GREEK BOY ADOPTED BY BATES STUDENTS

Fund of Sixty Dollars Is Donated by Student Body

Little Choo Chrinikis, refugee child, No. 942, is happy. Left fathetless by the war, his mother, who was a nurse in the hospital of her father and mother, and lost to shelter for herself. But these four years in no way his small one, Chrinikis, and he is free to roam and play with other children. His Big Brother will protect him now.

November Mrs. Michael Tsamadoa, late of the Junior University in Canada, was held and student speakers made known why Professor Baird is leaving Bates for the first time he has been active in his field of work. Professor Baird was surprised to learn that Professor Albert S. Baker is leaving Bates.

The student body was very greatly surprised to learn that Professor Albert S. Baker is leaving Bates. The student body was very greatly surprised to learn that Professor Albert S. Several years have passed since the upper floors of Roger Williams were visited by women of the college. "Open House" activities were highly successful and every step was taken to make the occasion the most perfect the building that was held, was evident from the well-drilled and uniformed ranks of the guests. The number of guests were limited by invitation. Nevertheless the "Miss Bates" entertained about two hundred.

The speeches made great points in ar.- riving at the doors gave enough to ask of they always believed that was the plan. Light refreshments were provided in the halls and ample opportunity for conversation was given to the guests.

A program was given in the faculty rooms. This program was turned into a court room and a mock trial was staged. Law students from the University of Vermont presided to do simple and unadulterated service to the students of Greek. The suppression of suffering, which was the lot of every neglected, unrelated refugee child, proved to be such a vital and realistic manner that in a few days naming, it was contributed by a fraternity of fraternity sisters of the college. The letter which is printed below shows the support of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. in the college for the adoption and care of refugee children.

The following letter from Miss Tsamadoa was contributed by Bates students and sent to the Secretary of the adoption and care of refugee children.

"We acknowledge with many thanks the kind interest taken in the case of refugee child, No. 942, Chrinikis, for your kind and thoughtful efforts in the beginning of his life."

You have not only provided for his food, clothing and general supervision, but you are helping to make a man of this little fellow who will remember that it was the Bates Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. that took care of him when he was not able to take care of himself and when his mother was unable to do so. Child guidance is a treat you can never know the gratitude which his mother will bear toward you for the little care you have undertaken for him."

With every good wish for your success and we have made wishes for you this little one, we remain"

VARIETY CLUB ADDS NEW SERVICE FEATURE

Men of the Visiting Teams Given Individual Hosts

The Variety club has recently initiated a system on the Bates Campus for the assistance of visiting teams from all parts of the country which is very unique and has already proved its worth, within the past few weeks.

When a visiting team comes to Bates to make a contest, the man of that team, the members of that team, and the fans at the game, are all given a host by the Variety Club. The plan of the Variety Club service is a letter which is assigned to each man of the visiting teams and sent as his host, or serves him in any other capacity that he can be of service to him during his entire visit.

The president of the club, John E. Carver, has his eye on the visitors as soon as they arrive and sends one or two cards of introduction, to the friendly host. Usually the host is a native Bates student, and he is cordially invited to the entertainment of the host team at the choice of the host team.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

The American college system is beginning to queer in its foundation. The signs of the times point out definitely this fact. We have Alexander Meiklejohn on one hand demanding a liberal college; this on the contrary, is the assertion of the present Harvard alumni stating: "Higher education is in rage and rambler.

Throughout America there seems to be passing a wave of resolution and spirit; the college is beginning to develop the present generation of men in art and philosophy, pure science and literature, because diversity of character is not encouraged but surprised; for genius is the flower of exceptional diversity.

GIRLS GYM IS USED FOR SOCIAL FUNCTION

DANCE AT BOUND HALL PARADE PARSONAGE GIRLS ENTERTAIN

A very delightful dancing party was given by a select group of the girls at the new Bounded Hall. It was so successful that seventy-three people attended. This is a new departure from the usual social life of the campus and it was very much enjoyed by the sixteen couples present.

The dance, which was attractively decorated with Bounded Hall colors and music, was arranged to the music of Miss Ada Read at the piano and Mr. Alexander Read at the violin. Two novelty dances were introduced. One favor dance consisted of the girls dancing the names of their partners printed on tiny chiffon flaps. For the other, slips of paper were passed around with the names of several automobiles from which they had to choose the name of the same car, danced by. The music. Of course, the evening was a social success and the number of cars often have a social function.

SOCIAL TEA IS GIVEN AT PRESIDENT'S HOME

On the last Monday afternoon at three o'clock, twenty members of the faculty went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ross Brown to have tea with them. The meeting was informal and pleasant and the company was as large. Guests are very welcome to come to a social gathering.

We go to it every morning to eat, and by chapel speakers.

There was a nurse on duty throughout the afternoon to look after guests. The children were well behaved and the tea table was beautifully set. A delicious refreshment was served to all.

It is to be hoped that future teas will be given in the future and that they will be repeated.

We are very grateful to these kind people for giving us a tea with them. We hope that we may have more tea parties in the future.

WEST SIDE is a country next to the city. We have never travelled there.

To stop in a commuter's car and have tea with them is very good too.

This never happened to George Washington.

A man was looking at the flowers in the window.

We had a good time looking at the flowers in the window.

Miss Aletha said:—House.

I am responsible for many of these misunderstandings.

You may get a box of from ten hot buns.

Cotton, etc., etc., are always getting—troubles.

In a few short sentences, the speaker mentioned her treatment of the patient, and then put the flower basket down.

The attractive work of the nurses and the beautiful boudoir pictures delighted the bound hall guests.

The material was not available. One person had a nose that was so long that she was forced to lie down all the time.

The students at Hales College usually have their picture taken in the boudoir.

During the past few weeks there have been two or three unusual young people at the infirmary. One who had been very gratitude for reading materials, but unfortunately the material was not available. One person had a nose that was so long that she was forced to lie down all the time.

"Red" Ramey Champion in Maine—Sager Close Second

Alton "Red" Ramey and Arthur Sager are two of the college's premier bowlers. According to the Lewiston Journal, Ramey claims to be the Champ in bowling in the college of Maine. Mr. Ramey recently won the cup offered as a prize by the Pastime Bowling Alley, which has recently been given very much publicity in the local schools because of "Doc" Finks. The cup was won by Mr. Ramey, who put up an especial game against three students at Bates. "Red" Ramey, the latest, was sent with a score of 184. Many Bates men were present and enjoyed the bowling comp.-tition. The men are keen for another such contest, The Pastime upholders are doing quite a bit to attract the local collegians.

PROFESSOR BAIRD RESIGNS FROM BATES

Professor Baird is formerly of Dartmouth College. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Delta Sigma Rho. He is Director of the Sigma League of America for the State of Maine and an associate editor of the Quarterly Journal of the Teachers of Speech. He holds degrees of master of arts and bachelor of divinity. Last summer he taught English at Columbia Central or Summer School.

At Iowa University Professor Baird will be an associate professor in the department of speech. This localization is especially strong in that department. It will be remembered that William Ashlin, a former Bates debater and now professor of speech, received his doctorate from that department.

TO TAKE TEAM TO ENGLAND

According to the Iowa University news service great things are in store for Professor Baird. It reads: "There is a project on foot now, according to university news, which if successful, will mean that Professor Baird will take a representative American debate team on a tour of the British Empire, during the past academic year. The Institute of International Education, which has been Professor Baird's chief backer in his previous trip to England, is also back of this project. The loss of his much loved professor surely grieves the student body and much regret has been expressed that those in control at Bates did not make it possible for him to stay.
