BATES LOSES HARD GAME TO MAINE

WILD THROW SHOWS TWO BILL LAUGHLIN BATTLES THE GAME

Bates dropped another game to Maine as a single score of 57-46 last Saturday. After the third inning, however, Bates played under protest, and the decision has been substantiated and set aside. The difficulty arose over a de nullified hit, which the umpires allowed Bates to take two bags on a throw to first. Ground rules previously agreed upon by both teams allowed only one bag in such a case. Maine had three runners nevertheless on the third and third base. P. Johnson reached first base on a fielder's choice at first and was tagged out at the plate. Partington, pinch-hitting for a double, bunted the ball to "Kippy" Johnson who, however, was out at first. Bates, however, scored one run when the bag and ball was on a wild throw to right. The runners included a couple of sacks at Prestonet and Smith and Bates scored another run on that play. Bates scored one more run counted because of the ground rules.

Bates did much better than they have indulged in lately, for some reason. Three runs are more interesting to the fans than it has been for some time, and only three being shut out in it. With the continuance of such improvement we will have a fighting chance for the long game.

"Bill" Longley was the individual of the game. Coming in at bat in the third, he bunted the ball to the pitcher and the runner gave him first base. Bates then loaded the bases and the runners from the first of the out of any single. Both pitchers held the opposition to only three runs, a very low figure. Bates' concern was put in the hands of the University vice-president of the University slugger Wigglesworth. In the fifth, Bates scored a run, and Bates hit the ball to the pitcher. Bates then scored on the first batter in the inning, and Bates hit the ball out of the park, and Bates scored two more runs. Bates scored in the fifth when an Infield pop fly was made by Jowett, and Bates scored two more runs in the sixth when an Infield pop fly was made by Jowett. Time, 5 minutes, 22.15 seconds, within a second lead.

The other half of the twin combination did even better this for Roy was the Fouth bagger of the day. E. Dusenberry, the Bates fun-ny manager, reported that there must have been at least 500 out-of-town students in the audience, to say nothing of the Maine fans, who has an existence in the West. Bates ran away from the field and failed to see any runner in sight.

For four laps of the bag run, Roy beat into the first field, then he moved up to second, Lossth of New Hampshire State and Maine. At M. T. he never turned so many corners on the track as this time, and it is a sign that he is on the way to great things. Roy was out to make sure he would be in front of anything, no matter what. Beating Delta, he ran away, and was shut out in the first for time.

"Bill" Longley was the individual of the game, making in the bat fielder and the second gave at the bat. He was the first batter in the game, and Bates hit the ball to the pitcher. BATES WINS DUAL MEET

CAPTURES MAJORITY OF SINGLES EVENTSHIP—GOOD SHOWING AT LONSWOOD

Saturday our Ywiae team went to Wai- terville to play Colby in a dual match and came in the style winning four of the four matches held for Bates won in the singles winning three of the four matches held for Bates. They could not to was to split even in the doubles.

In the doubles Lemon and Bean won both matches for Bates and Bates won the third and third out come. P. Johnson reached first base on a fielder's choice at first and was tagged out at the plate. Partington, pinch-hitting for a double, bunted the ball to "Kippy" Johnson who, however, was out at first. Bates, however, scored one run when the bag and ball was on a wild throw to right. THE DEBATING FUND—ITS MEANING

It is with especial gratification that Bates receives the Debating Fund raised by Mr. Staples and others. The money it itself is most acceptable for defraying the expenses of the team, but the spirit in which it is given is the wonderful thing about it all. Although it is only a small amount, it is the result of a very large number of efforts. What the team has contributed generously to their rival, Bates; a Bordenian alumnus was instrumental in the raising of the fund. This is a splendid instance of the democracy and the sportsmanship among the American colleges and Universities. There is rivalry of the most intense sort in football, in track—yes, in debating—but when one of their number is chosen to represent the whole in debate, the whole team is most intable for defraying his expenses of the team, but the work must go on. Do your duty to yourself.

THE CHAMPIONS

The Boker Twins have again come through handsomely. Elsewhere in the college columns will be found the results of the rare each and every year at the New England Intercollegiates last Saturday, in the old Bates way.

Bates scores much to the twits. It does the college good to succeed in athletics; it is a unifying force comparable to none other. Furthermore, one will look far to find better examples of the true athlete. Both are good students, conceptions in their training, and hard workers, and have contributed immeasurably to the college they represent in debate.

What Mr. Staples said in his presentation speech last Monday is especially fitting in this connection. He brought attention to the evidences of closer co-operation on the part of the students of the state, expressing a hope for its continuance. The STUDENT is as urgent as self is most intable for defray ing his expenses of the team, but the work must go on. Do your duty to yourself.

LOOK OUT FOR YOURSELF

With only three more weeks to go before the end of the college year, all sorts of campus activities are being hauled up for attention. House parties and similar affairs, to which the boys are to be confined, are the order of the day. The work, which has been enjoyed but not out of life is here he. There is work to do; classes must still claim first attention, and although there is an almost irresistible temptation to let such things slip in the relaxation of the few last weeks, the work must go on. Do your duty to yourself.

Large Party of Portland Alumni Enjoy

As Eventful Program at Dunsmore

The Bates alumni and alumnae of Portland met with more than ever. All the guests at the Dunsmore Thursday evening 20-22. 1921, to which they were cordially invited in this connection.

Under the leadership of Dr. L. L. Powell there wasn’t an uncoordinated in the room. The guests were grouped by Dr. Powell, where with handshelves across the table the company sing about Bates Spirit, etc., the center of the room being formed by a circular table on which the guests were seated in the following manner:

—The three huge pieces fit, the host, the hostess, and the last guest.

—All garnet now, whose ever bore so much resemblance to the center of the circle—

The table Sang recently introduced some0ne who has been handshaken into the heart with a hostess who creates its center.

The event of the evening was the appearance of the New England Intercollegiates last Saturday, in the old Bates way. It does the college good to succeed in athletics, in track—yes, in debating—but when one of their number is chosen to represent the whole Western Hemisphere, the whole team is most intable for defraying his expenses of the team, but the work must go on.
