BATES SNOWBIRDS CARRY OFF HONORS AT ORONO MEET

Last Saturday at Orono the Bates snowbirds won the first official Maine intercollegiate winter sports meet of the season by defeating the Maine team 24-2 against 24 for the other three colleges. Of the five events held in the course of the relay was perhaps the most thrilling of the meet. The second place spot was filled, Saturday. coach of the Garnet put the field where if it fell out of reach of the running. This left first place to...

EX-GOVERNOR IS TO TEACH SUMMER SCHOOL AT BATES

The ex-governor of Pennsylvania, Martin H. Brumbaugh, will teach English at Bates Summer School during July.

The announcement was made by Pro- fessor E. R. N. Gould, the director of the Summer School.

Brumbaugh's career is interesting in that it is practically started by being made, fourteen years after his

SOCIETY GIRLS GIVE VALENTINE TEA

The Valentine tea of Tuesday night was the theme for the Society girls in the Index of the faculty and the leading Haven classmates. It was a social success, too. Band Hall was crowded with students and the Index of the faculty was doubtless entertained, too, but for the President, this was in the nature of a decision, and had it been otherwise, society should have administered for further explanation.

"A cap as good as the cream"

High praise for Williams Shaving Cream is contained in the following advertisement.

The cream, which is a product of the American Shaving Cream Co., of Portland, Maine, is said to be "a cap as good as the cream." It is claimed that the cream is superior to any other shaving cream on the market, and that it leaves the skin smooth and comfortable after use.

The advertisement was placed in several newspapers and magazines, and it received widespread coverage.

For more information, the reader is encouraged to visit the American Shaving Cream Co.'s website or contact their customer service department.

The cream is available at most drugstores and supermarkets, and it is sold in a variety of packaging sizes to suit different needs.

Choice of a Career

From the Yale News

THE NINETY-FOUR Somber, official, and very serious, the Nineteen-Ninety-four, the twenty-one-year-old, representative, and very serious, the Nineteen-Ninety-four, the twenty-one-year-old, was elected President of the Nineteen-Ninety-four Club. CO-ED GLEE CLUB
TO PRESENT THE "DRESS REHEARSAL"

Have you heard Bates' songsters? Do you appreciate good music and song? Do you like to laugh? Have you seen Ruth Board '28 and Priscilla F. '25 the famous comedians? Well, here's your chance! Don't miss "The Dress Rehearsal" which offers all these attractions.

The play is a comic opera, built on the events of a rehearsal at a school for young ladies. The characters are true to life. There are the schoolteachers, the French governess, principled and monstrous people. The leading role is a charming portrayal of a girl who has to work, and will be able to do so. Come and see it.

Bill needs to see you.
