Assembly of the Women’s Literary Union

The most prominent event at the Assembly of the Women’s Literary Union Saturday morning February 22 was the election of the officers. Mrs. MacFarland, Mrs. E. F. Peaslee, the President of the Woman’s Literary Union, introduced the Chairman of the Assembly, Mrs. B. D. Bragdon, of Auburn.

The preceding officer told briefly of the valuable services to society, and mentioned the fact that he had done for the Good- morrow of the Common School. He had given the people to the benefit of the Goodmorning of the Common School. He had given the people of the Union a good deal of pleasure, and had added to the happiness of the people of the Union.

The news of the death of the man who was so long a member of the Union, was a shock to the people of the Union. They had been given to understand that he had given the people a good deal of pleasure, and had added to the happiness of the people.

The most conspicuous in the Union was its president, who had given the people a good deal of pleasure, and had added to the happiness of the people.

A CALL FOR CANDIDATES!

An advertisement recently appearing in the local paper contains the following statement: "The students of Bates College, in accordance with the constitution of the Student Government Association, hereby announce the following candidates for the positions of the Officers of the Student Government: ELECTIONS WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1919."

TO THE ALUMNI

In accordance with the suggestions from graduates of the college, much more space will be reserved for alumni notices than heretofore. It is only right that our graduates receive all the possible recognition. But if sufficient contributions are not received we cannot continue the work begun in the current issue. Rost assured that the editors of the Student will give all possible attention to any news of this sort which may be furnished by former members in connection with their activities and elsewhere. Please forward such material to the Alumni Editor, Miss Gladys Logan, Band Hall, Bates College.

WHY?

Numerous complaints have been heard before the editor concerning the Liberty Theatre. Why is it that the college man feels that he is duty bound to create a disturbance when the hero in the picture does some heroic act?
