction of Dr. Melville M. Bigelow. Several $25 and $50 scholarships open in this course.

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

Class meetings are being held now, Wednesday evening in Fiske Room, the Juniors had charge of the service, Ruth Libby lead. Gladys Hall took for her subject "The Way". She pointed out that as Spring brot new life to all, so to us must come fresh vigor and strength. Christ is, as He said, the way and the light, but each group of girls, college, industrial, business, interprets the way differently. We must learn to understand all. Crete Carl and Edna Merrill furnished special music.
