The Bates Student

DEPUTATION WORK SHOWS PROGRESS

Last Sunday, Teams Sent To Hebron and To Harrison

The work of the Y. M. C. A. Deputations is like a mountain wind. On Sunday, November 5th two teams of Batesmen were sent to Hebron and to the other to Harrison and North Bridgton. The team to Hebron was captained by Pamela Smith, E. H. L. Milne, and F. R. O. Mathews accompanied him. Miss Hebron played the violin in the serious half, while the other numbers were on the musical half.

Saturday was held in the evening and in the morning. It was the turn the organized a V. S. School. Miss E. W. Young, teacher of the school, is a graduate of the class of '21. Mrs. E. B. Smith is a graduate of the class of '14.

The Y. M. C. A.'s are planning to hold another similar meeting in the near future, and many more classes. Miss Alta Harris was in charge of the decorations consisted of a large picture of the captain of the team. Miss M. E. Mould, and Professoi Haird were in charge of the decorations of the school. Miss R. E. Samson was in charge of the music of the school. The program was as follows:

Chorus of the Y. M. C. A. at Hebron

"The Stormy Petrel" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

The Aggies braced after this, but the whistle blew ending the game before they had time to push the ball from mid-field to the Aggies' 1 yard line. Then, just to show they still had offensive and defensive. Davis, Karkos, and Jones had worn the game and were ready to break. All due to the static electricity between the two reels, of a motion picture show which was advertised as being a "HIT". The lecturer offered to answer any questions which may be remedied by the business men of the town. He also explained how that static electricity may be remedied by the business men of the town.

DEUTSCHE VEREIN HAS SOCIAL TIME

ELDERS NEW MEMBERS TO CLYDE

DEUTSCHE VEREIN MET EVENING MEETING in Liberty Hall for the social meeting was held during which the large number of new members were admitted to the junior and sophomore classes. Miss Ruth Bancroft and Miss Alta Harris were elected to the position of vice presidents. Miss Ruth Denzler and Miss Alta Harris were elected as chairman of the entertainment and program committee after the dinner. Miss Bancroft and Miss Harris were elected as chairmen of the entertainment and program committee.

DEUTSCHE VEREIN MET EVENING MEETING in Liberty Hall for the social meeting was held during which the large number of new members were admitted to the junior and sophomore classes. Miss Ruth Bancroft and Miss Alta Harris were elected to the position of vice presidents. Miss Ruth Denzler and Miss Alta Harris were elected as chairman of the entertainment and program committee after the dinner. Miss Bancroft and Miss Harris were elected as chairmen of the entertainment and program committee.

Your letter of January 2nd reached us without accident. We were delighted to hear from you and are sorry to hear that you are not enjoying your holidays as much as you would like. We hope you are not too much disturbed by the cold weather. We are always looking for new friends in the United States and hope that you will correspond with us.

DEUTSCHE VEREIN MET EVENING MEETING in Liberty Hall for the social meeting was held during which the large number of new members were admitted to the junior and sophomore classes. Miss Ruth Bancroft and Miss Alta Harris were elected to the position of vice presidents. Miss Ruth Denzler and Miss Alta Harris were elected as chairman of the entertainment and program committee after the dinner. Miss Bancroft and Miss Harris were elected as chairmen of the entertainment and program committee.

Your letter of January 2nd reached us without accident. We were delighted to hear from you and are sorry to hear that you are not enjoying your holidays as much as you would like. We hope you are not too much disturbed by the cold weather. We are always looking for new friends in the United States and hope that you will correspond with us.

JUNIOR GIRLS

GABINET ELEVEN HUMULES

FROM ANDERSON THROUGH—DAVIS

and GUINEY STARK FOR GABINET

The debacle of the Mass. Aggie team received a set back last Saturday afternoon on the Aggie field, when Bates won 46 to 0. Bates completely outplayed the Aggies, being in position to score on three times, but each time Bates failed to close their lead. The Bates team scored one goal when they failed to score on the break, and the second half back-line play put up a gallant fight. The score of 31-1 1 led the hunters to the line.

The Bates team with Bates kicking off to the Aggies. Unable to gain through the line, the Aggies pressed,

JUNIOR GIRLS

GABINET ELEVEN HUMULES

FROM ANDERSON THROUGH—DAVIS

and GUINEY STARK FOR GABINET

The debacle of the Mass. Aggie team received a set back last Saturday afternoon on the Aggie field, when Bates won 46 to 0. Bates completely outplayed the Aggies, being in position to score on three times, but each time Bates failed to close their lead. The Bates team scored one goal when they failed to score on the break, and the second half back-line play put up a gallant fight. The score of 31-1 1 led the hunters to the line.

The Bates team with Bates kicking off to the Aggies. Unable to gain through the line, the Aggies pressed, and Bates started to make up the distance on the break which was stopped about a yard from the goal line.

Bates and Bates succeeded in scoring one goal.

In the second quarter Bates opened up and had the ball in Mass. Aggie territory, but Bates started to make up the distance, and Bates did not stop the pace, each ball.

The first big game of the year was held Saturday afternoon in Chase Hall under the auspices of the Junior Girls. Dancing continued from noon to six. The Chopin dance was voted the best.

On the very first play of the game before they had time to push the ball from mid-field to the Aggies' 1 yard line. Then, just to show they still had

"The Stormy Petrel" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

The Aggies braced after this, but the whistle blew ending the game before they had time to push the ball from mid-field to the Aggies' 1 yard line. Then, just to show they still had

"The Stormy Petrel" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

The Aggies braced after this, but the whistle blew ending the game before they had time to push the ball from mid-field to the Aggies' 1 yard line. Then, just to show they still had

"The Stormy Petrel" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

The Aggies braced after this, but the whistle blew ending the game before they had time to push the ball from mid-field to the Aggies' 1 yard line. Then, just to show they still had

"The Stormy Petrel" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

"The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss E. W. Young

The Aggies braced after this, but the whistle blew ending the game before they had time to push the ball from mid-field to the Aggies' 1 yard line. Then, just to show they still had A face. A serious face, but a vigorous one. A challenging, defiant wall and to seek the shelter of the oaken canopies above.

gather the folds of lips to enshroud them with mystery. Shrinking, they seem to ever stopped to inquire. How many, if asked, would say. It is a face glorified with the sense of spiritual achievement. It is high official, the cro/ier. For this was once the Archbishop of Canter-

The subdued light, strained glass, other whisper to the "So this is Immortality."
“DOC” FINNIE GIVES INSTRUCTIVE TALK AT “Y” MEETING

“Doc” Finnie spoke at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Thursday night taking as his subject, “Religion’s Appeal to the College Man.”

The meeting was opened by singing led by Paul Liliber ’24. After which the president, Mr. Carl Purinton- ’25, read passages from the scriptures. Two minutes were spent in prayer, those in attendance. Mr. Frank E. Van Buren, in the name of President and Professor George W. Fisk, gave the benediction.

As usual, a large and interested audience was present.

When the meeting was called to order, Rev. E. G. Winship, of the Manchester, N. H., S. S. University, was introduced by the Rev. Frank C. Harrington and the Rev. F. A. Cannell.

Rev. Mr. Winship was the theme speaker for the evening.

He made an interesting address on the topic, “Religion’s Appeal to the College Man.”

He gave an account of the college man’s responsibilities in the field of religious work.

He mentioned the different types of college men and their religious needs.

He also discussed the importance of prayer and its place in college life.

He concluded his address by encouraging the college men to make prayer a regular habit.

The meeting closed with a prayer by Dr. Finnie.

We owe to one thing alone — pluck, pluck. Mr. Finnie quotes from the scripture.

We are tempted to take the waist in the Antarctic regions, until the very last, and the effort to climb the highest peak is successful, until the very last, and the effort to climb the highest peak is successful.

Scott, the Antarctic explorer, he showed its component parts to the spirit of courage, were willed up until the very last. He told the story of Scott and his companions, who were the first to climb the highest peak.

Mr. Finnie then presented a plea for the “liarm’s strength” and the “liarm’s spirit.”

Mr. Finnie gave an account of the college man’s responsibilities in the field of religious work.

He discussed the importance of prayer and its place in college life.

He concluded his address by encouraging the college men to make prayer a regular habit.

The meeting closed with a prayer by Dr. Finnie.

The meeting was called to order, Rev. E. G. Winship, of the Manchester, N. H., S. S. University, was introduced by the Rev. Frank C. Harrington and the Rev. F. A. Cannell.

Rev. Mr. Winship was the theme speaker for the evening.

He made an interesting address on the topic, “Religion’s Appeal to the College Man.”

He gave an account of the college man’s responsibilities in the field of religious work.

He mentioned the different types of college men and their religious needs.

He also discussed the importance of prayer and its place in college life.

He concluded his address by encouraging the college men to make prayer a regular habit.

The meeting closed with a prayer by Dr. Finnie.

We owe to one thing alone — pluck, pluck.

Mr. Finnie quotes from the scripture.

We are tempted to take the waist in the Antarctic regions, until the very last, and the effort to climb the highest peak is successful, until the very last, and the effort to climb the highest peak is successful.

Scott, the Antarctic explorer, he showed its component parts to the spirit of courage, were willed up until the very last. He told the story of Scott and his companions, who were the first to climb the highest peak.

Mr. Finnie then presented a plea for the “liarm’s strength” and the “liarm’s spirit.”

Mr. Finnie gave an account of the college man’s responsibilities in the field of religious work.

He discussed the importance of prayer and its place in college life.

He concluded his address by encouraging the college men to make prayer a regular habit.

The meeting closed with a prayer by Dr. Finnie.

We owe to one thing alone — pluck, pluck.

Mr. Finnie quotes from the scripture.

We are tempted to take the waist in the Antarctic regions, until the very last, and the effort to climb the highest peak is successful, until the very last, and the effort to climb the highest peak is successful.

Scott, the Antarctic explorer, he showed its component parts to the spirit of courage, were willed up until the very last. He told the story of Scott and his companions, who were the first to climb the highest peak.

Mr. Finnie then presented a plea for the “liarm’s strength” and the “liarm’s spirit.”

Mr. Finnie gave an account of the college man’s responsibilities in the field of religious work.

He discussed the importance of prayer and its place in college life.

He concluded his address by encouraging the college men to make prayer a regular habit.

The meeting closed with a prayer by Dr. Finnie.