Last Monday night in the City Hall the controversy dealing with the railroad question was the highlight of the meeting. The main issue was the control of the railroads, and the debate centered around the Plumb Plan. The speakers presented their arguments in a vivid and forceful manner. The debate ended with a vote of confidence in the Plumb Plan by the audience.

The debate was held to decide whether the Plumb Plan should be adopted by the city. The Plan was proposed by Mr. Plumb, a local businessman, who believed it would benefit the city in several ways. The arguments were presented in a clear and logical manner, and the audience was enthusiastic throughout.

The debate was well attended, with many local residents coming to hear the speeches. The audience was divided, with some supporting the Plumb Plan and others opposing it. However, the debate ended with a vote of confidence in the Plumb Plan by a majority of the audience.

The track team goes to Brunswick tomorrow to meet Bowdoin for the final time this season. The Bates contingent is a strong one and a number of new men are on the squad. The meet appears to be a good one and the Bates men hope to make some good showing. The return trip home will be made by train and will be a short one.

The track team goes to Brunswick tomorrow to meet Bowdoin in a Hegym. There are a lot of new men on that team, but they all go down to run and fight their heads off. That team needs support and will be out with their charging sections. All get their guns. The Write will be strongly supported. The Garnet needs a big hunch of "Royal Rulers." What are you going to do about it?

Bates First Annual Carnival is on now. What are your plans while the carnival is going on? The Brain Trust is all out to have a good time, but their enemy, the Brain Trust, is also out to do the same thing. We expect to have a good time, but we expect to have a good time also. The action of the Y. M. C. A. in inviting the Conference to meet here cannot be too strongly commended. We welcome the Conference to our college. It is the right place for the Conference to meet, and we hope that it will be a success.

THE SOCIAL QUESTION AT BATES
An Undergraduate Letter

In the midst of the present social upheaval, one might imagine the students at Bates College, with their recognized reputation for radicalism, would be the first to respond to any social reform. However, a recent letter from a student at Bates reveals a different perspective.

The student writes:

"Dear Sirs,

I am writing to express my concern about the social situation at Bates College. It seems to me that the college has a responsibility to address the issues of social justice and reform, just as any other institution.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

This letter is just one of many that have been circulating among the student body, reflecting a growing sense of urgency and determination to take action. It is clear that the social question cannot be ignored, and that Bates College must play its part in the larger struggle for social justice.

Yours sincerely,

The nation is currently facing a crisis of conscience, with many young people questioning the values of our society. At Bates College, we are reminded of the importance of engaging with these issues, and of working towards a more just and equitable future.
