LAST GAME OF SERIES

The Bates College seniors won the field hockey championship in a hard-fought contest on the women's athletic field, Tuesday afternoon. The game was rough and full of keen rivalry on the part of the junior class team which opposed the seniors in an effort to wrest from them the championship title which the '21 girls won last year. Captain Muriel Wills and her fast team were unable to overcome the superior playing of the opposition team, and in spite of the fact that they threatened the senior goal several times during the bitter contest were unable to put the ball across. Ruth Bradley proved too capable a goal tender for the third year girls.

In spite of the chill in the atmosphere that was far from conducive to remaining standing on the sidelines any great length of time, both teams were supported by an enthusiastic bunch of rooters from both sides of the campus. Miss Marian Bates was the one who put over the goal the ball which gave the seniors a 1-0 decision and won for them the title of interclass field hockey champions for the present college year. The line-up was as follows:

DARTMOUTH WALKING RECORD

Walking from Hanover to Winchester, a distance of 85 miles, in twenty-four hours, Warren F. Daniell of Greenland, a junior at Dartmouth shattered all records of the Dartmouth Outing club, Saturday night, October 23. This is two miles farther than the record made last spring by L. S. Adams '20, and W. P. Fowler '21 in their hike from the Sky Line farm to Hanover,

The team which is to meet Yale University in debate at Lewiston next month has been selected. As a result of many trials, the coaches have chosen William Young, 1924, to be first speaker; Charles M. Starbird, 1921, to be second speaker; and Robert B. Watts, 1922, to occupy the anchor position.

This team appears to be a most formidable array of speakers, each one of the three having had much previous experience in debating. William Young is a member of the Freshman class, and comes to Bates with an excellent record of debating in the Bates interscholastic league.

Starbird and Watts require no introduction to Bates students. Their experience in defeating Clark, Cornell and Harvard make them a most valuable team nucleus. Every indication is that Yale will meet with Bates' most sturdy opposition.

Not only has the Yale team been selected, but the other three varsity debaters of the year have also been picked. Edward Morris, 1921; Aurie Johnson, 1922; and Edward Raye, 1924, are the three other speakers who will be active in the program of the year. These men, combined with the Yale team, will meet Princeton, Pennsylvania, and possibly Harvard. Again, Bates will have worthy representatives on these teams. Morris has had wide experience as a public speaker, and was the winner of the Junior orations of last year. Johnson has had class experience, and gives promise of developing into an exceptional debater. Raye is the second Freshman to make the team this year—a feat well worth consideration. He has had extensive high school debating opportunity, and should make a strong speaker.

The teams of the year are, in short, composed of able men—every one of whom will do his part to continue the splendid debating record which Bates now possesses.

completed in 23 hours and 45 minutes. Daniell left the college campus at twelve o'clock midnight, choosing the route through Lebanon, Newport and Keene to Winchester and, after breaking the former record, continued to Hinsdale, the nearest railway station. He was in excellent physical condition and chose a route which was comparatively level and not quite so fatiguing as the alternate climbing and descending one along the Outing club trail which Adams and Fowler followed from Littleton to Lyme.—Farmington News.

With a wonderful display of reserve strength and speed, for which Bates men always look with delight in a race, Raymond Buker '22 passed two men in the last fifty yards of the New England Intercollegiate run last Saturday and broke the tape as the individual winner of the meet. While the remaining Bates runners were not well enough bunched to clinch the race, yet the Tech runners obtained only a narrow margin over the Bates score. Bates has just reason to feel proud of the performance of its cross country runners over the course in Franklin Park.

Maine colleges represented besides Bates were Colby and Maine. Bowdoin, doubtless for lack of competition (?), did not send a squad. Both Maine and Bates placed two men in the first ten, Raymond and Herrick for U. of M. finishing sixth and ninth, while for Bates Raymond and Richard Buker finished first and seventh respectively. Meezer, the first Colby man to finish was fifteenth.

Although a strong wind bothered the runners, the weather conditions on the whole were good for cross country running. All the colleges in the association were represented, with the exception of Holy Cross and Bowdoin. The course was about five and one-half miles in length. Eighty men started and seventy-five of them scored.

For the first part of the race, the runners were well bunched, and maintained a stiff pace. The two Bukers were satisfied to lag behind at first. After two miles, Doherty of Tufts was in front and MacMahon of Tech second. The Buker boys were running in seventh and eighth places. At the four mile mark with MacMahon and Raymond of Maine disputing the leadership, Raymond Buker had advanced to sixth, while Richard had dropped back a little. From this time on Ray opened up in regular championship form and cut down the margin of the leaders steadily. The last three-quarters of a mile to the finish was one continuous sprint by Ray. Stride by stride he gained on MacMahon and Crofts who were in the lead and passed them both in the last fifty yards, racing across the line ten yards ahead of MacMahon who was second.

Richard Buker, second man to score for Bates, finished strong in seventh place with a broad smile over his face because of his brother's successful struggle for first place. Kane, in thirteenth place, and Kimball twentieth were the next Bates men to cross the tape, and Batten in fortieth place completed the scoring for Bates, making a total of 81 points, second only to Tech with 59 points. Peterson and Clifford of Bates also ran a good race.

Much credit should be given to the team and to Coach Johnstone for the sterling performance in Franklin Park. What the team did was accomplished only by a long period of hard work and faithful training under the direction of Coach Johnstone. Mention should be made of the fine work of Kane '24 and Kimball '22, both of whom are new men on the cross country team. Their work this year gives promise of great strength and scoring power for next year's team.

The individual work of Raymond Buker, of course, is uppermost in the minds of every Bates man. Individual winner in both state and New England meets this year,—chances look good next year for the nationals.

BATES WINS AT NEW YORK

KELLY STARS WITH TWO LONG RUNS

Forward Passing Resorted to by Both Teams. Bates Comes from Behind and Scores Two Touchdowns in Last Quarter. Score 21-18.

In the last game of the season Bates defeated the New York University 21 to 18. The failure of the New Yorkers to kick goals after touchdowns cost them a hard fought game. This was the first game ever played by a Bates team in N. Y. State and was also the last game of the season.

The University used the forward pass successfully no less than nine times. The gains netted by these passes gave them back the lead in the third quarter and helped them to add to their lead early in the fourth period. The failure to kick either of the goals after touchdowns resulted in the defeat of the N. Y. team.

On the first kickoff N. Y. received and advanced the ball to their own 25 yd. line where they were held for downs and punted to midfield. New York finally advanced the ball to Bates' 30 yard line and tried for a kick from placement which was blocked by Siefert. Kelly picked up the free ball and ran for a touchdown.

In the second quarter N. Y. scored one touchdown on a series of forward passes but failed to kick the goal and the half ended 7-6 with Bates on the long end of the score.

At the beginning of the second half N. Y. came on to the field determined to win. Bates received the kickoff and after running it back to the N. Y. ten yard line lost on downs. N. Y. again tried forward passing so successfully that Bates only succeeded in stopping them for a moment 3 yards from their own goal. When Wienhiemer plunged thru the line for a touchdown, N. Y. then kicked off to Bates and the game saw-sawed for the remainder of the period.

N. Y. scored another touchdown early in the fourth period and as on two previous occasions failed to kick the goal. After the kickoff N. Y. advanced to the Bates 30 yard line where Nelson fumbled and Kelly again recovered the ball and ran for a touchdown.

Bates kicked off and held. New York punted out of bounds on their 40 yard line. Coach Sullivan sent in substitutes and instructions. There was then only a few minutes left to play. On the next play Kelly took the ball to N. Y.'s 35 yard line. From there Bates advanced to within 3 inches of a score and were held for downs. Wienhiemer punted to Wilson, a Bates substitute, who ran the short punt back to N. Y.'s 10 yd. line. Bates passed to the 2 yd. line and on the next play as the N. Y. team gathered in toward the center Wiggins sent Kelly thru the line but held the ball himself and circled the end for the

SENIORS WIN FROM SOPHS

The Senior-Sophomore game came off last Thursday afternoon amid great excitement, and was the first game of the season to come to a settlement, the Seniors winning by a score of 1-0. The interest on both sides was keyed up to a high pitch, and crowds of rooters supported each side. It was a speedy, well-contested game, and it would be unfair to praise any one or more players on either team since each player did her utmost to make it a victory for her class. A spectator could hardly keep his eye on the ball, so speedily did it go from one end of the field to the other. Three quarters passed without a score, and it looked like another tie. In the very last of the fourth quarter, within the last minute, in fact, the Seniors scored their point which was the hinge on which the game turned, and which made it a victory for 1921.

Bates kicked to N. Y. who had time enough for only one rush and were thrown for a loss. The game ended with N. Y. in possession of the ball on their own 30 yd. line.

STUDENTS GIVE ATHLETES RECEPTION

The whole student body turned out in Chase Hall, Tuesday evening to give a reception to the football team and the cross country harriers who achieved such a splendid record at the New England meet in Boston last Saturday. Men and women alike paid their tribute to the heroes of the gridiron and of the hill and dale, temporarily setting aside all their athletic duties and joining with the athletes in a general social good time and celebration in Chase Hall.

The Alumni Council combined with the Student Council in furnishing a generous supply of refreshments,—ice cream and fancy crackers—without which such an affair would have been incomplete. The college orchestra played some real jazz music, which set everyone dancing in spirit if not in body, and a representative of the three organizations that support the Alma Mater furnished prolixity for the convocation. Robert B. Watts, '22, acted as toastmaster and called upon "Jack" Spratt '21, to represent the student body. Mr. Spratt's remarks were concise and to the point, merely expressing satisfaction of the student body with the results of the football and the cross country season.

Dr. Hartshorn was next called upon to express the appreciation of the faculty. He did so in a cleverly euphonious manner. He referred to the Baker boys as "the Gold Dust Twins, always ready to clean up everything," and said that he was anticipating the time when football schedules would be made out on some sensible basis of classification according to weight, as boxing and wrestling contests are arranged. Finally Hon. O. B. Clason '77, of Gardiner, represented the Alumni Association. The substance of his remarks amounted to an expression of pride in the fine record that Bates is making in all her intercollegiate contests today and a sincere wish from the alumni, whose hearty support the college was always assured, that success would come to her in all her activities the rest of the year. The usual opportunities of repairing to the recreation rooms downstairs and spending a social hour were enjoyed. Russell P. Taylor '22, acted in the capacity of master of ceremonies, and under his direction nothing was wanting.

JUNIORS BREAK DEADLOCK

1922 Wins 2-0

Once again the teams of 1922 and 1924 met in battle. Every second it was a desperate fight. The line-up was as follows:

At the end of the third quarter Dot Holt made a speedy goal for the Juniors. Then Dot Lamb repeated the performance for the Freshmen. Another tie so the rooters thought but in went another goal from Dot Holt's trusty stick. The Juniors were jubilant but their rejoicing was too premature. V. Milliken quick as a flash made the score a tie, 2-2. Another quarter was played but it was still a tie.

across the road were beginning to become excited.

Before 1924 knew what was up Knight had the ball and straight up thru the center took it making the first score. Never for an instant did the Freshmen give up their splendid fight but once again Miss Knight was too quick for them and just before time was called she made another score, making the final rating 2-0 in favor of 1922.

JUNIOR-FRESHMAN SECOND TEAMS

The hockey game between the Junior and Freshman second teams took place Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Both teams were crippled by loss of one member of their team, but each team fought well for its class. The result was 1-0 in favor of the Freshmen.

PROF. CARROLL ADDRESSES FORUM

Interesting Discussion of Debating Past and Present

Professor John Murray Carroll, Bates '99, gave a very interesting talk on some "reminiscences of the old debating days at Bates," at the regular meeting of the Bates College Forum, in Libby Forum, Monday evening. He called the stage of the development of the forensic art in his undergraduate days "the log cabin period of debating." He said that there was no opportunity for contesting for debating teams then as we are familiar with today, and that "debating was a bore to the societies and usually other interests were uppermost." Continuing his discourse Professor Carroll cited many incidents of human interest which occurred in the varsity debates in which he figured prominently and closed his informal remarks with the statement that he "was proud that he had arrived at a time in his life when he was quite fitted for reminiscence."

At a brief business session before the program three new members were voted in, including Governor Milliken's daughter, Miss Nellie M. Milliken, '23, who is especially interested in work of this kind. The other two considered were: Edward F. Roberts '23, of Lewiston, and Earle C. MacLean '22, of Everett, Mass. Robert B. Watts, '22, one of the present varsity debaters also held the floor a few minutes, discussing briefly the modern radical tendencies of debating.

HOW DO YOU EARN MONEY?

Those who have a talent for writing, or those who have the knack of thinking of original ways of making money, can now turn this knowledge into money by writing a 500 word essay.

Eight prizes to the amount of $75.00 are being offered for the best essay on "Five Ways of Earning Money at College." The winner of the first prize will receive $25.00, and then it scales down to $5.00 each for the last five prizes.

The awards are being offered by Arthur Murray. According to a recent article in Forbes Magazine, Arthur Murray worked his way through Georgia Tech, and made $15,000 a year by giving dancing lessons. While at Georgia Tech he taught a class of 660 children, the largest dancing class in the world. Arthur Murray is now gathering information on various ways of earning money at college and is especially anxious to receive essays from students who are working their way through.

xious to receive essays from students who are working their way through.

Following is a list of the rules of the contest:

- 1. Any student may enter the contest. $75 in prizes for the best essay on "Five Ways of Earning Money at College."
2. At least two of the methods of earning money should be original; the other three may be based upon the experience of others.
3. If YOU are working your way through college, state this fact and tell in detail what you are doing.
4. The essay should contain not more than 500 words.
5. The PRIZES—First prize, $25.00; second prize $15.00; third prize $10.00; fourth prize $5.00; fifth prize, $5.00; sixth prize, $5.00; seventh prize, $5.00; eighth prize, $5.00.
6. The winning essays will be published in a leading magazine. The contest judges will also be announced later.
7. Contest closes December first. Send manuscripts to Arthur Murray, 143 East 39th Street, New York, N. Y.

Senator Harding's "Lecture"

Every new man when he goes to work in the editorial department of the Marion (O.) Star is given a little talk, something like the following, which although it has been written, is never delivered twice alike:

- "Remember there are two sides to every story. Get them both. Be truthful. Get the facts. Be decent, be fair, be generous. Boost—don't knock. There's good in everybody. Bring out the good in everybody, and never needlessly hurt the feelings of anybody. Treat all religious matters reverently. If it can possibly be avoided never bring ignominy to an innocent woman or child in telling of the misdeeds of a relative. Don't wait to be asked, but do it without the asking. Above all, be clean and never let a dirty word or suggestive story get into type."
This creed of the Star might well be adopted by men and women in every line of business and the world would not be any the worse—to say the very least.
