BATES WINTER SPORTS TEAM
TO COMPETE AT LAKE PLACID

Garnet Receives Signal Honor in Being Invited By Snowbirds to Send Team to Intercollegiate Carnival From Dec. 24 to Jan.2—Harding

And Foch Trophies are at Stake

The Bates Winter Sports team will have an exciting week of participation in the International Christmas Carnival and Meet held by the University of Toronto at Lake Placid New York.

The Garnet Outing Club is receiving a signal honor by the invitation of the Lake Placid organization to send a representative, at the last moment's notice. The week for college competition is disappearing too fast to allow of, when it does, College Winter Sports teams from all states and Canadian teams. The December 12 and January 3, the President Harding and Arctic Trophies are at stake. The Harding Cup donated three years ago, goes to the College team getting the highest score, while the Marshall Fork Trophy is for the best individual collection of points. The highest points are the factors in the Winter Sports world, and others have aggregation for any team.

The plans for the competition include events of the following:
2. Five-mile curling.

The Garnet delegation who will probably consist of "Jerry" Fletcher and Dave MacDonald, plus the freshers and Allison Wills for the snowshoe events. Johnny Baker will compete in the fancy skiing and Mac in the cross-country. The team will be under the guidance of Coach Thompson and will also be able to.

STUDENTS REQUESTED TO KEEP OFF HOCKEY RINK

EXCUSE THE HOCKEY RINK

The hockey rink is in use, and the hockey risk will be constructed at Lake Placid. Lake Andrews is in good condition, and the space is adequate. The risk will be kept in use, only one of whom had

RUSH FOR HOCKEY MEN ONLY

The best in the field of the hockey rink will be constructed at Lake Placid. Lake Andrews is in good condition, and the space is adequate. The risk will be kept in use, only one of whom had

RUSH FOR HOCKEY MEN ONLY

The best in the field of the hockey rink will be constructed at Lake Placid. Lake Andrews is in good condition, and the space is adequate. The risk will be kept in use, only one of whom had

STUDENTS REQUESTED TO KEEP OFF HOCKEY RINK

EXCUSE THE HOCKEY RINK

The hockey rink is in use, and the hockey risk will be constructed at Lake Placid. Lake Andrews is in good condition, and the space is adequate. The risk will be kept in use, only one of whom had

RUSH FOR HOCKEY MEN ONLY

The best in the field of the hockey rink will be constructed at Lake Placid. Lake Andrews is in good condition, and the space is adequate. The risk will be kept in use, only one of whom had

RUSH FOR HOCKEY MEN ONLY

The best in the field of the hockey rink will be constructed at Lake Placid. Lake Andrews is in good condition, and the space is adequate. The risk will be kept in use, only one of whom had

OXFORD DEBATERS ARE DEFEATED BY U. OF WASHINGTON

Home Team Gets Decision
In Debate Featured by Spicy Humor

The following article was taken from the Seattle Daily Times of December 2.

In one of the most exciting and entertaining debates on the campus, Eastern gentlemen defeated the Walloa County College debating team on a highly original question. The Walloa team was headed by a Mr. Frick, one of the best men in the state, and the University team by a Mr. Grey, one of the best men in the state.

The chief difficulty in reaching a conclusion, and the debating society of the University of Washington was offset by the

DEBATING

Four years ago, the Women's Literary Society of Blane's Hall, in conjunction with the Blane Society, sent a challenge to the women of the University of Washington. The challenge was accepted and the actual debate was held in the University's Coliseum, and the winner was the team from Blane Hall. The debate was won by the University team and the women's team was declared the winner.

SATURDAY EVENING MOVIE

Tomorrow night is a free entertainment for "Braden Bloom", starring St. John Bertram. Music by St. John Bertram. Doors at College Gymnasium under the direction of our own Paul Whiteman.

EDWARD PARKER HOOF ORIFICE CLOSER GRIP ON DORL KEAD

Executes Sound Lacing on John Bertram Quintet; Small High Score of U. of Washington Town Nestor O勾 Imps in Tight Contest; E. Parker

Still to be Defeated

The third round of the Inter-Institutional debate was held last night at the University Gymnasium. The debate was won by the Walloa County team which consisted of E. Parker, the grand strategist who planned the day's work. John Bertram, the grand strategist who planned the day's work, was defeated by the Walloa team which consisted of E. Parker, the grand strategist who planned the day's work. John Bertram, the grand strategist who planned the day's work, was defeated by the Walloa team which consisted of E. Parker, the grand strategist who planned the day's work.
The new Bates

(Note: This is the last time that words of ours will appear in this column, for the next issue a new editorial board will begin its service. As we look back over the year there is much to regret and much to keep. There has been much unnoticed and all too little done. The words which have appeared here have reflected the spirit of the passing month, as all editors must. Goodness knows that we have not aimed to be boastful, but if we have tried to point out anything in this year it has been of the ideal college such as Bates is striving to be. In this, and in our last word, we can do no better than summarize the statements and plans of the College of future.

...but a wish that the College of future may be. And in this, our last word, we can do no better than summarize the statements and plans of the College of future.

Our means are scanty. We have it on good authority that the applicant to do with it."

"I've been engaged, admired, kissed, and yet I am, sir."

"I am."

The Varsity Club initiation was the last time that words of ours will appear in this column, for the next issue a new editorial board will begin its service. As we look back over the year there is much to regret and much to keep. There has been much unnoticed and all too little done. The words which have appeared here have reflected the spirit of the passing month, as all editors must. Goodness knows that we have not aimed to be boastful, but if we have tried to point out anything in this year it has been of the ideal college such as Bates is striving to be. In this, and in our last word, we can do no better than summarize the statements and plans of the College of future.

In the Final Analysis

A man, seeing his friend with a shirt front for the first time, said to him:

"Oh, Jack, that's a fine shirt, isn't it?"

A few days later Jack met his friend again in a "dickerie," and asked:

"How's your shirt?"

"Mm," he replied, "it's just fine but a shirt's a warmie."
Wisconsin Coeds Run Their
'Dorm On Co-operative Plan

Progressive campus critics who established the "Dorm" plan are at the "Dorm" today, and its success is shown in the following summary:

The "Dorm" is a cooperative plan for the residence of students. Every girl has her own room, but she is responsible for the house. The "Dorm" is divided into six sections, each containing four girls. Each section has a "mother," who is a senior, and two "daughters." The "mother" is responsible for the upkeep of the house, and the "daughters" are responsible for the maintenance of the house. The "Dorm" is located in a house owned by the University of Wisconsin. Each girl pays a weekly fee of $1.50, which includes her room, meals, and laundry. The house is run by a board of three girls, who are elected by the residents. The board is responsible for the general management of the house, including the hiring of the housemother. The "Dorm" is popular among the students, and it is proving to be a successful experiment in cooperative living.
CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

HOLD JOINT MEETING

"Am I a Borrower?" was the challenging subject presented by Rev. R. A. Pollard Jones of Waterville at the second annual meeting of the Christian Associations of Bates College at Chase Hall last Wednesday evening.

Some of us know people right on the Bates Campus, right in our own dormitories, that have the borrowing habit. For the most part, we ourselves do not believe in such a habit—unless we happen to have a chance to borrow something pretty good. But in general, we all know from time to time we ask each other.

"Do we two hands belong to us?" said the speaker. We may think they do. But the hands are given to us when we are to pay them back. They were our heritage. The name is true of our own body, our brain, our whole body. These things have teaching work for us.

Because we pay a high enough price for an automobile, we think we own it. But we have not paid for the trees. Those trees were made from guns, by men, and the gun was a tree. The growing tree with its life and the cow that worked its gum were loaned by us; we never really paid for them. Do we own a home? We pay a price; we never pay for the trees that furnished its shingles, boards, and beams.

Time is bought from us. We can not stop it. We cannot say how much will be given us. We cannot pay for it. It is short, as well as our bodies and our homes, and we are appallingly borrowed.

Mr. Jones reached the heart of his challenge by showing us that if we are to use our hands or we are to use our brains, we are to use them carefully.

The meeting was the second Union Meeting of the Christian Associations of Bates. In keeping with the growing sentiment among the students of North America that there must be greater cooperation between the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. in their common purpose, it is most fitting that such joint service be held in such a time, as they are here. And they are proving very successful and valuable.

The theme of the evening last Wednesday was graciously given by Miss Vivian Brown, 21, President of the Y. W. C. A. Harold H. Walker, 21, read the following, discipline and prayer was offered by Stanley I. Walker, 22, Phi Beta, special music was provided by Miss Evangeline Tubbs, '24, cells, Miss Elizabeth Stevens, '24, cells, and Miss Olive Finders, '24, piano.

In short, the music was good; the message was interesting; the speaker well worthy of his reputation as one of Waterville's most popular speakers. It was a fine meeting.

PHIL-HELLINIC

On Tuesday evening Doctor Britton addressed the members of Phi Hel- linic in Liberty Forum. The theme of his talk, which was on music, was very interestingly developed in connection with the art of playing the piano.

The program of the meeting also included several selections by a girls' trio consisting of Margaret Morris, pianist; Evangeline Tubbs, cellist; Katherine Worthley, violinist. At the close of the meeting Medulla Chapin sang two very sweet old fashioned ballads. Morris Hall presented in the absence of the President, and concluded his brief feature address.

The professor was putting the finishing touches to his new concrete pathway, when Tiny, a cat, had been watching the proceedings with great interest, and of length, deciding the time right for the final, started to cross the wet concrete half bare.

When the professor displayed his annoyance, a passer-by observed—"Why, professor, I thought you liked children."