Interruptions Make Rehearsals Enjoyable

By L. S. KEMP '42

The play's the thing, of course. I mean the play when all the work on it is done and over with and it's at last presented to the audience. That's when you want to see it. But let it be said that rehearsals, also, are interesting to watch.

Your reporter had the pleasure of attending several rehearsals of "The Merchant of Venice". There is a certain air of cheerful informality about them that is necessarily missing at the actual performance. In the first place, the cast as a whole never arrives exactly on time. That would be asking too much. A few appear early, and are given the tasks of sweeping the stage, putting various articles of what-not in various places, and doing whatever else is needed to make things ready for rehearsal. Then, after the early-birds have worked their wings almost off others put in an appearance, obviously happy to find they have delayed just long enough to escape working. Rehearsal starts, with anybody handy reading the parts of those not yet present. By this time the first scene has been gone through, everyone has arrived, and the scene is done again.

Salario Worries About Wet Paint

It's not so much the acting that makes rehearsals interesting, as it is the interruptions. Take the very first scene for example. Salario (John Anderson) is sitting on a set of steps. In the middle of a speech he jumps up and worriedly asks Miss Schaeffer if the paint on the steps is dry. Miss Schaeffer is sure she doesn't know. Someone says it is; someone says it isn't; someone says it certainly ought to be by now. Then Salario decides it really is dry and sits down again. The rehearsal goes on for a little way and then Miss Schaeffer says: "Bassanio, stand up straight; you look like an old man, all bent over". Bassanio (Les Thomas) looks deeply hurt, goes through elaborate contortions until he is absurdly straight and post-like and then gets into the correct posture. Again the lines go on, until the director decides she isn't quite satisfied with their arrangement on the stage. "I have an idea," she says as she skips up the aisle to the stage. Carefully she has them stand in different places and goes down the hall to see how it looks. "Don't like it" is the decision, and they go back to their original positions, which she decides are "the best after all."

Soon Gratiano (Ralph Tuller), who speaks "an infinite deal of nothing", is rattling on about how he "wants to play the fool". It is a very amusing speech but the others on the stage have heard it so often they don't laugh very convincingly. "Laugh as though you meant it," Miss Schaeffer says. "He's your good friend and he's awfully witty and you really like his jokes. Show us you like them." Gratiano goes through his speech again, and this time the laughter is convincing.

Must Make Effective Groupings

Or take for another example the scene in which Portia (Cassie Poshkus) and Nerissa, her waiting maid (Rowena Fairchild), are in Portia's room discussing the various suitors. During the scene Portia is seated, while Nerissa is arranging a necklace and tiara on her. Miss Schaeffer has to determine just where Nerissa must be at a certain time so that her speeches might be most adequately delivered, and has to decide at just

Five Budding 'Medicos' Make Plans For Graduate Study

An increasing number of seniors have made plans to continue their education at various graduate schools for the next year. To add to the list recently printed in the STUDENT Tufts Medical School is the choice of Philip Archambault and Philip Kilgore. Both have been active in the Science organizations on campus and "Buster" is well known as a football and track man, being a member of the Varsity Club. Other would-be doctors include Carl Andrews and Charles Stratton. Carl is accepted at the Yale Medical School. He also has been active in football and track, being a member of the Varsity Club; he has also been a proctor and was president of Jordan Scientific this past year. Charlie plans to attend the Albany Medical School of Union University. He played football his freshman and sophomore years, has been an assistant in Biology, and was the secretary of Jordan Scientific this past year. Howard Kenney will be at Maharry University in Tennessee this next year. Famed for his skill on the basketball floor "Howie" has also been an active member of the Science clubs, captain of the basketball team, and is now tennis captain. Other Biology majors doing graduate work include Douglas Bragdon who will continue in the Biology and Botany field at Harvard Graduate School. Doug has been manager of the track team and a member of Jordan Scientific. Richard Martin will also be at Harvard for further study. The Outing Club and Science clubs have been activities of Dick. Samuel Burston intends to do graduate work in Zoology at George Washington University.

Chemistry students continuing school include two honors candidates, Dexter Pattison who plans to go to Yale and Clarence Whittaker who has not yet chosen between Tufts and Illinois. Charles Parker intends to go to New York University Graduate School.

For the AB students Donald Maggs plans to attend Cornell Law School. His debating career will serve him well here as well as the executive positions he has held in various campus organizations. Robert Spencer has been accepted at Colgate Rochester where he will do graduate work in Theology. Esther Strout is planning to study social service administration at Chicago University. Alfred Morse will study for his master's degree at Brown.

Library Aids History Writers With National Imprint Survey

By MITCHELL MELNICK '43

"What are the man and woman doing every day at the desk in the back of the library?" Students have asked themselves such a question when they are rummaging through the stacks on the first floor of Coram Library. The diligent workers are not Bates scholars. They are Mr. Davis and his team-mate, Miss Drinkwine, who have been at the library since April 12. Their work consists of making an imprint inventory of all major Maine libraries for books, pamphlets and broadsides printed before Jan. 1, 1877, in connection with the nation-wide Historical Records Survey.

Colleagues are proving valuable sources for early American imprints. An imprint is the place, date of printing, and the name of the publisher found on the title page of a book or pamphlet. The workers go through library card catalogues copying off all cards bearing a reference to anything printed within the date limits. No, the work isn't as simple as it seems because the cards lack certain items of information (e. g. size, name of printer) and they must secure, by actual work, the necessary data. The final product will be filed in the Library of Congress and printed in volumes for the benefit of historians and researchers.

If historical work is to be effective and thorough as possible, it becomes evident that there are needed some extensive supplements to existing incomplete historical bibliographies. A history major may be studying some specific region, yet he may not know a tenth of the books he would like to consult. For example, if he is studying the early history of some state, he will look up the few titles he knows. But he also needs a list of all material bearing on the life and activity of the state, which may be preserved. Obviously enough, the great majority of such material would have been printed locally. When he is provided with an adequate inventory, he will find that one copy is found in Concord; three copies in Boston; four others only in Hartford, and so on. Thus, the American imprints inventory will render a service of noteworthy significance to American History.

At present the American Historical Bibliographies on a large scale are the twelve volumes by Charles Evans covering the period 1639 to 1800 and the Leybold United States Catalog for the years beginning with 1876. There is a lapse of seventy-six years that will be recorded and the earlier years will be supplemented. The project is directed by Mr. Douglas Murtrie, a national authority on History.

Campus Prepares For Dad's Day Saturday

Fathers Will Attend Coffee, Film And Northeastern Meet

On Saturday the second annual Dad's Day will be held at Bates to which all sons are urged to invite their fathers. Plans have been made by the Clason Key to make this year's program just as successful as was last year's.

The program planned by the committee seeks to give the dads an opportunity of enjoying a day of college life with their sons. Arrangements have been made for the fathers to visit classrooms and discussions in the morning. At noon, a faculty reception to the fathers at Chase Hall is planned, to be followed by a father and son banquet at the Commons which is scheduled for 1:00 o'clock. In the afternoon the fathers will be admitted to the Bates-Northeastern track meet. The day will close with a coffee and movies in Chase Hall Lounge.

Since it is necessary for the committee to know approximately how many fathers will attend in order that preparations may be made to accommodate them, all students who expect their dads to be present are asked to get in touch with Brud Witty, Don Maggs, or some other member of the Clason Key as soon as possible. Chase Hall reservations may be made with Don Russell or members of the Clason Key for those fathers who wish to remain for either Friday or Saturday night, or the boys may put up their fathers in their own dorms.

The Clason Key has sent out general invitations to all fathers but urges all men to invite their dads personally and hopes to see as many as possible on campus that day.

Sea Voyage Sets Ivy Hop Theme

The annual Ivy Hop promises to provide many unusual features for the up and coming Bates set, according to Michael Buccigross '41. The ballrooms in Chase Hall will sport nautical decorations with a gang plank and vari-colored yacht pennants hanging about. All Chase Hall will be open that night. To carry out the idea of a sea voyage each couple will receive a regular passport for a program and it will have their pictures put on it.

Arrangements have been completed to have music provided by Carl Brogi. His band has been reorganized and now has the brass section that used to be with Hal Kemp. There will be a novel bar set up for the Hop, with an attendant on hand all evening, to provide different refreshments from the usual "cookies and punch".

Fred Whitten will announce the chaperones next week, and will give further details about the dance.

'Bobcats' Join Ranks Of 'Big Name' Bands

The Bates "Bobcats", long acclaimed on campus for their performances at the Saturday night dances, join the realm of "big time" bands tonight when they enter the studios of WCOU to make a recording of two of their most popular numbers, the "Bates Smoker" and "One O'clock Jump".

The recording is being made under the auspices of the Student Council, following a suggestion made recently by a prominent member of the senior class. The Council plans to finance this making of a master record, and also hopes to have a series of 100 recordings ready for sale in the near future. If possible, the record will be one sale before the close of school; if not, it will be available at the opening of the college next fall.

Stu G Honors Freshman Coeds With Coffee Sunday

Marguerite Mendall '41, the chairman, Ruth Beal '41 and Helene Woodward '41 are the committee for the Freshman Girls' Coffee which is to be given in the Women's Union this Sunday afternoon right after dinner. Several faculty members have been invited to attend.

Players Give Matinee Performance Saturday

A Saturday matinee performance of "The Merchant of Venice", planned to accommodate all those who have been unable to secure seats for the regular evening shows on Thursday and Friday, has been announced by Director Lavinia Schaeffer.

This presentation, scheduled for the Little Theatre at 2:30 p. m., will be open to all season ticket holders. All high school students are to be admitted for 25c, other tickets being sold for the regular admission price. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Seniors Choose 12 Class Day Speakers

Twelve seniors have been chosen to take part in the annual Class Day Exercises to be held this year on the afternoon of Saturday, June 15, according to an announcement by Earle Zeigler, chairman of the Class Day Committee.

Frank Coffin will be in general charge of proceedings in his position as toastmaster. Roy Briggs, marshal, will lead the class to the exercises.

Other selections are: Class Oration, Leonard Clough; Class History, Bertha Bell; Address to Fathers and Mothers, Ruth Gray; Address to Halls and Campus, Cassie Poshkus; Last Will and Testament, Ira Nahlkian and Dorothy Pampel; Class Gift Presentation, Howard Kenney; Pipe Oration, Robert Ireland; Class Ode, Eleanor Cook; Class Poem, Barbara Rowell.

Wildcats Down Garnet In Tenth Frame 11-10

The New Hampshire Wildcats came from behind yesterday afternoon to nip the Bates Bobcats 11-10 in a wild hitting, wilder played, ten inning fracas which saw a grand total of 32 hits garnered from the offerings of five pitchers. Al Wight started for the Mansfield-coached array, pitched seven innings until the boys from across the border began to bang him around in a big eighth inning which netted them eight runs.

The Garnet forces pushed around six runs in a wild and woolly second inning. One of the features of this inning was Wight's smashing double which clung miraculously to the inside of the left field foul line and scored two runs. The Bobcats chalked up two more runs in the 7th.

New Hampshire kept pecking away with a run in the third and another in the fifth. And things looked mighty favorable for the home forces until the disastrous eighth in which the out-of-staters nicked Wight for five hits and six runs before he was relieved by Dave Shiff. Shiff entered the game after a too-brief warm-up and he was reached for three more hits and two more runs. The Wildcats had surged ahead 10-8.

The Bates boys finally got their lander up in the ninth and Mike Buccigross, who had come into the fray an inning before for right fielder Johnson, slashed a sweet single over second to drive in two runs and once again it was a new ball game.

In the first of the tenth, Mike Matragrano, who took over the mound duties in the ninth when Dave Shiff was removed for a pinch hitter, served a too-good ball to Hersey, NHU's sterling catcher, which was promptly knocked for a single. Hersey attempted to steal second, Jim O'Sullivan's peg to Brud Witty was high and the fleet-footed backstop took third. Saghnie, a substitute third baseman, popped out to Dick Thompson and Hersey scored after the catch. This run later proved to be the margin of victory.

Damon Is Lone Entry In Mayoralty Race

With the 1940 edition of the annual mayoralty campaign only a week off, only one candidate has so far appeared in the field.

The Room 13 (West Parker) party, two-time winners of the annual race, have proposed the candidacy of Arthur Damon '42. With the successful campaigns of "Shadow" Simonetti in 1938, and "Newt" Wilder last year in back of them, the party enters the fun at this time with no announced platform. However, as usual being not a bit backward about making those campaign promises, temporary campaign manager Simonetti asserts that "of course our candidate will promise, and achieve, such desirable innovations as no final exams, shades on the lights on coed dormitory porches.

When campaign time rolls around, students' thoughts turn to former campaigns. In the past, fire engines, tractors, trucks, horses and motorcycles have figured prominently in the harum-scarum campaigns. During the 1938 campaign, one candidate was ceremoniously dumped, only a little shaken, from the cockpit of an airplane, after a breath-taking landing on Garcelon Field. Then there was the year that one candidate led a tractor parade around the campus walks. "Spectacular" has always been the byword for mayoralty candidates' capers.

Rules for the campaign, as put forth by the Student Council, and posted for would-be candidates are as follows:

(1) Candidates and programs must be submitted to the committee for approval before Friday, May 17. (2) Light cars and motorcycles only are allowed on the track—no trucks, tractors or heavy equipment. The cinder track should not be used as a race track. (3) 30 minutes is allowed each candidate each night—programs beginning at 7:05. Time limits MUST be observed. (4) Programs must be kept away from chapel, classes, library.

(5) No meetings are allowed on campus, except possible walk-dances in front of Hathorn. (6) Keep personalities out of the campaign. (7) Schedule or order of appearance: as drawn. (8) The campaign will be limited to four candidates. (9) Music should not be played during classes. It is allowed between classes.

Fete Campus Mayor At Inaugural Ball May 24

As the climactic feature of the mayoralty campaign, the Student Council has completed arrangements for a coeducational open house at Chase Hall on the evening of Friday, May 24. Because of this it has been decided to omit the regular Saturday night dance scheduled for May 25.

Chairman Richard Wall of the Chase Hall Committee wishes to point out that this will mean that next Saturday will mark the last regular Chase Hall dance of the year.

According to present plans, voting for mayoralty candidates will be conducted in Chapel on the morning of May 24. Inauguration ceremonies are to be held in front of Hathorn Hall that evening, and at the Chase Hall Recreational following this the newly elected Campus Mayor will reign supreme.

McCue Sets Ivy Day For Distribution Of 'Mirror'

The staff of the "Mirror", senior year book, has announced that the date of campus distribution has been definitely set for Ivy Day, Tuesday, May 28.

New features inaugurated by Editor John McCue and Business Manager J. VerNooy Sands are to be described in full in next week's STUDENT. Each man and woman receives one copy of the "Mirror".

22 Students Take Part In Year's Biggest Production

"The Merchant of Venice", last and most ambitious production this year by the Robinson Players, will be staged tomorrow and Friday evening's at 8 o'clock in the Little Theatre of Hathorn Hall.

Featuring Cassie Poshkus '40 as Portia and John Marsh '43 as Shylock, the performance marks the climax of several weeks of arduous work by actors, directors, and a large number of back-stage assistants. Miss Schaeffer has estimated that producing the "Merchant" has required more effort than any play she has worked on since she has been at Bates, with the exception, of course, of the 75th Anniversary Pageant of a year ago.

This is the first Shakespearean play presented at Bates since 1936, when "Much Ado About Nothing" was given by the 4-A Players under the direction of the beloved Prof. Robinson. For several years it had been the custom to have an annual Shakespearean Play but the tradition was discontinued four years ago. Now, with Miss Schaeffer completing her second year as director, however, a new custom may arise—a Shakespearean play at Commencement. The "Merchant" is to be given during Commencement Week in addition to the performances of tomorrow and Friday evenings.

In addition to Marsh and Miss Poshkus, the cast includes: Charles Buck '41 as Salarino; Rowena Fairchild '41 Bassanio; Ralph Tuller '42 as Gratiano; John Tierney '42 as Lorenzo; Priscilla Hall '40 as Jessica; Richard Wall '41 as Salanio; John Anderson '41 as Salarino; Rowena Fairchild '41 as Nerissa; George Kirwin '42 as the Duke of Venice; William Sutherland '40 as Prince of Morocco; Raymond Cool '40 as Prince of Aragon; Ernest Johnson '42 as Salerio; Samuel Stoddard '43 as Lancelot; Robert Plaisted '40 as Tubal; Joanne Lowther '41 as Dancer; Barbara Rowell '40 and Virginia Yeomans '41 as attendants.

Assisting Miss Schaeffer in the directing of the play will be student directors Pauline Chayer '40 and Elizabeth Swann '41, and Miss Barbara Kendall of the speech department.

Harriet White Leads '40-'41 Debate Council

Surprising Prof. Brooks Quimby with the gift of a brief case featured the party and annual meeting of the Debating Council which Prof. and Mrs. Quimby entertained Thursday evening. Mary Gozonsky '40, president of the Council, made the presentation on behalf of the 1939-40 squad. During the evening the Council elected Harriet White '41 president for next year and David Jennings '41 as secretary; Prof. Quimby named Elizabeth Swann '41 and Summer Levin '42 as the managers of the women's and men's debaters respectively. Thirty-one members of the varsity squad attended the party, the last event of the year for the debaters.

Baulch, Wilde Prove Maestros In Disguise

When it comes to band leaders, Bates is right on top. Last Wednesday evening two jitterbugging Bates boys—C. Alfred Baulch '41 and Gordon C. Wilde '42—hid themselves down to Old Orchard Pier and showed Sammy Kaye how an orchestra can really be led.

"Basin Street" Baulch and "Wah-hoo" Wilde were chosen from an audience of 2,000 to show their talents in the line of baton wielding as a part of Sammy Kaye's feature "So you want to lead a band?" It is reported that Baulch's rendition of "Alexander's Ragtime Band" struck a new high in jazz as it should be played, while Wilde's "Sweet Adeline" improved any efforts yet made by professional maestros.

The Garnet golfers lost matches yesterday and last Friday to Maine and Bowdoin respectively. Pete Haskell was the only Bates man to win in either match.

Make Yourself At Home, Dad

Welcome, Fathers! Last year 90 of you were on campus during the first Father's week end. And it was a huge success. If you didn't make it then, just ask any one father that did, and see what a good time he had.

Here, dads, on this small New England campus community, is where you have entrusted the rising son for four of the best and most important years of his young life. Here he is working, playing, having fun, and having troubles. And although he is rarely outwardly sentimental, he probably loves the place, and wouldn't look at another.

Now we the sons want to take a slice out of the college experience and give it to you first hand. If there is a joy of living at Bates different from the joy of living anywhere else, and we think there is, we want you on campus this week end to share it with us. Run the gamut of college life. Attend the track meet, and see the athletic side. Go to the "bull-session" at the coffee afterwards; meet there some of the men we work with all year. Go to meals with us and meet the boys.

In short, make yourself at home. We hope you'll get to know us better. And we hope you get to know and to like Bates, as we do, for after all, Bates is what we, your sons, are making it.

What Others Are Saying

Have you ever wondered what the students of other campuses are thinking and doing? As one columnist says, draw up a divan and listen:

Taken at random from The Holy Cross Tomahawk; "the fact is that the war is being waged in an unjust fashion by both the Allies and Germany . . . most Americans will agree that Germany's invasion of Norway is unjust, but they refuse to recognize that it was not entirely unprovoked . . . As Americans we uphold the Constitution and the declaration of independence, with their doctrines of all men being created free and equal . . . yet we often ignore these ideals completely when dealing with racial problems in ways that are totally unjust."

This from the Los Angeles Collegian, Los Angeles City College, which is having communist controversy: "Is communism rampant on City College campus? . . . It would be amazing indeed if some among them (students) were not communist sympathizers . . . since our 6000 students are to a degree representative of opinion in this country . . . I don't think it's the duty of the school to make him (the communist) make any declaration . . . Even if they are communists, they aren't paid by Moscow."

Rutgers had a little trouble over administration rules: "The Targum is very definitely of the opinion, however, that there is something radically wrong with a system which allows one person or a group of persons to arbitrarily say 'You may run' or 'you may not run, (for a student office) . . . Such regulations, if the administrations wish to keep them in effect, do not allow for freedom of opinion."

Back to the war and the press, the Dakota Wesleyan student paper says: "For those who are certain that the American newspapers are printing nothing but the truth from Europe, it might be well to notice the figures of the numbers of Germans killed in the Polish conquest . . . there is little question but that the reports received in this country have been entirely too lopsided . . . this has been largely due to the fact that reports must first pass through the hands of the British censorship, in order to be cabled to this country."

DAZE DREAMING

By I-know . . .

WEEK-END WEAKNESS weakens the wear and tear of the witches and wolves of Bates. . . Which witches? . . . The padding horrors (coeds to the men of Bates, if there are any) who, after all too successfully sunning themselves on ye Thomaston Stream, wound up like tops guzzling cokes on a filling station stand which opportunely advertised "6 gals for $1.00" . . . Lobsters cheap at half the price? . . . Esther Strout, brave pioneer, made the only plunge of the day, incidentally a forced landing in a la full dress . . . And was she all wet? . . . Janie White discovered her brains were in her feet so up they went for the tanning process.

Which wolves? . . . Hulsizer, Fontaine and Kilgore are hacking away having sat in two feet of water sans canoe and bathing suit while hollering, "Send that sun out, Father!" . . . When asked why he lit for home in such a hurry, Dave Shift replied simply: "I like it home better" . . . So does Smitty . . .

Coeducational week-ends, however, proved most popular per usual . . . And what an education Bates offers in that field . . . Sully is already working for his master's degree so he can spend more time on the spud farm he's been drawing plans of . . . Walker Briggs quote "fooled around Stevens House. Want to know the hours?" Unquote . . . Helen and George rode to the track meet in a roller coaster according to back seat inhabitants Val and Eric . . . More than one couple completed a lifetime course in child psych during "My Son, My Son", didn't they Mark? . . . Ray Cool and Vonnie whipped down to South Berwick and Lynn to give the folks a treat . . . Picknicians were plentiful as mushrooms . . . Orrin and Ruth had enough food to feed all the little birdies . . . "Rise please" was a necessity in the Thornecrag vicinity . . . (Advt. for ushers!) . . . Week-ends sure get us in our weak end . . . Therefore, Joan Wells stayed home to write a thesis . . .

Present plans seem to indicate that an all-day outing to Poland Spring is the most favored project. Working on the committee are Geneva Fuller, Maxine Urann, Jasper Balano, Roy Briggs, and J. VerNooy Sands.

The final activity of the class of 1940 on the Bates Campus is the Commencement Hop, with the Fenton Brothers playing from 9 to 3 on the evening of graduation. Chairman Raymond Cool is being assisted by Janet Bridgman, Jean Fessenden, Harold Goodspeed, and Norman Tardiff.

Exercises during Last Chapel, which inevitably bring a lump to the throat of every graduate, are scheduled for the morning of last classes, May 28. Chairman William Sutherland, Bernice Lord, Joan Wells, John Davis, and Robert Hulsizer are making plans for this tradition.

With the custom of an annual Greek Play being discontinued two years ago, the class of 1940 hopes to institute a new tradition this year—a performance of a Shakespearean play during Commencement Week. Chairman Kendall Tilton, Martha French, Fannie Longfellow, Leslie Thomas, and James Vickery are making arrangements with Miss Schaeffer for the presentation of "The Merchant of Venice" on the steps of Coram Library at 9 o'clock on the evening of Saturday, June 15.

Baccalaureate Exercises are scheduled for Sunday, June 16, at 3:30 p.m. A Baccalaureate Committee, Wilfred Howland, chairman, and Elizabeth MacGregor, Hazel Turner, Alfred Morse, and George Russell, will have the task of considering the contributions offered as words for the Class Hymn.

For some time I have been considering the fact that most of us here at Bates spend a good part of the time finding fault with Bates, myself not the least among these, but few of us look at the good things here. We do not hesitate to defend Bates when we are away from here, but while here we see only the faults.

We criticize the faculty at length, and yet fail to realize that Bates ranks high scholastically among New England colleges. I have heard from a source outside Bates, that the English department here is second to none in New England, including Harvard and Yale. Though this may not be true it nevertheless points to the strength of that department.

When we consider the possibilities for employment and graduate study as a result of our work at Bates, we seem not to realize that a very small percentage of Bates graduates are not employed or admitted to graduate school soon after graduation. Bates has a sufficiently high reputation so that its graduates are admitted to the best graduate business and professional schools in the country.

From the point of view of athletics, Bates may not be outstanding, but it has its fair share of victories, in all sports. Bates has sent more track men to the Olympic games than any other Maine college.

Certainly, no college the size of Bates, offers more opportunities for extra-curricular activity than does Bates. Clubs exist to satisfy the interests of all. Bates' record in debating, for example, is unparalleled by any institution in the East if not in the entire country. Bates has just won the championship of Eastern Intercollegiate Debate League for the fifth time in ten years.

The buildings and equipment at Bates, and the campus which Bates' most severe critic must admit is beautiful, are far superior to those of many colleges that are larger, older and more heavily endowed. We have an excellent athletic plant, and a modern dormitory, so that we are not stagnating.

Bates has its faults, just as any institution has its faults, but life here is much more satisfactory when one considers the good points to be noted, and seeks to find what is RIGHT with Bates.

Seniors Favor All-Day Outing At Poland Spring

With the selection of Class Day speakers and the appointment by President Lynn Bussey of eight senior committees, plans for Commencement Exercises during the week of June 11-17 are rapidly taking shape.

Chairman Earle Zeigler of the Class Day Committee has announced the list of eleven seniors who will take part in the exercises on the afternoon of Saturday, June 15. The speakers, chosen by the class, will be found elsewhere in the STUDENT. Assisting Zeigler on the committee are Frances Coney, Ruth Sorague, Esther Strout, Eleanor Wilson, John Hibbard, Richard Martin, Robert Simonetti, and Chester Young.

Chairman Stanley Williams, Frances Clay, and Francis Stover have charge of the writing and publishing of programs. In addition to the official leather Commencement Programs, each senior is entitled to five Commencement Invitations and an unlimited number of Commencement Announcements.

One of the most difficult problems facing every committee is the question of the distribution of finances. All committee heads conferred with Class Treasurer Hamilton Dorfman, President Bussey, and Mr. Rowe early this week to make final arrangements in this matter. The Gift Committee, Harry Shepherd, chairman, and Anne McNally, Dorothy Pampel, Mark Lelyveld, and John McCue, is now ready to go seriously into the task of selecting a gift to the school.

In an effort to fill the gap in activities during the Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday following Final Exams, a Class Outing Committee under James Pellicani has been appointed.

19 Girls Take Canoe Trip To Pleasant Pond

Nineteen girls chaperoned by Mrs. Lawrence Kimball and Miss Ruth Hamelin left campus at 8:30 on an all-day canoe trip. They drove to Gardiner to the Cobossee Stream where the route started which continued until they reached Pleasant Pond. They arrived back on campus at 5:30. The trip was sponsored by the Outing Club which has planned a second trip for next Sunday for which the girls have already signed. It will include the same number and follow the same route.

FROM THE NEWS

by Robert Martell '43

At dawn Friday morning Hitler launched a new blitzkrieg at the historic cockpit of nations, the Lowlands. Nazi planes swooping over Netherland and Belgian airfields bombed anti-aircraft crews to make way for troops landing in parachutes. Clouds of parachute troops landing at strategic points behind the frontiers weakened the country within and made it necessary to withdraw much-needed troops from the frontiers. The Hague and Rotterdam were both heavily bombed and Allied troops were resisting a determined German drive for these cities. French and British troops once more rolled through Belgium as they did the last time where neutrality was disregarded by the Reich. Tiny Holland has reverted to her historic method of defense, the flooding of her lands to impede the progress of the aggressor. The question now is whether these countries will also fall into the hands of Hitler. It seems that Allied forces will not be at the disadvantage that they were at in the German invasion of Poland and Norway. With bases for military and aerial action close at hand the Allies can actually come to grips with their enemies. Hitler said, "The fighting which begins today decides the fate of the German nation for the next thousand years." This may or may not be true, but this fighting will determine many things in the next few weeks.

Chamberlain Ministry Collapses

Concurrent with the invasion of Belgium, Holland, and Luxembourg came the collapse of Chamberlain ministry. The Norwegian fiasco had brought down the government. The man in Munich with the black umbrella who tried to "appease" Hitler gave way to Winston Churchill. A new inner cabinet was formed that included representatives of the Labor Party which had opposed Chamberlain's war policies. Anthony Eden came to hold the post of War Secretary.

Italy is still waiting for events to see whether or not she will throw in her hand with the Nazis. Since the earliest days of the war, it has been thought that any overwhelming victory on the part of Germany will bring Italian aid. Entrance of Italy to the war would make it necessary for the Allies to divert men and materials from other parts of defense. Will the invasion of the Low Countries provide the needed impetus to Italy? The Balkan states are watching fully to see what her attitude will be, for she has always been greatly interested in the Balkans. Many demonstrations have taken place in Rome that show hostility to the Allies, but as yet no definite has happened.

Conflict May Swing To West Indies

The question now uppermost in the minds of observers of the European conflict is now, "What does this new move mean to the U. S.?" The Netherlands' island possessions are the question mark. If the war does not go well in Europe, Germany will transfer her attention to the West Indies. Such an infringement of the Monroe Doctrine would undoubtedly bring the U. S. into the world arena. Even the leader of the isolationists, Senator Vandenberg, admitted this when he said, "the greater must be our determination to stay out unless the war comes to the New World." This is the historic American foreign policy, but cannot be construed as isolationism. The Dutch East Indies are also concerned for their rubber and tin exports are vital to the U. S. The proximity of the Dutch East Indies to Japan complicates the problem. Both Tokyo and Washington have expressed the desirability of maintaining the status quo. It is significant that the United States naval fleet last

Sigsbee And Hibbard Win State Titles In Orono Meet

Garnet Takes Third To Nose Out Colby

One national and two state records were broken last Saturday at Orono as Bowdoin retained its state track title at the 44th annual renewal of the Maine State Track Meet. Maine took second place and Bates surprised the favorites by edging out Colby 137-135. The scores were as follows: Bowdoin 553; Maine 333; Bates 21; and Colby 20.

Bob Bennett of Maine erased the state mark of 168 feet 8 inches established in 1922 by Fred Tootell and equalled Tootell's national mark of 151 feet when he heaved the 16-pound hammer 152 feet 3 inches.

Gil Peters sailed over 6 feet 1 5-8 inches to beat Don Webster and break Don's 1939 record by 1-8th of an inch.

At the first Maine gave Bowdoin a scare but by the end of the sixth event Bowdoin had taken the lead as a result of the fine performances turned in by their crack hurdlers, Huling, Brown, Allen and Edwards. It was then apparent that Bowdoin was in and Maine second, but Bates and Colby were put on a spirited battle as each politely tried to hand the cellar berth to the other. It wasn't until the last event had been run off, the 220, that Bates could actually claim third.

Weightmen Account For 11 Of Bates' Points

Again the Bates weightmen came through with 11 of the Garnet's 21 points. Johnny Hibbard climaxed his four-year advance by winning the discus with a scale of 135 feet and John (Bink) Sigsbee put the shot 44 feet 2 inches to win first honors. Pratt of Bowdoin was second and George Russell of Bates third.

Damon and Pythias had nothing on Del Johnson and Kypper Josselyn, two of the frosh rookies on the varsity baseball team. Essentially alike in temperament, they are buddies to the end. Each is quiet, easy going and prone to sleep on baseball trips. During the recent Southern trip of the baseball team, several of the fellows who were sitting up in front of the bus made a raiding expedition to the rear seat where Del and Kypper were reclining. As it happened they all concentrated their efforts on pummeling Del. Kyp had difficulty in keeping his blood pressure down. He was afraid they would hurt the fragile (?) Mr. Johnson. So he came to his aid.

During the bus ride to Orono a week ago Tuesday afternoon, Del had a chance to reciprocate and to protect Brother Josselyn. It seems that Kypper was asleep—as usual—and Dictator Tapper had decided to "liquidate" him—that is he had decided to give the yearling the hot foot. Murphy did a good job. In fact, he almost burned a hole in Kypper's shoe, but the innocent slept on and friend Del did nothing. Indeed, he sat by calmly and watched the cruel torturing of his buddy. Kypper finally woke up when Murph succeeded in hot-footing Captain Hasty Thompson. "What's going on?" he mumbled and glanced with drowsy eyes at his friend, Del. Finally Kypper was told by some of the other fellows that he had been given the hot foot and that Del had remained indifferent through it all.

Kypper didn't seem to mind. Mr. Damon Josselyn smiled at Mr. Pythias Johnson who smiled in return.

The varsity golf team has secured the use of the Martindale course in Auburn. This will mean, of course, that the divot diggers will have a home course for the rest of the season. Coach Joe Conant is trying to arrange home matches with Maine and Colby.

Last week Howie Kenney and Paul Quimby combined to defeat last year's state doubles champs, Shattuck and Hill of Bowdoin. And on Thursday Howie and Paul took Colby's Lord and Pinansky who were last year's runners up for the state champs in doubles.

Also on Thursday afternoon the same Mr. Lord of Colby, last year's state singles champion, had trouble with Captain Howie but finally subdued him 6-2, 4-6, 7-5.

Since we have been in the driver's seat of this column, we have never climbed out onto the precarious limb of definite prediction. But now Spring is in the air, a new darling is in our blood and we are ready to predict quite definitely. We believe that Howie Kenney and Paul Quimby will be this year's state doubles champs. Furthermore if Howie has a good day and is on his game he stands a fine chance of squelching Lord. We say he will.

J-V Netmen Sink EL Play Wilton Tuesday

The Garnet jayvee netmen defeated the Edward Little team here Monday by a score of 6-1. The Eddiees were hampered by the loss of the services of their two leading racket candidates, Earl Huse and Bill Cullen.

Next Tuesday, the jayvees will tangle with the court defenders of Wilton Academy. The jayvee team will be gunning for its third successive win that day to continue their undefeated record.

Freshmen Tracksters Meet EL, Rumford Fri.

With two wins and one loss behind them, the Garnet yearling trackmen will meet the combined forces of Edward Little and Rumford this Friday in their fourth encounter of the outdoor season. The yearlings will be sparked by the state championship quartet, Lyford, McLauthlin, Thompson and Gates who captured the crown in the freshman relay event at Maine last Saturday.

Of the team across the river, Skinner who specializes in the sprints and javelin tossing is outstanding. Eddie Capano looks very well in the hundred. This is his first year in track, but is regarded at Edward Little as a valuable discovery. In the mile, Hardin looks very well. Clair Chesley, New England ice skating champ and a veteran of last season as a miler, has shifted his talents to the hurdles this year.

On the Tuesday following this meet, the Bobkittens will tangle with two schools from the Portland region. Deering and Thornton High Schools. Little is known of these teams except that last year these teams were a constant threat to all of their opponents. It is also remembered that the high point man of the Garnet freshman cluster, Tommy Winston, hails from that neck of the woods.

Trackmen Gun For Northeastern

The jubilant Bates track team, which successfully staved off the efforts of the other Maine colleges to put them in the cellar last Saturday in the State Track Meet at Orono, faces the Northeastern Huskies here Saturday afternoon in a dual track meet, their first and last home performance of the season.

The Northeastern team defeated the Bobcats during the indoor season, and it seems as if they will garner another victory because the Bates team has no representative in either the high or low hurdles, the broad jump and, if Webster goes to the baseball game at Colby that day, no representative in the high jump.

Sigsbee and Hibbard, state champions in the shot put and discus throw respectively, will receive stiff competition from Wren of Northeastern. This will be Hibbard's last, and it is hoped best performance on Garcelon Field.

Connon's javelin toss of 168 ft. up at Orono is better than any Northeastern man has demonstrated thus far this season.

In the 880 Dave Nickerson will meet Capt. Frank Mascianica of Northeastern. Dave broke 2 minutes in the State Meet and is capable of even better time on a good track.

Drury Should Win The Mile

Mabee will also meet Mascianica in the 440. Ike has been waiting for a chance to get back at Mascianica for beating him indoors. Mabee is in very good shape and if he is pressed the time should be excellent. Ike will double in the 220.

Drury should be able to win the mile almost as easily as he did in the same meet indoors. He has been improving quite rapidly. Should he win the mile without much effort he will double up in the two-mile where Northeastern has more strength in the personage of Prohodosky.

Should Don Webster compete in the high jump he will undoubtedly win as Northeastern has no one who can clear 6 ft. If Don Maggs can repeat his performance of 11 ft. 9 in., his best this season, which he did Saturday at Orono, he can take top honors in his event. Holmes will make the boys climb high as he will be vaulting his last time along with Maggs.

Andrews Should Show Up Well

The above mentioned men who proved their ability by keeping the team out of the state track cellar will be ably assisted by George Russell, another senior who will compete for the last time on Garcelon Field. Russell took third place in the State Meet, and has consistently proven his worth in the shot put during his four years at Bates.

Carl Andrews, hammer thrower, although shut out at Orono by the sterling performances of Bennett and Johnson of Maine and Perkins of Bowdoin, will be right in the thick of things Saturday, as this is also his last meet on the home field.

Rollins and Graichen, two more seniors, are due for an improvement and will make themselves known in the 880 and two-mile respectively.

Parmenter in the hammer, Crooker in the mile, Boothby and Morris in the 220 and 440 round out the rest of a comparatively small squad which will be fighting to beat Northeastern as soundly as the football and baseball squads did.

Garnet Faces Maine As Webster Pitches

Netmen Defeat Rhode Island State, 5-4

The Bates varsity tennis squad divided a pair of matches recently, losing to a strong Colby team 7-2, Thursday afternoon, and edging out a stubborn Rhode Island State squad 5-4 the following afternoon after trailing 4-2 in singles play.

Against Colby, reputed to be the strongest tennis aggregation in Maine, the Bobcats trailed from the start and never seriously threatened the Colby netsters led by Charlie Lord state singles champion. The one bright spot in this match was the three-set triumph of Howie Kenney and Paul Quimby over Lord and Pinansky, last year's runners-up for the state doubles title. The other point chalked up by the losers was accounted for by Bill Howland who played steady tennis to down Chase in straight sets 6-1, 6-1.

Against Rhode Island State the Garnet was off to a very poor start dropping four of the six singles matches but each of the three Bobcat doubles teams came through with a win to give the home team a one point victory. Perhaps the outstanding feat of the day was the victory of two freshmen, Bill Arlock and Junie Watts, who playing their first varsity tennis took a three set triumph from Hey and Robinson of R. I. State. The two singles winners were Howie Kenney who rallied after a weak start to defeat Ide 4-6, 6-2, 6-1 and Bill Howland who outclassed D'Ambra in a grueling three set struggle, the score being 8-10, 6-2, 6-0.

Coed Swimmers Give Final Demonstration

Last Monday night the girls of the Swimming Club culminated their season's efforts by presenting a final demonstration before an audience of coeds and faculty women at the Auburn YMCA pool.

The program started with a chair dive which served to introduce all the performers and at the same time featured the name and colors of Bates. Next came a demonstration of various strokes with Martha Blaisdell '42 giving a brief commentary on each of the different phases in the development of strokes. Those strokes demonstrated were: finning, sculling, elementary back stroke, inverted breast stroke, back stroke, side stroke, breast stroke, single overarm, double overarm and American crawl.

To supplement the group program as a whole, each class was represented by a short original skit given by those

The University of Maine pastimers invade Garcelon Field this afternoon for another State Series tilt with our own Bobcat nine. The Bates team stands as an improved team with the experience and confidence gained in the last two games. Don Webster will again match his southside slants with the left handed batting of the Maine line-up. Maine on the other hand will probably save Holmes, their most effective pitcher, for this fracas in their endeavor to take the runner-up position in the State Series. The Bates lineup will probably remain unchanged. At shortstop Maine will have Whitten who broke up the last game with a hit in the tenth inning. Crowley, all-state basketball star, will be at third base with slugger Blake around to do damage wherever he can. Gerish who played with Dick and Hasty Thompson on the Worumbo Indians rates as one of the best all-round players in the state. As a sidenote it might be added that the game looks like an Edward Little High School reunion with Meserve and Bower as Maine's representatives and the three Thompsons and Webster as our own.

The game with Colby on Saturday figures to be either a crucial game or an anti-climax depending on Colby's showing this week. At any rate the team feels that Colby is due for a drubbing and that the Garnet is the team to do it. Dave Shift or Mike Matragnano will toss them up for Bates while "Rabbit" Slattery will pitch for Colby.

Lou Hervey has been forced to give the team his support from the bench for the remainder of the season due to the fractured heel bone sustained in the last Bowdoin game. This has given Jonsson his chance to break into the lineup in right field with Brud Witty moving in to cover the keystone sack. At any rate both games shape up to be close ones and perhaps with some breaks and some heads up baseball we can take them.

of its members in the Swimming Club. In the order of their presentation the skits might have been classified as: '43, "Mock Life-Saving"; '41, "Dinner for Two"; '42, "The Swimming Club As We See It"; and '40, "Can We Dive?" Another humorous element of the evening's entertainment was the three game relays in which members of the Club competed with each other. They were, the lighted candle, the night shirt, and umbrella races.

Near the end of the program a series of different dives were presented showing the girls' skill in this field of water activity along with the swimming. Immediately following was the climax of the evening came the drill featuring a pyramid, circular wheel and waltz swimming and ending with the formation of a B.

Series Hopes Fade With Twin Losses

Bates lost a sloppy ball game to Bowdoin at Garcelon Field Monday by the score of 7-5, which just about put the Bobcats out of the running as far as the State Series title goes. As a matter of fact when the Colby White Mules pulled the chestnuts out of the fire a week ago by taking Bates 5-4, they apparently all but sewed up the championship.

In last week's game Colby started off fast, garnering a tally in the first on a double by Hatch, a single, a base on balls and a passed ball. Bates knotted the score when Brud Witty punched out his first of four hits, a double, driving home Art Belliveau who had previously singled. Gil Peters put Colby ahead 2-1 in the third when he connected with one of Mike Matragnano's pitches for a home run in deep center, far over Dick Thompson's head. In the fourth, Bates bounced back with two runs when Brud Witty beat out a slow roller to short for his second hit. Kyp Josselyn forced him at second, Dick Thompson walked, and Del Johnson hit a high fly to left-center, which neither outfielder caught, each thinking the other was going to take it while two runs scored. The Mules picked up another in the sixth on a single, a sacrifice bunt, and a double. In the second half of the sixth, the Bobcats managed to put three on base, but Paul Smith, pinch-hitting for Mike Matragnano, ended the inning by rolling to Peters at first for the third out. Wight went in to pitch for Bates at this time, and walked three in a row after retiring the first man, and the next man doubled sending two more runs across the plate. Bates did not score again until the eighth on Del Johnson's single and Al Wight's long double over the left fielder's head. After setting Colby down in order in the ninth, the most the Bobcats could do was to put Belliveau on third, but he was left stranded as Brud Witty struck out and Josselyn rolled to the pitcher.

Belliveau Makes Sensational Stop

On Monday, Bowdoin wasted no time either in getting off to a one run lead with a triple and a single what time Portia shall rise and cross the stage, and just when she shall sit down again, and just where Nerissa shall be during this time. Shakespeare didn't indicate any of these things, and the director has to try various ways until she has made the scene as effective as possible. It is interesting to observe why one arrangement has an advantage over another one, and why a certain one is superior to any of the others.

All in all, then, this has been something of the impressions your reporter got from attending rehearsals of "The Merchant of Venice". It was very much different from an actual performance, mostly because of the interruptions, some of which served a purely practical purpose and some merely the getting off of a bit of wit. Good serious work—hard work, too—is accomplished at rehearsal, but it is accomplished with pleasant informality. And if it were not for this informality, everyone concerned would find the work tedious and would be sick of it all by the time the play was actually to be given. Instead, however, rehearsals are really enjoyable.

Porteous Hooks Title By Hooking Huge Fish

Morgan Porteous '41 hooked a 34 pound salmon from the depths of Thompson Pond Saturday to wrest the mythical crown from the head of our supposed sportsman champ, Harry "Tiny" Boothby '41. The salmon measured 22 inches in length, and was prepared for the table by the clan Campbell.

Bulletin Issues Special Commencement Edition

A pre-Commencement number of the College Bulletin will be sent out to all alumni sometime this week, according to an announcement by the Public Relations Department. The Bulletin features Commencement plans, and represents an invitation to the alumni to return to Bates during Graduation Week. All seniors may secure two copies of the Bulletin at the Public Relations Office.

Prof. R. R. N. Gould was this week elected chairman of the Lewiston Board of Education, putting faculty members at the head of two major departments of the local city government since Prof. Percy D. Wilkins was recently made chairman of the Board of Health and Welfare.

Solo Waltz, Novelty Number Feature Sr. Girls' Dance

About 30 couples attended the annual Seniors Girls' Dance which took place Friday evening at Chase Hall preceded by open house at Rand Hall. The room was attractively decorated with large pink and yellow bows; refreshments of punch and cookies were served throughout the dance. Highlights of the affair included the favor dance at which time the girls' escorts received boutonnières of lolly-pops and crepe paper, and a solo waltz by Esther Strout and Tony Ward during the tenth dance. The committee in charge included Janet Bridgman, chairman, Bernice Lord, Hazel Turner, and Annette Barry.

MOVING PICTURE TO SHOW FACTORY PRODUCTION

Methods of production and distribution in modern industry will be shown by means of a talking picture under the auspices of the Employment Service on Thursday, May 16 at 7 p. m. in the Music Room, Chase Hall.

The film, produced under the direction of a professional firm, is designed to acquaint students and the general public with the latest industrial methods. The film will be shown through the cooperation of the Fuller Brush Company. The picture was taken at their Hartford, Conn., plant and will present in detail production methods in one of the modern up-to-date factories of New England. Part of the film will deal with the company's nationwide system of distribution.—Advt.

As commencement time approaches, the members of the families of seniors will be wondering what to give Mary or Joan for a graduation gift. Why not casually drop them a note that you would like a class ring? Time is getting short of course, but Frank Brown in Roger Williams Hall, will be very glad to take your orders.

Series Hopes

with Mike still trying for his first win. Bates tied it up in the second, on O'Sullivan's single, Hasty Thompson's scratch hit over second, and an error by Bobby Bell when he tried to catch O'Sullivan going home on Josselyn's roller. Poor coaching stopped Bates from further scoring this inning, as Josselyn was easily run down off second after Haldane's perfect throw to the bag. Bouncing back in the third, Bowdoin scored two more. Art Belliveau made the sensational stop of the day in the fourth, when he went directly behind second to scoop up what looked like a sure hit with the bases loaded and two outs and threw to Witty for the force play. Bates came back in the fourth tying the score 3-3 as Dick Thompson tripled into deep center scoring Matragrano and Art Belliveau, who had reached base on an error and walk respectively. There was no more scoring until the seventh when Luther started by making O'Sullivan pop and then walked Johnson and Hasty Thompson. At this point, Luther was relieved by Howie, who struck out Josselyn. Then Mike Matragrano hit what looked like an easy out to Bell, but the ball took a bad hop over his head allowing Johnson to score and Thompson to reach third. Belliveau walked, filling the bases, and Howie forced in another run on a walk to Dick Thompson.

Bowdoin Scores Three Runs in Eighth

This put Bates ahead 5-3 but not for long. In the disastrous eighth, Bowdoin scored three more runs as Dyer reached first on Hasty Thompson's error. Stephens hit to Belliveau who tossed to Witty for the force play on Dyer, but Brud's throw to Josselyn was too wide for the double play. After Haldane walked, Rocque lined a single to center which Dick Thompson let roll through his legs, and before Johnson could retrieve the ball and relay it to the infield, Stephens and Haldane had scored and Rocque reached third. Bowdoin pulled a squeeze play at this point as Mike Matragrano threw wide to O'Sullivan and Coombs, the batter, blocked Jim, and Rocque scored from third. In the ninth Bowdoin came up with another on a walk to Benzagni, a fielder's choice on Dyer, a stolen base by Dyer and a single by Stephens.

State Track Meet

sell third. It is interesting to note that these three places were within a distance of only five inches. Irving Mabee ran a good 440 as he fought off Bowdoin's great dash man, Charlie Pope, until the last straight-away. However Pope finished strong to win with Mabee a close second. Pope went on later to win the 220 yard dash from Phillips of Maine, and thus raise his point scoring total to 10 points which gained him a tie with Don Smith of Maine for individual scoring honors. Don Smith, for the third successive year, won both the mile and the half mile. He received a great hand from the crowd as he ran away from the field in the mile and finished in the fine time of 4 minutes 23.7 seconds, only two seconds above his own record. Warren Drury of Bates finished third behind Doubleday of Bowdoin in the excellent time of 4 minutes 33 seconds.

The crowd was on its feet in the half mile event when it looked as if Bates' Dave Nickerson might upset Don Smith. Dave put up a great challenge and finished second in his best time to date, 1 minute 59 seconds.

Garnet Takes Frosh Relay Event
For the second successive year Bates concluded the meet with a clean cut win in the freshman relay event. Ken Lyford, Tommy Thompson, Cal Gates and Mac MacLauthlin broke the record set last year by their sophomore buddies, Sigbee, Paine, Nickerson and Mabee. Their time was 3 minutes 39 seconds as compared with last year's record of 3 minutes 44 seconds.

Rumford Panthers J V Baseball Team

The Bates junior varsity baseball team went down to a 7 to 9 loss last Friday afternoon at the hands of the Rumford High Panthers. The early stages looked like a duel, turned out to be an easy Rumford victory and a fine nine hit out game to the credit of Cambridge. One of the reasons for the defeat was the failure to come through in the pinch. In the last of the third with three Bates men on, Muldoon popped out to the first baseman. Dos fouled out to the catcher. Thompson flied out to the left field to end the inning. Later similar lies were halted and the Garnet held in check at all times. Rumford scored one in the fifth, one in the sixth, one in the seventh. Bates' Rumford, Gauthier and Richard Bates, Stoughton, Thompson, Mullet and Condos, Hennessy, Carter.
