That Bates grad is doing much in the upbuilding of our country's war and heeding their warnings. He is continuing to play his part well in these days of peace, when economic evolution has been reinstated after promising never again to use it. The message he brought to us was heard since then has been very favorable towards the professor's plans.

We understand that for some years Doctor Tubbs has been looking forward to such a course and we are very glad to give it at this time, the editorial staff of the Bates Student. We feel sure it would meet with instantaneous success.

Biography is a subject that could well be set apart from the general run of college work. It would, of course, supplement to some extent the history department and yet be of sufficient merit in itself, to stand on its "own."

The study might be hampered, at first, by the overwhelming mass of material that is lacking of it. We are certain, however, that the choice would be wisely made under the guidance of Doctor Tubbs.

It would do no harm to experiment and offer for election, next fall, a course in biography. We hope the faculty will give this their attention since there is a well defined sentiment strongly in favor of such a course as Doctor Tubbs has suggested.

DRAMATICS AT BATES

Tonight the Spofford Club presents for the approval of the college a couple of original plays. This forms the second real dramatic event of the year at the college. It would, of course, supplement the somewhat limited extent the history department and yet be of sufficient merit in itself, to stand on its "own."

THAT BATES GRAD

Bates students were glad of the opportunity to welcome, at Chapel the morning, such an outstanding alumnus as General Hervey has proved himself to be. The message he brought to us was received with delight by all, especially by the Americanists that should be in evidence throughout the land.

That Bates grad is doing such in the upbuilding of our country's war and heeding their warnings. He is continuing to play his part well in these days of peace, when the true American is taking into account the lessons learned from that war and bearding their warnings.

The professor in a southern college who was suspended for teaching evolution has been reinstated after promising never again to teach that subject. Can you imagine a certain Bates professor accepting a chair on such conditions? Neither can we!
What do they mean "Senior Wrangler"?

You may not have met one of those dear old boys—Oxonian stuff, what, what—but our idea of a senior wrangler is a 25-man trying to work up a lather with the wrong kind of shaving cream.

There’s no "wrangling" necessary to get a lather with Williams' Shaving Cream. Squeeze out a spendthrift's dab or a tightwad's dab—it's all the same. Either way you get a big, efficient lather that softens the beard right down to the base of every hair.

The idea of a senior wrangler is a young man trying to work up a lather with the wrong kind of shaving cream. No face this helpful care.

Get a tube of Williams' today and begin giving your face the helpful care.

Business Building

The telling of commodities is fundamental in every business, and selling life insurance affords the maximum of satisfaction and remuneration. For the life insurance salesman is a business builder and finds innumerable ways to serve the community and make himself indispensable in the conduct of modern affairs.

The life insurance salesman is not only a business builder but in his business for himself is a competitor per se. For many years insurers and insurance agents have been idealizing the character and stamina necessary to stamp individuality upon the business and on its community.

The traditions and practices of the John Hancock are such that its college graduates take a peculiar pride in representing this company. You are likely to meet in the business world a company man who is a natural for insurance work.

"We want fifty college graduates before July 1st to develop and train in general sales work for executive positions to sell Finch’s in The Fuller Brush Company.

Basis.

We want fifty college graduates before July 1st to develop and train in general sales work for executive positions to sell Finch’s in The Fuller Brush Company.

The Boston College graduates will have the advantage of the hundreds of college graduates who were developed by The Fuller Brush Company last year.

They will grow, prosper and become part of the largest manufacturer and organization of its kind in the world.

Boston College graduates interested are invited to write to Mr. E. A. Winsor, Manager of the Boston Sales District, 150 Essex St., Boston, mass., or to the Sales Manager, The Fuller Brush Company, Hartford, Conn.

A limited number of college graduates are wanted for sales work during the summer months of 1933, to be returned to the normal college courses in the fall of 1933.
