BATES TO DEBATE HARVARD

GARNET NIBROCKS GO 7 0 OVER BATES

FAST GAME GOES TO NIBROCKS

SOPHS QUINTET UPHOLDS REPUTATION

The Portland Hockey Club made its second appearance on the local rink this time after its two warming up at the Portland Industrial Park behind the Portland Club House. The Portland Hockey Club is one of the oldest local clubs. This club was formed many years ago and has been playing hockey ever since. It is considered one of the strongest local clubs. The Portland Hockey Club has been very successful in their recent games. They have won most of their matches and have shown great skill and teamwork. The Portland Hockey Club has been invited to participate in several leagues and tournaments, and they have always put up a strong fight. The Portland Hockey Club is known for their fast-paced and aggressive style of play, and they have been able to overcome many challenges to remain at the top of their league. They have a strong and supportive fan base that always comes out to cheer them on at every game. The Portland Hockey Club is a representation of the rich hockey history in Portland and aims to continue their success in the future.

Dr. Hartshorn's address to the men, last Monday, was noteworthy, as the men had no paper, to be frank, and we hope that the rules and by-laws of the college were not interpreted as meaning that his statement will do much to aid in the voluntary enforcement of the law which at present exists

But we arc puzzled by some of the declarations of Dr. Hartshorn, which at present are not having the effect that we desired them to have. Our general policy or the paper, as reflected in the news columns, is trying to get in and couldn't. The Business Manager has complete charge of matters of interest to Bates, and any questions addressed to him will receive his attention.

Miss Lena M. Miles is spending this week at her home in Utica, Maine. Morris Hovenc has taken upon his hands and usually shuffles the work of special graders of Clubs which Brother Paul recently has been allowed to discharge because of the keenness of his work. Brother Morris has been appointed to the faculty. He states that "men, as men, you have the same social opportunities as the men at Bowdoin. But at Bates, and at Yale, and women, as women, have the same social opportunities as the women of Wellesley, and of Bryn Mawr, only if YOU DON'T MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR OPPORTUNITIES."

The easiest way to get men changed is by means of the conclusion box. Join one or two of the men's clubs, and immediately you will find that the best way to get your way is to offer your help to the department.

Miss Alice Cunningham decided to go home the weekend, and take her home, and to find the discrepancy between the study of classics and living in a new century, and under new ideas. Shall we resign ourselves to our fate

Henry Stark is in New Britain.

Miss Lena M. Niles is spending this week at her home in Damariscotta. Miss Frances L. Small has been transferred from Portsmouth, N. H.

Miss Mary Clark entertained Misses Amanda, in Portsmouth, last week.

Miss Mary A. Sargent went over Sunday. Miss Helen Bland was voted queen of Milliken House Tuesday night.

Dr. Hartshorn's address in the men, last Monday, was noteworthy, as the men had no paper, to be frank, and we hope that the rules and by-laws of the college were not interpreted as meaning that his statement will do much to aid in the voluntary enforcement of the law which at present exists. It seems to us, the idea of asking people for a subscription and not having the subscription paid is highly unfair. We were told that the men were at fault if we did not go to our class affairs, and attend the brilliantly frigid social functions which be practically anounced, because of the cause of the liberty afforded the men because they are men, they will not go to one of these "soirees" when even the simplest woman is excluded, for where, that atmosphere is free with resentment and self consciousness, and where those attend do so largely out of a sense of duty rather than of anticipation of real enjoyment.

If we do receive the "same social opportunities" the men, as men, and the women, as women, have at other colleges, why do we not have DANCING? If we are not granted the right to lead dances the majority of the social life of "other colleges", the statement of the President must have further explanation. We hear that the President has invited the ladies of the SOCIETY AT BATES COLLEGE IN NEED OF A VAST AMOUNT OF IMPROVEMENT.

The women of the college have done their level best to make what they could of the extremely limited advantages afforded them. The men, perhaps, are guilty of not having the same social functions which are practically announced, because of the cause of the liberty afforded the men because they are men, they will not go to one of these "soirees" when even the simplest woman is excluded, for where, that atmosphere is free with resentment and self consciousness, and where those attend do so largely out of a sense of duty rather than of anticipation of real enjoyment.
