The Bates Student - volume 48 number 13 - April 23, 1920

Bates College
In the 1921 Interscholastic Debating League, the Bates team lost 42 matches, compared to 32 won. The Bates team's performance was not as strong as it had been in previous years, with several key players graduating. However, the team continued to compete and improve throughout the season. The debate season concluded with the final debate, which was held at the University of Maine. The Bates team was represented by five students, who argued against the motion that "the college has always been a progressive institution." The debate took place on April 23, at 8:15 p.m., and was attended by a large crowd. The debate was moderated by Dr. E. A. Cook, and was judged by Mr. W. H. Gardner. The Bates team was represented by the following students:

Mr. P. A. Bates, Mr. W. H. Gardner, Mr. J. H. Smith, Mr. J. W. Brown, and Mr. W. H. Smith. The debate was held in the Great Hall of the College, and was attended by a large crowd of students and faculty. The debate was a heated one, with both sides making strong arguments. In the end, the Bates team was declared the winner, and was awarded the trophy for the season. The debate was a success, and was widely praised by both the students and faculty. The debate was a great opportunity for the Bates team to improve their debating skills, and to gain valuable experience. The debate season concluded with a banquet, which was held on April 24, at 7:30 p.m., in the Great Hall of the College. The banquet was attended by a large crowd of students and faculty, and was a great success. The debate season was a great success, and was a great opportunity for the Bates team to improve their debating skills, and to gain valuable experience.

The Bates Student in Boston is published weekly. All business correspondence should be addressed to Richard H. Brown, 185 Dartmouth Street, Boston, Mass., and all communications and suggestions for the editor should be addressed to Mrs. Ethel Davis Magoon, 10 Burnside st., Lancaster, Mass., Editor, and Whittier House, sketching the history of the College during the 1860's, the dedication of the Library, and the laying of the cornerstone of the Library's present home. By the time he was a senior he had added a story to the collection which he had lent to the College's literary magazine. In his senior year he was elected to the College's literary society, Phi Beta Kappa. He graduated with a degree in philosophy in 1870.

The Bates Student was founded in 1870 by a group of students who wanted to create a voice for the college. The first issue was published on December 2, 1870, and it was published weekly until 1878. The newspaper was suspended from 1878 to 1880 due to student protests, but it was revived in 1881 and has been published continuously ever since.

The Bates Student is published by the Bates Student Association, which is governed by a board of directors elected by the students. The current editor is William H. Boswell, '23, and the managing editor is Benjamin W. Ayer, '22.

The Bates Student's mission is to provide a platform for student expression and to serve as a resource for the Bates community. It covers a wide range of topics, including news, sports, arts, and politics, and it is available online at www.batesstudent.com.
