Bates in the Winter World

Good Records made by two Maine Colleges

Bates men and women have made a notable effort for themselves in the winter world. Their results everywhere are of the best. An interesting insight into the standing of Bates boys as merely made teachers is afforded by the following.

We quote from the Report of the State Board of Education of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts:-

"The report shows for two years the standing of the post secondary institutions from which our teachers have been recruited and the efficiency of the colleges which are represented by six Bates teachers in the Commonwealth."

These incorporated teachers were ranked by their associates as a whole which has its limits 250 plus and 290 minus. An institution to be listed in the top 250 is, therefore, a credit to the college and district.

On Monday evening the Varsity flub will have a block of spats reserved "R" mi the gridiron this year. Young and I). McDonald gave readings.

A large audience was present at the ceremony held at the college chapel on January 28th to welcome to the alumni of Bates College. The young and beautiful wife of the King of the King had promised to do her own life and her beauty should be prolonged. All officers and members of the Bates College Drama Club and the Community of Lewiston and Auburn, and the College and the college and club, were present.

SPORT NOTES

John F. O'Connoor, Editor

The Rugby Club held its second meeting of the year Monday night. Plans for an active season were discussed at length. We feel sure that this organization can be a powerful factor in getting Bathie against its own clubs.

A club should take interest in this club, and should willingly support any projects or programs which the management of the League and the School undertake.

SERIOUS ENGLISH

Music (in the middle of a joke) - I hear even the clink this can have on the ear. Close (in chorus) - Yet. With all this I have something to say. You will probably understand it at this time.

"I'll tell you, but keep it under your hat!"

"We have no news at all."

Lester: "Some of which!"

Do: "Tubal."

THE FUNSTERS.

He leaned over the piano and looked into his empty glass.

"Play a nocturne," he said cherishingly.

"That's too heavy," he answered, looking a portent.

"Then play a Medora's Prayer in two flats and give me one of them," said Do.

"Well, I'll play a Moro's Prayer," said Do.

"No, you wouldn't be."

"No, you sound like a minor."

"I'll make you sound like a minor." "Let's have a dance party tomorrow night, and both of you shall have your own tune!"

Famous Horse, Robin Hood
In "North of the Rio Grande"

Making his screen debut in "North of the Rio Grande," a Belle Devere Jack Holt, Paramount Picture, which will be shown at the Chase Holt, tomorrow night, is worth the admission price. The pictures play are in the world of the screen.

Robin Hood is naturally known as a champion jumper with a record of six feet. His jumping on the six-foot bar is run by Miss Wood, is known to be successful, but the regular world record are much heavier than those for home show jumping.

The screening statement is enough to induce the picture. A worthy up year between the master-piece and the shovel the image will be in order.

And Pres. Co-Cricket rules are off.

MACFARLANE CLUB

The regular meeting of the MacFarlanes Club was held Monday evening at Little Forum. During the short tea meeting Monday night, the Misses Wood and Misses Miss were elected to take charge of the entertainment at the following which is to be held on the 2nd of December at the office of Mr. Frank Brown on Nicholas Place.

The formal program was devoted to French music and was aided greatly by the Misses Worthy and Ames.

1. Vocal: "Le Chasseur," Miss Wood, accompanied by Miss Stanley.

2. Piano solo—Value Chromatica
Doro Gilman.

3. Selections from "Fantasie!"—Mr.
Dance, accompanied by Doro Gilman.

Much credit for the success of this program was due to Miss Rose Edson, who arranged and furnished the music. Doro Gilman
"Musette"—summarized the work of French musicians and gave the historic background of the selections by Mr.
Dance and Miss Gilman.

The efforts of Mr. Gilman, Mr. Miller, and of the quartets composed of Mr. Stetson, Mrs. Flanders, and Mr. Flanders, were especially well received. THE INDIANAPOLIS CONVENTION

During the Christmas holidays, Dec. 28–Jan. 1, there will be held at Indiana, the American Student Convention, directed by the Student Volunteer Movement. This Convention comes to us in four years only and this is our college. Practically every college and training school in the country will have its delegation, 5,000 representatives from 500 schools and colleges. Every student is to be included. We can if we will.

There is a demand for decisions to the convention that each college has been assigned a quota. We are allowed six delegates, one for every hundred students. We ought to send every one of them. We can if the student body will back up the plan.

Once a student generation selected representatives of our American College assemblies at some central point for a discussion of the relation of American Christian students to the life of the world. The program is essentially a definite study of the principles of Christ in the hope of the whole world including our own. It is a religious program resting on a message that is to every country. The leaders of this convention are men with a world vision, John R. Mott, Robert Spence, Edith and Robert Wilbur. The Christian world has been enriched for its outstanding speakers to present messages from all corners of the globe. Some announced are J. E. K. Aggerby from the United States, Dr. S. L. T. Harries, "The Apostle of the Desert," in Arabia, representative of the whole of the Arab world, and also the representatives of India, Japan, China and the whole of the world. Our new King Bongs from New Zealand will represent the South East in one address.

Bates spirit and loyalty to the best things our prayer study little initiative stands for demand that every one of us get behind this endeavor. Be ready to do your part to help her be represented, be loyal to the leaders among the leaders of student life in the country.
