CoACH WIGGIN

place, and we will be spoiled now by its generosity. Of course it is interesting that we are talking at all, and it is a great improvement over the rough and tumble days when we were a great deal harder.

Last Saturday, 1st to be exact, a committee of Bates athletes, Coach Wiggin, looked over the situation and decided to extend an invitation to every boy who intended to try out for the team this year. Approximately forty future freshmen, fellow, and Staffy responded to his call. And what a laughing and jovial group they were! Some one told us the other day that Coach Wiggin was one of the few and most fortunate college football coaches in the country upon inquiry as to why this was so, it was learned that he had an alumnus team in a muslin suit which to our joy for the Maine championship training. It is an unusual and fortunate result for a coach to find all of the positions filled by men who have had at least one year’s experience. Other college coaches turn green over night worrying over position battles, but not so with Wg. Wg.

Although the call of candidates is never more or less serious, it gives “Wg” an opportunity to take a glimpse at the situation before actual practice begins. Cage work for the batting men has already begun, and by this time the snow will get off the ground, they will be out as well as their way to state form.

ATTENTION ATTENTION

Last year we won our deal with a good start at the point. This emphasizes the necessity of every man in the game.

We placed second in the Maine Meet and lost the New England’s championship to Bates, 21-20. Of four points, the Marbes finishing second, and Miss Margaret Lombard—21st, 24th, 26th. Following this event came two 220 yard ski races for men—led by Chadron—22nd, 24th, 26th, Libby—22nd, 24th, 26th.

The winners of the two 220 yard snowshoe events were—men—led by Chadron—22nd, 24th, 26th, Libby—22nd, 24th, 26th. The Sophomores scored the greatest number of points.

SECOND DAY

The second day of the Outing Club Winter Festival was filled with excitement and fun. The weather was perfect, with clear skies and warm temperatures. Students were able to enjoy a variety of winter sports and activities.

WINTER SPORTS

CARNIVAL A SUCCESS DESPITE HEAT WAVES

The Summary:

The store was packed with people, the air was filled with excitement, and everyone was having a great time. It was a resounding success, despite the heat waves that threatened to take away the fun. The carnival continued on the following days, each one more successful than the last, with plenty of winter sports and activities for everyone to enjoy.

CHOIR WIGG’S COACH THAT BASEBALL TEAM!

The eight teams which will compete for the western states honors in intercollegiate baseball at the Bates Tournament on the Lewiston campus on Saturday and Sunday of this week are selected as follows: Bidded Field, Edward Little of Auburn, Lincoln Academy of Damariscotta, Morse High of South Portland, the Portland Post, Portland High and Stephens High of Sanford.

The winner of this tournament will be eligible for one of the state representatives in the Tied New England Meet. The other team will be selected from a list of teams offered by the Bates League. The winner of the tournament will be determined at the University of Maine.

The committee on selection of teams to take part in the Bates Tournament was instructed to name the eight in the most likely order of the state, which records for the season characterize them as the strongest material. These traveling expenses on the eight schools automatically represent particular counties.

In the selection of the teams the committee was influenced by strength of teams, records of past performances and so on, as far as possible with the same teams. More percentage of wins and losses was considered in some of the competition as “faculty games” and “non faculty games” as largely as possible to the regular competition.

The tournament will be played by the Bates Intercollegiate League which was organized last year for the purpose of fostering a debating fraternity for secondary school debaters, modular college and high college. One of the college. Thirty-six speakmen of the Bates Intercollegiate League were at that time included in the regular high school. A year ago the debaters from the six schools representing regular high schools were included in the high school. This was here proposed that debaters who grant to all schools in the league and the league to take in the regular high schools.

The question for debate in the league this spring is: Resolved, That the Federal Government Should Provide for the Compulsory Arbitration of Disputes Between Capital and Labor. A debating tournament will be held at Bates College on April 13.

The Bates Intercollegiate League has grown from an organization of eight schools to twelve since its formation in the fall of 1923.

The winners of the 10 respective groupings of schools which participate in the league will be invited to send teams to compete for a berth in the Bates College Tournament.

The tournament will be held on April 13.

A COLUMN OF COMMENT

The enforced delay in the girls' basketball schedule seems to have decreased the interest in the sport.

The captives of all the teams report that they are cheating more than usual, and that the number of candidates still in training is larger in spite of the depression. It is a wonderful thing in any sport to have someone come along who can make people forget the fun of playing whether there is any chance of making the team or not.

Monday training began and every hope of the Spring seems slowly to fade as a quick throw over the head of the mark, into the small end of the facet that their friends across the campus think they must to have it, and that there is a definite service from training, training they have to, and that there is a definite service from training, training they have to, for the benefit of all. And there are also certain people who are beginning to worry about eligibility but requires good mental discipline.

A general warning now indicates that two weeks time we are going to see some new maples basketball games. This season promises to be the most difficult to date.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

The women's glee club and orchestra made a successful trip to Poland last Sunday evening, with a program which appeared in the paper a few days ago. The regular meeting of Deutschcr Art Students' Society will have an opportunity to visit the Maine Historical Society during his four years on the varsity, but requires good mental discipline.

The address will be delivered by Professor E. H. Turner, '24, who was elected chairman of the program committee for the annual meeting of the Society.

"It said Welcome on the doormat, for the college's basketball schedule was on the title of a popular song. Let's hope the men rendering for basketball that their girls are practicing running and jumping into the small end of the facet in spite of the depression. Let's hope they can come along who can make people forget the fun of playing whether there is any chance of making the team or not."

A DEMONSTRATION OF BATES SPIRIT

No college that lacks the true spirit can long endure. "That intangible something," we hear so much about during the football season, must be in evidence at other times of the year if a college is to maintain its own work for itself in the collegiate world.

We have been demonstrated, during the past few weeks, a spirit that has wisdom been upheld in the history of Bates. The hockey men, each and every one of them, have shown us the way. Let us profit by their splendid example.

Handicapped by the quarantine, it looked as though the hockey season was doomed. After several days lay-off, however, arrangements were made, and the ever alert crew got on with the schedule, and word was quickly sent out for the hockey men to return to the game.

While waiting for those players, who lived at a considerable distance to return, the local men, headed by the captain of the team, worked hard to get the game in shape for practice. And it was work! Anyone who has helped to clean off the rink knows what it is like, and, with a crew of limited numbers on hand, it meant considerable individual effort. With the ice ready, practice was resumed, and, minus the student body to encourage them on, the boys came back full advantage of it.

The Old Club Carnival can go down in our "mem'" books as a success for the women's glee club and orchestra. A supper was served early in the evening, after which the following program was presented:

Today they are the champions of the State of Maine as a result of that grit for which the old Bates spirit should always stand! —

A SUCCESS

The Outing Club Carnival can go down in our "mem'" books as a distinct success in spite of the postponement caused by the quarantines.

The officials in charge are to be congratulated on the way the winter sports were handled; and the Carnival dance gave all a genuine good time.

To the high point winners, Philip Chadbourn and Bertrum Jordan, the Bates Student offers its congratulations. Great stuff!

With the call for basketball candidates, recently issued by the coach, Sir Spring Fever once more enters our lives. Can you hear the crack of the old bat out there on Gavledon Field?

There's music in the air. Parker Hall has a new piano!

Let us pay attention to the signs recently placed near the fire extinguishers: "For Fire Use Only." There is no need to be careless in this regard. Remember the Caliby fire.

"Best Paid Hard Work in the World"

I s the way a John Hancock salesman described his work. He is a college graduate and in five years has put himself at the very top of his line.

He never has called upon a prospect without a prepared message. The best life insurance salesmen today work on that plan, making it a business of dignity, such as any worthy and ambitious college graduate can find satisfying to his mental and highly remunerative as well.

The man above quoted is the John Hancock's youngest general agent. He shows what college graduates of the right type can do in this business, how they can build up earning power and at the same time provide for an accumulated competence for the years to come.

Graduation is a vital period in your life and you are liable to hold to the business you start in. It would be well before making a definite decision to inquire into life insurance as a career. Address, "Agency Department.

A REVIEW OF HOCKEY

Season Most Successful In History of Bates

Captain Eddie Roberts has led his men to a new record season, the most successful ever achieved by a Garnet Hockey team. Undoubtedly, Eddie rang the starting signal in the last Colby game as the score scheduled with the U. of M. was numerically cancelled because of the unfavorable conditions of the ice on Citation day. Nevertheless, having played and won five games in the State series an accomplishment unprevented by any college hockey team in the State. In addition, the Bates outfit has defeated West Point, the Augusta Club and the Portland K. of C. It has not defeated at the hands of Princeton, R. T., and the A. N. H. team, and, after the unusual condition brought about by quarantining, to the U. of M. at the Augusta Carnival. Bates has scored 56 goals in 4 games and the exceptionally strong team of Princeton and B. V. scored 3 of these opponents' tallies. The league games Bates has 31 goals in her credit against 7 for her opponent. Captain Roberts led the scoring with 17 to his credit. Chris on his heels is Joe Cogin with 16, followed by R. Stanley, with 8; Lionardi with 7, C. Corby with 6; and J. Stanley with 2. Scott and Batten were not in a position to score but their excellent work is shown by the low score of the Bates opponents. Most credit is due the team that lost the game of Carl Wiggln, who did some excellent coaching, and the work of Manager Breese who kept the girls in good condition throughout the season can not be left unmentioned. The united efforts of all have made it possible for Bates to be represented by the strongest hockey club ever to represent a Maine college.

Officers Elected For The Coming Year

KICK-HEEDEES can not longer be worn with school uniforms at Bates College, as a result of a ruling made recently by the Dean of Women. Kickers have been worn throughout the day by some of the women of the college, the authorities do not consider the wearing of kickers, but consider them inappropriate in the class room.
