BATES WINS GAME FROM WOODSFORD ATHLETICS 7-4

FIELDING OF MISCONDAR AND DAVIS - THREAT TO TRIPLE ARE FEATURES

Harvey and Purvere Pitch Great Ball

Bates was her second regularly scheduled performance of the year, when she defeated the Woofords Athletics 7-4. The game was played on May 3rd, before a large audience in the Bates gymnasium, and both teams were among the best in the State.

Harvey pitched for Bates, and Purvere for Woofords. Both teams were well represented by their opponents.

The game was a hard fought one, with both teams showing great skill and ability. The pitcher for Bates, Harvey, pitched well, and was well supported by his fielders. Purvere, the Woofords pitcher, also pitched well, but was not able to keep the Bates batsmen from scoring.

The Bates batsmen were well represented by Harvey and Davis, who scored two runs. Davis was out at first base, and Harvey was out at second base.

The Woofords batsmen were represented by Purvere and McDonald, who scored one run. McDonald was out at third base, and Purvere was out at first base.

The game ended in Bates' favor, with a score of 7-4.

SITUATION IN MEXICO AND UNITED STATES DISCUSSED

The United States Must Either Withstand or Surrender

The President will have to decide whether or not to attack the rebel leaders in Mexico. The situation is very difficult.

For the past few months, the United States has been trying to find a solution to the Mexican problem. The President has indicated that he will take military action if necessary.

The United States has a large interest in Mexico, and the President is determined to protect it.

The President will have to take a strong stand in order to prevent further aggression.

The college took an unusual attitude on Palmer’s day. No Meat Day made no inroads in his classes and not even a torrential air was sent from the blanketing clouds. Lawrence gave our girls from Brunswick a big surprise by beating Temple in the final round. In the fourth game our girls met Flask in the semi-final round and played out a 17-year-old streaked line of fifty-three points a whole lot to satisfy all who had any interest in the game. A lot of these girls would like to see more competition and so would the other teams. An oddity. Our girls played on the Ladies’ Basketball Class, and the boys played on the Men’s Basketball Class.

The basketball team had a fine trip. Manager Gray piloted the team like a veteran and saved all of十九的在场。
