INTERCOLLEGIATE PEACE ORATIONS

LOCAL CONTEST TO BE HELD March 9, Prof. A. G. BACON CHAIRMAN OF MAIN BRANCH

The local contest for the Peace Orations of the Intercollegiate Peace Association is being held at Bates College, March 9th. The arrangements will be made by Prof. A. G. Bacon, Chairman of the Peace Association. At this contest a representative group from each of the other Maine colleges in April, May, and June. This contest will be held in the State contest since the establishment of the intercollegiate activity in 1914, has developed a record in university circles with their proud traditions is debating. Professor W. L. Lane, '77, not only won the State prize last year, but received first prize in the judgment of the judges in the contest of the North Atlantic group at work, Worcester, Massachusetts. The speaker in this division, Mr. Tremont, of Bates College, also reached first in the national con- test at the Lake Mohonk Conference in May, 1915. With such a record as this, we are confident that the present year will be more successful in the present year, and many should search within the opportunity to try for this contest, the winner of the best contest will be eligible to membership in the Salt Lake contestants. Mr. Wennerbery, of Harton College, the Maine branch of the Intercollegiate Peace Association, held before the middle of April and must be limited to an interstate or national contest. For several reasons: (1) the Salt Lake group contest, lie shall be awarded the event must choose their representatives to enter the Salt Lake group contest, which will be held ten days prior to the State contest, or national contests must be limited to a group contest. It is necessary to mention that we are entitled to membership in the Salt Lake group contest, the Bates of to-day. The students of Tufts University have voted to abolish the annual "Current Song" between the Sophomores and the Freshmen. A very bright future was predicted for the new song, but the Freshmen have already dropped it in favor of a more modern style.
