BATES HUMBLES NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE 5 TO 4

Shows Ability to Hit Ball WhenHits Mean Runs

Danker Slams Long Home Run to Lead for Three Boons

Not content with handing N. H. State college defeat in track, Bates continued its winning streak and put across a win much like those before the Blue and White.

Class ball was played for 6 innings with the lead 1-1. Centrally chanced a four runs for the visitors in the ninth. Bates got one back in the half of that inning. Three singles, a second and two, clinched the game for Bates.

For four innings there was no scoring. Martin plated with two hits and four bases and those scattered. Danker contributed several stellar catches and certainly was pegging well. His second time up he hit a fast but not too fast grounder to short but he was out on hose. Kenneally’s running catch in the fifth was a fine one. Gogel pulled a Jew to third base. Two outs to left field with the bases loaded brought in the W. 11. R. Mar. 11.

GARNET DROWNED IN CRIMSON FLOOD

And “Harvard 14” Takes on New Meaning—Bates Scoreless

Cambridge, Mass., May 9—On this late Bates dropped a very motorists game to Harvard by the score of 14 to 0.

Poor support and several errors aided the Harvard in the game’s defeat. Only figure, who pitched the whole game, was ineffective to the strong Harvard aggregation, and they scored two home runs, two triples, and six passes from him. Had the proper support been given him by the infielders, no doubt the score would have been much lower. “Joe” Cognn was really the star on the Gartem team, while the Harvard players contributed to their victory.

Miss Clifford of New York to Coach Production—Is Graduate of Jordan High

Carl Rounds, ’22, chairman of the committee on the Million Dollar play fist himself very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Louise D. Clifford of New York as such to the production. Miss Clifford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Clifford of Main St. She is a graduate of Jordan High school and Trinity College. Following her graduation from college she took a full course at the Curtis School of Expression in expression, dictation, oratory, etc., She taught the following year in Milwaukee and for the past year or so has resided with Miss Gertrude Welsh, a student in New York City. At present she teaches expression in front of the city’s best known schools. After the Bates play is staged Miss Clifford and coach will tour two big magnates, the first by Fund Academy and the second by Invocant students. Miss Clifford is expected to take charge of the play about the 16th. In the meantime Carl Rounds and Miss Gladys Dearing are seeing as sources. Everyone is working hard and Miss Clifford will find things in a promising condition when she arrives. The committee in charge of the play is as follows:

Chairman—Carl Rounds, ’22; John Bradsby, house manager; Miss Gladys Dearing, property; John Pegg, advertising and publicity.

SOCIETIES

JOHN SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY

The regular meeting of the John Scientific Society was held in Company Hall, Carnegie Science Building. Election of officers occupied the most prominent position on the agenda. The new officers elected for next year were: President, A. J. Richardson; Vice-President, F. T. Bridges; Secretary, W. C. W. Layman; Treasurer, H. H. Bardwell. President Richardson gave a brief address on the purposes of the society, and mentioned new directions which the work of the society would take. The meeting was devoted to the election of officers and the announcement of changes in the program of studies.

BATES DEBATING UNION

The debate held at the Bates Debating Union was characterized by a high standard of argument and a broad scope of subject matter. The topic under discussion was a resolution condemning the use of electronic devices in schools and colleges. The debate was divided into two parts: the first part dealt with the history and development of electronic devices in education, while the second part focused on the ethical and moral implications of their use. A panel of expert witnesses provided background information and expert testimony. The debate was held in Company Hall, and was attended by a large audience of students, faculty, and visitors.

BATES ATHLETICS

The Bates athletic teams had a successful season, with many victories to their credit. The baseball team won several games and finished in second place in the conference. The track and field team performed well, with individual and team victories. The basketball team also had a strong season, winning several games and advancing to the conference championship. The football team continued its tradition of excellence, with a record of eight wins and two losses. Overall, the athletic department had a positive impact on the student body, promoting physical fitness and teamwork. The athletic director, Mr. J. W. Kenneally, commended the teams and their coaches for their hard work and dedication.

BATES STUDENT UNION

The Bates Student Union held its annual meeting, with representatives from various organizations in attendance. The meeting was held in the Student Union Building, and was attended by a large number of students. The agenda included discussions of budget proposals, student grievances, and plans for upcoming events. The meeting was facilitated by Mr. J. W. Kenneally, the Dean of Students, and the meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the outgoing officers for their service.

BATES LITURGICAL SOCIETY

The Bates Liturgical Society held a meeting to discuss the upcoming liturgical season. The meeting was held in the Chapel, and was attended by a group of dedicated students. The agenda included discussions of the liturgical calendar, liturgical texts, and plans for upcoming events. The meeting was facilitated by Dr. J. W. Kenneally, the Dean of Students, and the meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the outgoing officers for their service.

STUDENT UNION BUSINESS

The Student Union Business meeting was held, with representatives from various organizations in attendance. The meeting was held in the Student Union Building, and was attended by a large number of students. The agenda included discussions of budget proposals, student grievances, and plans for upcoming events. The meeting was facilitated by Mr. J. W. Kenneally, the Dean of Students, and the meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the outgoing officers for their service.

ALUMNI

The Bates Alumni Association held its annual meeting, with representatives from various classes in attendance. The meeting was held in the Alumni Hall, and was attended by a large number of alumni. The agenda included discussions of class events, alumni achievements, and plans for upcoming events. The meeting was facilitated by Mr. J. W. Kenneally, the Dean of Students, and the meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the outgoing officers for their service.

SPORT NOTES

Keep your eye on these boys tomorrow in their races today. Bates' Frank E. Sleeper, Jr., principal of a school in Waterville, has been chosen to run the 120-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. "Jackie" Landers, in the 440-yard dash, and "Archie" in the mile, will represent Bates in the mile and the two-mile relay. Laron Loomes won last year and is expected to win again this year. Bates is the first team to have taken the double meet in six years.

"Bill" Kilgore's football squad took up a good portion of General Field as they practiced for their next game. The team ought to average scarcely 60 men in the line next year.

The baseball team made their southern trip this year, but they were met with a series of defeats. Bates is the only team in the state to have made a successful trip in three years.

James T. Day, a former student of Bates, died last week in New Hampshire. Bates was the first team to have taken the double meet in six years.

Did they lather with Soapstone in the Neolithic Age?

Cave men had whisks. Then one day, John W. Troglydite backed them off with a hunk of sharp bronze and discovered—that men had faces.

Faces are more popular than whisks. Williams' helped. The J. B. Williams Company made the first real shaving soap ever manufactured in this country.

Jone's '77 used Williams'—no other. And now Jones '22 uses one of the finest Williams' ever manufactured in this country. —that men had faces.

Three Years for a Start

John Hancock experience shows that if you sell life insurance for three years you will continue for your entire active business.

Why? Because you will find the most pleasant and remunerative business you can choose. It is constructive work, it produces self-reliance and independence and it gives you the greatest satisfaction in every way. To be a John Hancock representative in your community is to stand for the honest business.
