DAY OF PRAYER SERIES OF RELIGIOUS MEETINGS HELD

Rev. H. C. Phillips Distinguished Pulpit Orator of Northeastern University Will Deliver Series of Sermons Under College Auspices

One of the most extensive and interesting campaigns ever held in connection with the college, the Day of Prayer was inaugurated on the morning of January 22 when the Rev. H. C. Phillips delivered the opening sermon. This meeting was followed by a joint service of men and women before the chapel in Chase Hall at which Mr. Phillips ably closed the services.

The subject for discussion was Prayer, and Mr. Phillips was followed by Rev. H. C. Phillips, Distinguished Pulpit Orator of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mr. Phillips said: "Prayers are the words we send out into the world and it is that which our love is turned into reality.

Among the many books which have been sent to this department for review is a new book published in this country in 1924. It is a little novel, home is in a little spring edition, but it is a novel which may be read in its full significance of the American literature of today. Its author, M. H. Barnett, is a young writer who has already established a reputation for originality and power of expression. The novel is a study of modern life, and it deals with the problems of the young people of today. It is a story of love and marriage, and it is a story of the struggles of the individual in a world which is becoming increasingly complex. The author has a keen insight into the human heart, and he has a fine ability to create a vivid and realistic scene. The novel is a fine piece of work, and it is well worth reading.

Girls' Glee Club Will Present Musical Drama "The Dress Rehearsal"

The first really ambitious musical drama to be undertaken by the Girls' Glee Club of Bates College will be precented at the Little Theatre in Hart Hall, Friday evening, October 24th. Every one who wishes to do so may try "A Dress Rehearsal." The plot of this little play is simple, including a burlesque imitation of "Cherubino" at Grove House. A Boy, a school for girls. Miss Colman, who is a Freshman, sang the leading role. Miss Low, also a Freshman, sang the leading role for the leading role. Miss Lombard, who is in the Sophomore class, gave a two years, her "principal role, the leading part in the Girls' Glee Club's operettas, sang very sweetly. The girls' cast viewed an entertaining reading by Joseph Robertson. The last number on the program was a piano solo by Helen Renfrew. The music was in charge of Albert Morris, Elizabeth Shores and Bertha Weeks.
