Bates At The Commons

There have been many criticisms of Student editorials, most trenchant of which has been the charge that they do not represent that elusive thing which we call student opinion.

The New York Times would have us believe that Congress is stepping aside in favor of the President and "realizing its own inability to cope with the problem of great import."

Of course all of this may be said to be a weakness of Congress in that it can not cope with varying situations.

SPICY leaves of TURKISH tobacco are strung to dry and cure in the sun.

Well, that's something about cigarettes I never knew before I'd never thought much about what's inside a Chesterfield cigarette. But I have just been reading something that made me think about it. Just think of this, some of the tobacco in Chesterfield—the Turkish—comes from 4000 miles away!

SPORTS COMMENTS

By VINCENT BELLEAU

SPORTS SHORTS: Leon Frangedakis has a future ahead of him in the wrestling business. Watching him doing his daily exercising in the gym, and he impressed us that way... It looks as if there won't be politics in at least one captaincy election this year: Referring to the probable choice of Bob Butler for the cross-country leadership... Butler is doing good work in track, these days... Joe Murphy's leg fracture was as bad as they make them, and yet he took the shock terribly well. His last words as he was being carried off to the ambulance was for the boys to go on and win the game. Murphy has been a good player in hockey, in football and baseball as well; he was also one of the campus' most jovial chaps. The accident has probably ended his participation in college athletics.

TWO BOWDOIN GAMES GOOD WAY TO END SEASON
Ray McCluskey had all the reason in the world to jump about eight feet in the air after the second victory in two days over Bowdoin, last Friday. Ray literally sailed thru space for a couple of seconds, and the entire squad of Bates-minded spectators watching the game felt in the same mood as did McCluskey. The two victories in a row made up for the previous Bowdoin win by a long sight, and Ray ought to feel proud of his success in his first coaching venture. The hockey men have showed more respect and admiration for McCluskey as their coach than is usual in the average squad. He developed it from good material to more than very good material.

HOCKEY IS OVER NOW WHAT NEXT? BASEBALL?
We do not believe the idea has been mentioned, and it may be out of place to say so, but we believe McCluskey ought to be retained on the Bates' coaching staff. Due to Coach Morey's illness, which does not seem to be improving, it has been necessary in the past to secure an outsider to help out in baseball for part the season, at least; so why not retain McCluskey to assist Morey thruout the baseball season, and as hockey coach and an addition to the football coaching staff as well? It would well be worth the price for Bates to place McCluskey under salary immediately.

WHY THE SECRECY REGARDING BASEBALL?

Speaking of baseball, why all the secrecy which seems to be entangled with the location of the park where Bates will play ball this spring? It doesn't seem that it would make much difference whether or not the announcement was made now or later, and it would stop rumors by telling the news now. Students in the class of one professor connected with athletics insist they were told off-handedly that there would be no baseball at all this spring. Let us have the dope.

By the way, we did not say in last week's Student that we were personally in favor of dropping baseball here. We merely stated the possibility of it, due to the rumors that have just been mentioned, and because of the apparent popularity of sport curtailment everywhere. We think the time has not yet come when college baseball should be dropped in Maine. There is still enough interest in the sport in this vicinity to warrant its inclusion on the sports program. However, it would not be surprising to hear such an announcement.

JOHN GROSS TRYING TO AROUSE GOLF INTEREST

John Gross, former Martindale caddy, has fallen heir to our golf propaganda of last year, and is now personally conducting an investigation which will reveal whether or not Bates will have a golf team this spring. It would not cost anything to make the idea a reality, so Gross ought not to meet with any official denial.

INDIVIDUAL GOLF MEMBERSHIPS POSSIBLE

For those who are not golfers of team calibre, but who would like to spend an afternoon or two a week on the Auburn course, there is a possibility of arranging for a ten dollar college-year membership. The co-eds are doing something like it, with W.A.A. paying half the bill. Why not the resumption of conversations with the golf club,

Hebron Pins 3-0 Defeat On First Year Hockey Men

Green Scores All Its Goals In Second Period Of Slow Game

The Hebron hockey team defeated the freshmen by the score of 3-0 at the St. Dom's Arena last Wednesday night. Rough ice bothered both teams throughout and slowed the game considerably. It was the second and last game for the yearlings who lost to Kents Hill a couple weeks ago.

In the second period the Hebron boys went on a rampage and pushed through three goals in rapid succession. Aside from this momentary lapse on the part of the freshmen, the game was fairly even. The forward lines on both teams were unable to work the puck down into their opponents territory, and as a consequence a great many long shots were taken.

In the final period the freshmen played an inspired game, outplaying the Hebron boys altogether. But though they kept the puck in Hebron territory most of the period they were unable to tally. The forward line for Hebron, Davenport, Thompson, and Ryneska showed some great hockey. For Bates Torrey, Curtin, Simpson did well in the excellent defensive work. Both Merrill and Butler looked well in the goal for Bates.

The summary:
HEBRON (3) (0) BATES
Thompson, lw rw, Torrey
Ryneska, rw lw, Stetson
Davenport, c c, Curtin
Haskell, ld rd, Stevenson
Bennett, rd ld, Grannon
Kimball, g g, Merrill

Spares, Bates—Simpson, Fields, Mann, Parfit, Dumais, Butler.

honors in the 880 run. Second place in this event was taken by his team-mate Bob Butler, who starred on the two-mile relay last week. Third in this event was taken by Ken Black of the University of Maine squad which thus turned this event into a Pine Tree State affair. This event was run in two heats, and the winners were picked on best times. Smith crossed the tape in two minutes, three and three-fifth seconds.

Jellison Takes Mile

Russell Jellison, state mile holder and this year's cross-country captain, showed his old form when he came in to cop first in the class B mile. It was a hard fought race throughout between Jellison and Hilton of Colby with Jellison opening up in the last twenty or thirty yards to squeeze past the tape before the Waterville runner. Third in his event was taken by Sematauskis of Bates, a strong runner who was a team-mate of Jellison on the cross-country team this fall. Jellison executed the mile in four minutes, thirty seven and three-fifth seconds.

The class B 45 yard high hurdles went to Ray McLaughlin of Bowdoin, who is New England champion, and has already tied the world record in this event three times. He ran over the high timbers in six seconds flat. He was followed by Goddard of Maine with Purington of Bates close upon his heels. Ray Burch the other Bates entrant in this event was shut out in the semi-finals when he finished second to Goddard of Maine.

THE HUMAN CRICKET
BEATS OLYMPIC RECORD!

ILLUSION:
Josie, the lovely trapeze artist, stands upon a small platform. At the will of the magician she leaps twenty feet into the air to reach her trapeze. She uses no ropes, no ladder! A phenomenal leap for a woman... or a man!

EXPLANATION:
Josie didn't jump... she was sprung! The twenty-foot leap is not dependent on Josie's ability, but on a powerful spring mechanism hidden beneath the stage which propels the artist upward through the air. The force is so violent that the lady wears a light steel jacket which protects her from injury as she starts her astonishing leap.

IT'S FUN TO BE FOOLED ...IT'S MORE FUN TO KNOW

Magic has its place...but not in cigarette advertising.

Consider the illusion that there is a mysterious way to give cigarettes a superior "flavor."

EXPLANATION: Cigarette flavor can be controlled by adding artificial flavorings. By blending. And by the quality of tobaccos used.

Cheap, raw tobaccos can be "built up" or "fortified" by the lavish use of artificial flavorings.

Such magic, however, seldom holds the audience. Your taste finally tells you the truth.

The cigarette flavor that never stales, never varies, never loses its fresh appeal, comes from mild, ripe, fragrant, more expensive tobaccos...blended to bring out the full, round flavor of each type of leaf. It's the quality of the tobacco that counts!

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Because Camel actually pays millions more every year for choice tobaccos, you find in Camels an appealing mildness, a better flavor.

And Camels taste cooler because the welded Humidor Pack of three-ply, MOISTURE-PROOF cellophane keeps them fresh.
