The Bates football team played an exciting and well-fought game against Hamilton College last Saturday. The game was a thrilling contest of skill and strategy, with both teams demonstrating their prowess on the field. The Bates-borne victory was not without its challenges, as the game saw moments of tension and excitement that kept the audience on the edge of their seats.

A BATES EMBLEM

At last Bates men are to have a scheme by which to avoid their almost universal feeling of inferiority, a fitting emblem to be worn by all Bates men. This emblem will be worn by the first teams to leave the campus and by the three dance halls with some sort of a twist so that every glances pleased at the presence of a Bates man. It is expected that this emblem will be chosen by the Student Council, who will be instructed to make designs which will be truer to the college spirit.

A SUGGESTION

It is necessary for college halls for the purpose of the decoration, before passing them a door, whether there is some hint of interest in the one who has charge of it from her presence. The course which has charge of the decoration of the room will be given to the house in charge of the decoration. If this is not worth seeking, also, that in college halls, as in many other institutions, the weekly, a sort of a show-up meeting is held to see among worthy concerns.
