BATES SCORES TWO TOUCHDOWNS AGAINST STRONG BROWN BEAR

AFTER POOR BEGINNING GARNET THROWS SCARE INTO BRUIN RANKS—FINAL SCORE 27-12

PROVIDENCE JOURNAL SPEAKS WELL OF PLENTY OF SPIRIT OF MAINE STATE

Bates faced one of the strongest grid iron machines in the East last Saturday afternoon when they lined up against Brown at Providence.

Although defeated 27-12, the fighting Bates eleven threw a scare into the Bruin ranks. The Providence Journal was especially enthusiastic.

The following clipping from the Providence Journal shows the fighting spirit of the Bates eleven against their opponents. "Although defeated Bates renewed itself with glory. Sixteen minutes of play they fought Brown in the mud to take out time because of injuries to players. Only with 14 men to pick from the casting senior Couch Otto, former All-American tackle from Harvard, led the plucky Garnet eleven on the field. At the finish of the game the Bates team was fighting themselves into the championship. In the second half, with the score tied at 14 in favor of Eastern, Brown charged from the van. The Bates eleven fought back with spirit and strength to the last point, and only that Yale has been able to take to the victory."

The good ship "Rattletrap" was no less the first motor car that the Hendrick Hudson Motor Car Co. put out in 1912. The boys left with a prayer on their lips and two pendulum tides on the front wheels. They reached Port Lad, with no mishap but while floating down the main drag experienced the first blowout. After a slight delay of four hours, they repaired out of the Massachussetthighway and left all the tires until they reached Long Beach where another blowout occurred. The boys still in the system failed. The stillness of midnight at Ipswich was broken by another tire burst, awakening the crew from their profound slumber and resonating across the foot hills.

And then the lights went out.

A FIGHTING TEAM

The football team closes its schedule tomorrow, and the most successful season in years has been completed. What has characterized the playing of the team this season? Last Saturday, in Providence, two men in a Presidential hotel uncrownedly framed an answer to this question in discussing the Bates-Brown contest of the day. One man had seen the game, and was describing it to the other, who had not. After describing some of the more spectacular plays, he summed up his impression of the Bates team by declaring that they were "insoluble fighters." "They gave all they had and kept fighting until the very last minute of play," he said.

It was this fighting spirit that enabled Bates to score twice upon the big Brown Bear, something that has not been done by any other team this year except Yale.

We offer a good deal of credit to Coach Cutts and to Coach Wiggins for the way in which they have inspired the men with this winning spirit. The fighting spirit displayed by Captains "Bill" Glines and "Hill" Greene in every game of the year has been a large factor. In hand with this fighting spirit goes something else.

The football team of 1922 has set a new standard of loyalty to tradition in Bates. Their performances in school and in the playing of the team, has produced a high morale among the players themselves.

Lastly, the cooperation of the student body has been wholeheartedly urged by the team during the period of training and during the games themselves.

GOOD GRUB

The Commons Club has lost its job this year. The report is that from those who actually absorb the nourishment at the college dining hall, now run under new management, that the food is absolutely first rate.

It is a pity, in a way, for it is always nice to have something unpleasant to complain about, according to some people. However, when we can't find anything to carp, why not give a little credit where it belonged?

For instance, that the student body is now being served is one big improvement. And then, there are no rush lines this year. Most important of all, the dining establishment is being kept spick and span. The food is absolutely first rate.

If these things are true, every Bates man should support the College Commons as a college institution. It is not run for profit. It cannot run at all, unless students cooperate by dining there.

WEEK OF PRAYER

The past week has been designated by this title and has been observed by the young men of the Christian associations of the world. All foolishness! Psychology would not confirm this statement, however. For psychology tells us that the great motive force in the universe is that of will power. If this is true, may there not be something substantial in the observation of this week of prayer by millions of young men, leaders representing over 9,000 different organizations in over thirty different countries of the globe—when these wills are united into one great purpose, the betterment of the place we all live in?
