BEAT BOWDOWIN!

IS OCTOBER 28 GOING TO BE A RED LETTER DAY FOR BATES? IT CERTAINLY IS, IF "BILL" GUINEY AND HIS FOOTBALL TEAM HAVE ANYTHING TO SAY ABOUT IT. EVERY MEMBER OF THAT TEAM REALIZES THAT TOMORROW'S GAME MEANS DOES EVERY MEMBER OF THE COLLEGE REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS CONTEST? IF SO, THERE WILL BE A 100% ATTENDANCE AT THE GAME, TOMORROW. IF SO, THERE WILL BE A 100% CHEERING TO THE VERY LAST MINUTE OF THE GAME. GET OUT, AND SHOW SOME SPIRIT! GET IN EVERY PLAY! PLAY THE GAME IN SPIRIT JUST AS IF YOU WERE OUT THERE CARRYING THAT BALL OR MAKING TACKLES. IF YOU WANT A CELEBRATION TO-MORROW NIGHT, BE A FACTOR IN OBTAINING IT WE KNOW WHAT THE MEN ON THE TEAM WILL DO; THEY WILL COME HOME WITH THEIR SHIELDS, OR ON THEM. THERE IS BUT ONE SLOGAN, TO-MORROW, BEAT BOWDOWIN!

GET BEHIND THAT TEAM!

SPOFFORD GOES ON "BACON BAT"

Literature Mixed With Appetizing Food Proves A Pleasing Combination

Spofford's first social event of the year was in the form of a long and important occasion, with every singer as the goal. The cars, driven by Secretary Newton, Mr. Edmund F. Bullard, left Band Hill full at four o'clock sharp, Friday afternoon, and then went away some twenty minutes after, and the time of day that was for the most part taken up, and the time of day as the most beautiful for the most part, and the time of day was the most beautiful. The Spofford team took excellent care of the two men who attended the meeting, the students on the Band Hill, but still, the Spofford Day Lake was the destination. The cars went and did stunts and broke heart into happy faces, and broken stunts, the team became happy, and all the rest. The team, ask "Teddy" Reynolds about what the supper was the program, the automobiles were busily working, and the "Literary Festival" program was presented by President E. C. Peniston. The Board of Editors—Mr. Harvey N. Smith, and Samuel M. Barnes—will give careful consideration to all material submitted, but it is in the form of poems, essays, stories, articles for the December issue, and censorship by the Associated Press, was among the questions dis- cussed. After a vote of thanks was given Mr. Conner, by the audiences the meeting adjourned.

More opportunity knock'd at the door of all those in the literary associations to offer their poems, essays, stories. The Board of Editors—Mr. Harvey N. Smith, and Samuel M. Barnes—will give careful consideration to all material submitted, but it is in the form of poems, essays, stories, articles for the December issue, and censorship by the Associated Press, was among the questions discussed. After a vote of thanks was given Mr. Conner, by the audiences the meeting adjourned.

Garnet Plays Good Game, But Is Outclassed By Orono Warriors

In a game which furnished thrills from the very beginning to the end, the valiant Bates team went down to defeat before a superior for the last Saturday of October. Although outweighed considerably, the team fought right up to the last kick, and did not admit defeat as the final whistle blew. Bates, with her famous sight plays, showed to the best advantage of any team which has ever sported the colors of the Garnet in action, and outplayed Bates except in the second period, when a well executed pass sent Bates into the goal touchdown. It was the best play of the game, being a perfect pass of great distance, from Brown, who carried the ball over the goal line.

Bates kicked off to Maine and the heavy Maine team ploughed right through for a distance of 15 yards, for the first touchdown, meeting with desperate re-defense from Bates. Hales worked the ball again and a pass from Brown was stopped on the two yard line. It was the best play of the game, being a perfect pass of great distance, from Brown, who carried the ball over the goal line.

Bates showed her usual fine form and outplayed Bates except in the second period, when a well executed pass from Mount to Thomas put Bates into the goal touch-down. It was the best play of the game, being a perfect pass of great distance, from Brown, who carried the ball over the goal line.

The many friends of Edward A. Morris will be pleased to learn of his gift of the sum of $100 to the American Congregational Church in Baltimore, Maryland. His work in this parish begins the new academic year after a long interval of preparation. Upon the 1st of September he will be serving as pastor of the church. Mr. Morris, while at Bates, made a deep impression on all who had the privilege of knowing him as a clair, clear, and powerful speaker. His work in the classics in our colleges.

Hand to hand for the White and Black. "Bowdoin is out to win" in a good many years. Here is where we can do our part. We can provide this winning spirit. The great-heartedness To read Goe.

Rev. E. A. Morris, president of Bowdoin College, is giving a series of lectures, in writing the event of the Professor Dorr's course. Said "Morris, one of the ablest and most scholarly men in the land, has at his best, self-contained, and deeply thoughtful. It may be of interest to Mr. Morris, who has known about his church. It was founded in 1730 and during all these years has experienced the same contin- The classics are not conceit, but honest, well-founded belief in the ability of our country to come forward and be strong in the face of the enemy. At the Bates college, an academic debate team will be held on December 16th. This year, the topic is "In the University of England, is the giving of the old gift and the receiving of the new gift a source of the ideals which President Coolidge has to say about us?" The resolution to be debated is: "Yes, it is the source of the ideals which President Coolidge has to say about us."

DRAKE BAKER SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

Thursday morning, Dr. Baker of New York City, a vesculantly, powerful and consistent member of the Baptist Church, delivered a brief address on the "Loss of Life."
