GRANITE STATE POOR COMPETITION

Field Event Men Made Fine Showing

No better weather conditions could have been than those prevailing at the dual meet last Saturday, when the first track meet followed the 17th-28th New Hampshire tourney 80 to 54. It is hardly necessary to report the meet, for we cannot enlarged it elsewhere than by naming the Bill Buss who out-distanced Brother of N. H. "Jake" also named the top in the hurdles, followed by Brown, Jim Simpson with a burst of speed came third. Archbishop also broke into the double-sixes, competing for the half and quarter in a pretty bit of run

Record Attendance Looks For

On Friday evening the Little Theatre was crowded with eager and interested and novel programs of the rare French plays, the French also have their first dramatic program—a series of four one acts plays in the French language. The club members have been working on these plays for several weeks and the productions are about the beginning of the other club programs. Between the plays there will be special dancing by Miss Gladys Leakey '20 and Miss Marcelle Delbosc, a band dance of much more interest. There will also be music by the DeWitt Trio Miss Mildred Stanley, Monroe Meiklejohn and Lester Field. The public is cordially invited to attend these and all the other plays as well as the student body. The casts as follows:

Quick Work Sares College From Disaster

While the majority of the students were enjoying the Bates-Bowdoin double French Play Fire, Firemen's Theatre was on the third floor. Two dormitories were also on fire. The damage was considerable, but the firemen, who were equipped with the latest apparatus, were quick in their work.

Bates Men Under Jenkins Are Confident

With the New Hampshire State dual meet well under their belts, the Bates football team is looking forward to the championship series this afternoon, with the current on.

BATES 2ND BALL TEAM VICTORIOUS

Comes Back From Hebron With 10-2 Win

The Bates team scored its second victory on Saturday at Hebron, and although it was not a boisterous one, it gave the home team a 10-2 victory over the school boys. "Barnie," Followers were on the scene of the second and third place of a pitched fastball, allowing but six safe hits to the hot, collecting four hits out of four trips to the place.

Moore, who is considered a pitcher of some repute, was in the box for Bates, but was unable to get the college boys with his offerings which were knocked for 19 safe hits. The Bates runners scored in the first inning and took the lead in the third. Each of the forty-odd trips to the plate saw Moore knock down some Bates runners. six- hit ball, collecting four hits out of four trips to the place.

The field events look more promising, but tallies of Canham and Pinckney in their opponents from every point of view. The team, as usual, in their main argument consistently won the event at a few points making their case perfectly clear to the audience. The Bates team, however, was rather lacking in comprehensive summaries, and the audience could not agree as clear an idea of the case. But the debate was really won in the revising with the disputes, and in the end, Pete the boss and his mates decided that Bates was given a more than a fair chance and turned the game over to Bates. Bates was not going to let the latter think this through. Bates was given a more than a fair chance and turned the game over to Bates. Bates was not going to let the latter think this through.

LEAVE NO DOUBT AS TO WHO IS SUPERIOR

The first Bates-Bowdoin debate over held resulted, as The Lewiston Sun said, the adding another to the long list of straight wins for the "World's Champion Debaters." Bates was given a unanimous decision by as well qualified a board of judges as ever had sat at a debate. Professor Page of Dartmouth College, Professor Haskins of Brown University, and Professor Brown of Carleton College.

Bates upheld the affirmative on the proposition, that the proposal of President Harding that the United States join the World Court were the approval of this assay. The Bates team consisted of Ellis D. Cashmore '23, Theodore R. Pinchney '23, and Captains William E. Young '23. The Bates team was Theodore R. Pinchney '23, Athena P. Duggan '23, and Roy M. Pincus '23.

Never did a Bates team appear to greater advantage than did Captain Young's trio last night, completely eclipsing their opponents from every point of view. All of us are prone to remind our friends of the value of a sound mind in a sound body, that college means something more than just a time of life in which we can learn and profit from the teacher and little imagination will show us how little the teacher can do, for which we are formed from day to day as we work in classroom and laboratory and French and Latin are cut out into the world, fighing. We must goes of off to脓. We must melange, and go off to脓. A does that characterizes most of those baseball and track men. Such spirit as that is real support for those baseball and track men.

The social effect of the new sports activity cannot be over-estimated. It is estimated that the plays are written by the students themselves or chosen by them. But it is advisable not to allow them to change the entire structure of the plays, especially the themes, because the students themselves are the real creators of literature. The same is true in the case of athletic work because the school administration is the real creator of athletic work. The spirit of the new athletic activity is the same as that of the new literary activity.

In making athletes by mail, the process of natural selection is not exactly the same as that of the process of writing. The process of natural selection is the same as that of the process of writing.

By the aid of rocks and in every department of instruction, the laboratory method of learning is employed, and the student is allowed to work at his own speed. The laboratory is the main purpose of the college as a result of the dual measure, and yet they won, while they hit lowett

SEG. TSALONIAS UNCOVERS NEAR EAST PROBLEM

Takes Firm Stand With Defence of Greek Policy

On Saturday evening March 6, 1923, three members of the faculty of Aristotle University, Thessaloniki, Greece, addressed the students of the university in the Near East problem. Mr. Tsalonais came to the request of Professor Chen, who is planning to sail for the U.S. for the lecture season. This lecture was interesting and instructive.

Mr. Tsalonais, who is himself a resident of Greek Asia Minor, now under the rule of the Turkish National Government, made an earnest and fervent appeal to public opinion in this country for the military and political reforms the Greeks have been forced to undergo from his homeland. He painted the conditions of the exiles forced from Asia Minor who are forced to live on small sums of money and will power lifted over himself. The lecture was a great success.

BOWDOIN WINS IN TENNIS

Bates Opens Season With A Loss

The tennis season opened Friday, with the match between Bowdoin, and Bates. Bowdoin took both the singles and doubles, although the singles match was the most exciting. Dick Stansbury and Wally Fairbanks were the only Bates man to win a point from their opponents, Eddie Roberts. Roberts played a fine game but was defeated by Lord of Bowdoin, in a well contested match.

The playing of the Bates team showed a lack of practice which they have been unable to obtain because of the weather conditions, which rendered the courts unfit for use.

MUSICAL CLUBS
GIVE CONCERT IN GARDINER

Last Trip for the Year Very Successful

Wednesday night the people of Gardiner came out of the ark after the flood and presented the dedication of the new home of the Musical Club. They had concluded that the stories of Noah escaping from the forests and instruments of the sea of organizations would be accompanied by music planned to tan and sharpen their matured sensibilities.

And here they said the moment was a sad one, that the month of May was not yet past, that the year was not over to be enjoyed and properly attended or that the town was numbered on casual number of motor hours.

The program given at Chase Hall April 24th was elaborately planned for club and individual members. New Gilman played with much effervescence, Grieg's ever restless music selected the March of the Dutch. The heartiness of the reception given the readings of Esther Young and the dance of Walter Davis were a success. The men were well satisfied with what they had, but the night of this season.

Unanimous Decision Over Livermore Falls

On Friday May 3, 1923 the Freshmen debating team defeated the Livermore Falls High School team by a unanimous vote. The team was composed of William H. Simpson, J. C. The team which represented Livermore Falls was composed of Lewis Brown and R. E. Russell who represented the Bates team in the debat

Credit is due the work of the Freshmen team. Miss Vivienne Rogers was easily the best debater of the Bates team. Her ability and quickness were considerable.
