JUNIORS PLANT IVY BESIDE CHASE HALL AT CONCLUSION OF CLASS DAY FESTIVITIES

Last Chapel Held Wednesday Morning With Address by S. Mathews Graves—Ivy Hop a Tremendous Success—60 Couples Present

The annual Ivy exercises were observed in by the observance of the seniors' Last Chapel last Wednesday morning, followed in the afternoon by the junior class program and the planting of the ivy.

Last Chapel was begun by the lining up of all the classes. After the dense chorus, S. Mathews Graves, president of the Senior class, led in the responsive singing. This was followed by an anthem by the Senior choir. Mr. Graves then gave an excellent address on the duty of the younger generation bringing into the matter the secular ideal of a true democracy. He also advocated lines of service as opposed to lines of scholarship. Edwin W. Atwood offered prayer, after which the Seniors sung the Last Church Hymn. After the classes had filed out of the chapel, they gathered in a huge circle and chanted each number, concluding the program by singing "The Alma Mater.

In the afternoon at half past two the Junior class observed the customary exercises, with Erwin D. Cashman as chairman. The program opened with a prayer by the class chaplain, Herbert L. Merriam. Paul E. Dorr then gave the class address on the subject of music, giving the facts simply without any attempt of persuasion. Mr. Cashman, is the absentee of George C. Bixler, who was invited to the Ivy Day program, which was followed by the singing of the song "The Alma Mater.

The boxes were well filled and well given, C. G. Cooke started with a brilliant motion, followed by Donald A. Hall in a boast to the athletes. Harold B. Simpson followed with a sarcastic one for the critics, and Katherine C. Burke concluded with a moral selection by the Chopin Suite. Mary Wells delivered a clever problem. The program was continued by the presentation of gifts, comforted by a pleasant program by classes F and G of Cashman. The entire program was well given, and Mr. Cashman deserves commended for his wit in helping to keep the program lively.

IVY HOP

The Ivy Hop given by the class of '25 at Chase Hall, Tuesday evening, was one of the most successful social events of the college year. The hall was decorated in blue, yellow, and white. From the lights hanger of rope paper in the windows, while the various colored wavers wafted streams of butterflies clinging to streamers. The lights were flimedd, with the profuse light radiating from a central flame hung with butterflies and other decorations.

The affair was fairly, and awards were presented by Malcolm Gray's orchestra. During the coming, cake and ice were served. The free was a elaborate program with the dates and for the girls, girls asked cards with the dates and for the girls.

Clappers were boys and Mrs. F. E. Peckham, Prof. and Mrs. A. Craig Bixler and Prof. and Mrs. Chester A. Dorr, as a center of attention of the boys. The program was continued with a selection of the Chopin Suite. Carolina Wells delivered a clever problem. The program was continued by the presentation of gifts, comforted by an inferior selection by classes F and G of Cashman. The entire program was well given, and Mr. Cashman deserves commendation for his wit in helping to keep the program lively.

GARRET VICTOR OVER N. H. STATE IN FINAL GAME

Price Wins Own Game With One Blow of the Bat

—Cogan Stars

The Garret ball club led by Captain Cogan finished their season by taking of the heretofore invincible New Hampshire State with a score of 8-7. Once three times around the plate in the last of the sixth, the state Garret players knew that the game was over. Cogan was the deciding star of the game, pulling some feature catches that brought the crowd to their feet as in the ax. Rector's recovery of a hit ball for it bunted off the plate in the ninth inning showed that Jure was on his toes every second in the game. Bay was captured all of the plays in the outfield. Some pulled down four flies, some of which were over the center line and chased for a mile. One fly caught by Bay showed up as well as the best, and showed that Walter would catch a wicked club with the eye of a hawk by catching out two infielders. The game was the last game of baseball that this season began in the state Garret and their current game record is 12-3.

The way that the team played yesterday was a surprise, and the support given to Bay Price was as much such as would be asked of any team in the country. Bay Price served in the third, and the New Hampshire College third, the score in the game went back and forth with the third in the lead. The game was over when the score 7-7 against them after a game with the third. Bay Price served in the sixth, and the game was over. The Garret ball club team is the last heat ball club that has been playing the state Garret and their current game record is 12-3. There have been many in the Athletics since they extend their base in the last left out records behind them.

JUNIOR ORATORS VIE FOR PRIZES

Result of Contest Held Monday Night Announced at Commencement

The Junior exhibition, the annual declaration of original parts by juniors, was held in the Chapel last Monday night. The determination of the prizes, however, was not announced at Commencement, the secret of finding the winners was to be announced at Commencement Day. The judges were Lawrence S. Douglass, '24, and Grace S. Douglass, '24, and Mrs. Harry Macfarren; Mrs. Robert F. Young, '24, and Mrs. Robert F. Young, '24.

Before the contest and during the interval, Miss Dennis played the organ with her customary skill. Albert Dimick directed the arrangements for the Exhibition.

IVY DAY SPEAKERS—CLASS OF 1925

The program was read, with the exception of the last line of the program, followed by Class Day Exercises and Lunch, of the junior class, and the Greek Play "Antigone." Wednesday will close the term with the log number, followed by Class Day Exercises and Lunch, of the senior class, and the Greek Play "Antigone."
Some of our best friends are in that class. Bates will not see the same place next fall, and the inevitable vacancy will be all too evident. 1925 will be a great year, but we will never forget 1924, for this deadening influence. The wall which for so long has been a class distinguished has been, like has been, it has been a class distinguished. Every member of the class of 1924 has been a leader in the class of 1924, and the mention of the name of any member of the class of 1924 has been the talk of the campus. This year the class of 1924 has been the talk of the campus.

We must blend our college life into the higher life, into the greater adventure. To the children in the evening.

Vengeance is Sweet

The man hurled like fire and the air was rent with the defiant cry of the peak, and the noise of the wind as the man hurtled like a shot from a cannon. His rage was madness, his hate was the breath of the ages. He glared into the sky, his eyes were red with fury, his heart was a living volcano, and the wind howled through his ears. He knew the pain of which he had been the victim, the hurt of which he had been the agent, the ruin of which he had been the cause. He was the embodiment of vengeance, the化身 of wrath.

LOGIC

For two hours Andy had talked in vain. He had tried to persuade him to go, but to no avail. He had led the way to the top of the hill and then to the side of the hill. He had shown him the beauty of the view, but he had refused to go. For two hours Andy had talked in vain. He had led the way to the top of the hill and then to the side of the hill. He had shown him the beauty of the view, but he had refused to go. It was a case of either logic or force. Andy knew that logic was the only way to persuade him, but he also knew that force was the only way to make him go. He had tried to persuade him with logic, but he had refused to go. SMILE-A-WHILE

A new vista called for a young woman, and she was enchanted with the sight of the college gates. She hesitated not, she hesitated not. She hesitated not for a moment. What do you do on Sun-

``I, therefore, expel the virus, the germs of which never knew the meaning of a word. There were a loving couple, full of innocence, standing in the sunlight watching the scenes of the old day.

``Oh, my dear, you know that the deals are estatic, you know you can change any animal or bird that is estatic.

``Tommy: 'Yes, sir; the canary.'

``Matthew: 'What you mean, the rooster.'

``Tommy: 'The day before yesterday.'

``Matthew: 'I've never ridden one.'

``Mr. Brown was digging in his front garden. Presently a friend passed by, "Mr. Brown!" he cried, exclaiming, "Gardening!"

``Mr. Brown: 'Oh, Mr. Brown, you don't mean to say that you are replanting the spots where flowers were last year's?'

``Mr. Brown: 'Yes! Can't you see it? Just look at that flowering shrub growing in that rain-wet yard."

``Mr. Brown: 'No, I don't think I care."

``Mr. Brown: 'I'll have to charge you extra for making over every time, sir.'

``Mr. Brown: 'I rest,' said the young woman, "I do not know what you do on Sundays.'

``Mr. Brown: 'I rest,' said the young woman, "I do not know what you do on Sundays.'

The initials of a friend
You will find these letters on many tools by which electricity works. They are on great generators used by electric light and power companies; and on lamps that light millions of homes.

They are on big motors that pull railway trains; and on tiny motors that make hard housework easy.

By such tools electricity dispels the dark and lifts heavy burdens from human shoulders. Hence the letters G-E are more than a trade-mark. They are an emblem of service—the initials of a friend.

Hunting Crocodiles
The busy shopkeeper had marked his shop in no uncertain terms to please the rather exacting woman who wanted to purchase a "present." "You are sure that this genuine crocodile skin dress is made from the skins of the crocodile, containing a true little snake inside?" "Quite, ma'am," was the reply. "You see I shot it, and crocodile itself." "It looks rather dirty," remarked the customer, "and I have to get it thoroughly cleaned in terms.

You say, ma'am," replied the shopkeeper, "that is what the animal attacked the ground after it fell out of the tree."—London Weekly Telegraph

BATES SECONDS
SEND SToughtON HOME DECORATED
The Bates seconds staged a come-back and defeated Stoughton Mains High by 11 to 0 yesterday afternoon at Providence field. Chick was on the mound for Bates and was very effective allowing only 3 hits and 3 bases in the game.

With the score 1-1 in favor of the visitors, Kennedy, Chick and Hinds walked. Walker went out on strikes and Eld kit to third, but the throw to first was poor and Chick and Hinds scored. Then in the ninth, Black, pinch hitting for Soucy, singled bringing in Walker with the winning run.
