REV. W. R. LESLIE SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

Delivers Interesting Address on "Methodist Fellowship" at evening service.

Yesterday morning in chapel, Rev. W. R. Leslie, formerly of Auburn, but now pastor of the Methodist Episcopal in Penobscot, Maine, delivered an address on "Methodist Fellowship" which was listened to with much interest by the students.

The speaker referred to a man's valuable asset, which is his influence as a business agent, and as a business man. Then he added that for a man to practice for his own ends, and to be just, and to be faithful is the determining factor. "Character," Mr. Leslie said, is "the condition of a man, with regard to his moral and spiritual feelings—and who is most interested in God's kingdom is a man who has these feelings and is able to be of service to others.

The speaker was followed by an appreciation of our own service to others.

ANNUAL "B" NIGHT HELD IN GYMNASIUM

Athletes Receive Letters to Tune of Lusty Cheers

In the second annual "B" night, held in the gymnasium last Thursday evening, the men received the "B" letter, which is a symbol of the team spirit.

ENTERTAINMENT ENJOYED

The evening was filled with music and dance, with a variety of acts, including the Bates glee club, the dance team, and the basketball team playing against a visiting squad.
"THE COLLEGE COMMONS"

There appeared in the columns of the RATES STUDENT for last week an article entitled "The College Commons" which was intended to be merely of a humours nature, but which unfortunately has been constructed as a criticism of the conduct of the men's dining hall.

Justice to those who have the interests of the Commons at heart requires that it be stated that there is no desire on the part of the Student Board or of a majority of the student body to make any complaint against the upkeep and management of the Commons for this year.

This year as never has been true in such degree before, the College Commons has been placed on a satisfactory basis. Guests coming in from outside have commented in unusual terms of the fare. The students themselves well remember the chicken dinners and the tender steaks which have been served frequently of late. The quality of the food has been good. An investigation of the kitchen will show that no substitutes are used.

Attention has been given to the spirit of those in charge of the Commons. The Matron, Mrs. Hilton, has been most painstaking in seeing that students are given food only of the best quality. When students have come in late from downtown, they have found the kitchen fires only too glad to furnish a bite to eat. If one of the men happened to be ill, did "Sweety" ever hesitate about getting up a meal for him?

As a member is in place on the Commons Committee, it is a commendation of that attitude. That is the attitude of the Student Board, and we believe, of Bates students in general.

LOOKING OUT FOR NUMBER ONE

Definition of Public Spirit: "a spirit of interest in the public welfare of the community combined with an effort to serve it."

The theater disaster in Washington, D. C., is a good example of the breach of proper conduct. Inspectors who failed to live up to the requirements in their building specifications desired to take the lives of one hundred and seventeen people. The inspectors who failed to condemn the faulty structure did not intend to cause the death of innocent victims.

The builders and inspectors merely allowed their own personal motives to outweigh consideration of their public duty.

SOCIETIES

JORDAN SCIENTIFIC

The Jewish Student Society held a short meeting, Wednesday evening, and discussed plans for an exhibit which will be held in the near future.

POLITICAL CLUB

The Political Club met at Chase Hall at 6:45 Thursday evening for their regular meeting. A very entertaining program was carried out by Mr. John Dexter, '26, who has had five years experience in the political world. Several shots on the political life of the United States with South America were made. The club presented a mock magazine on the national movement and an exhibit on the state of Egypt and the Free State and Cuba. A paper was also presented as "The German Lord" by Marie Thomas, '26, of Chase Hall, "Mr. Sugar." After the conducting of some regular business and the reading of a material presented the meeting adjourned.

ENTRÉ NOUS

Entrez nous is coming a very interesting reading meeting in Band Hall Reception Room on the night of February twenty-third. This program, which was almost entirely written by the students, was arranged by a student committee of four members—Dorothea Goddard, Hazel Hines, Plummer L. Potter, and Dorothy Learning.

The feature of the coming meeting is the reading of an article which appeared in the Los Angeles Times, written by the son of a Jewish engineer in that city. The article is entitled "A Jew's View of the Jewish in Los Angeles." The events narrated in the article are by no means new, but are interestingly presented in a well-written manner.

LAW STUDENTS

THE UNIVERSITY OF BOSTON, LAW SCHOOL

"Laws students in general, will take notice in the coming semester of the new rules governing the practice of the English language in the United States. The rules, which are the result of an extensive study of the English language, are intended to provide a uniform standard of English usage among law students.

Beginning in the Autumn of the coming year, the new rules will be required for admission. In 1931, the test will probably be two points out of five."

FRESHMEN HOT AIR ARTISTS CHOSEN
Works of loud hard Labor are drawing in to a close. The fresh, enthusiastic and "Pro-Fog" are beginning to leave slight of relief. "What's up?" Oh, the Freshman Drama, "Breakfast in Graffiti" is coming tomorrow. The preliminary speeches have gotten no for a while. We have heard of the survival of the fittest. Thursday night, there were thirty, who had survived the last "Freshman" who were chosen for the final field. The study conservation has given out. The final screening was edited by school officers from the various classes. This elimination process has tossed twelve, six men and six women, who will go with their hearts and all they carry to their final vision. For their voices will sooner or later be heard. The vision is a form of have the first movie show in quite some time is scheduled for Chase Hull tomorrow night at 7:30. There will be thirty big reel of the best pictures obtainable. A fine and feature is on the program together with a lobby comedy full of "fresh" fun. There will be dancing after the pictures. All out!
