2-20-1925

The Bates Student - volume 53 number 06 - February 20, 1925

Bates College
BATES CO-EOs TO DEBATE MEMBERS FROM M. A. C. TOMORROW NIGHT

Visiting Team Will Be Entertained at Rand Hall Previous to Debate. Misses Greene, Crosby and Butler Represent Bates. Dean Niles to Act as Presiding Officer

The women's debating team of Bates College will meet the visiting team of M. A. C. College of Commerce and Law in a debate at 8.15 tomorrow night in Rand Hall.

Misses Greene, Crosby and Butler will represent Bates while Dean Niles will act as presiding officer.

The subject of the debate is "Resolved, that all religious organizations should be subject to the laws of the state in which they are organized." The affirmative side will be represented by Misses Greene, Crosby and Butler. The negative side will be represented by Misses U. Maine, Mount Holyoke and Wellesley.

Dean Niles said the debate would be the third for the current year and the third for Misses Greene, Crosby and Butler. The team has won two and lost one.

The debate will be preceded by a musical program

CARNIVAL HOP

SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON

Only Feature of Outing Club Program not Affected by Weather

The hop was the one event of the program for which the weather was not affected by the severe weather. Those who did not visit the elements were served a dinner during the evening at the hall and this finer together with the spirit of crusing the office of the president. That will out one of the most successful social events of the year. As usual there was a large attendance including many who were members of the Bates men and women.

At the third dinner, Ernie Canham, President of Bates Outing Club, presented the prizes in the Bates men's and women's interscholastic and intramural events. Miss Niles was presented with an unusual souvenir accompanied the prizes which adorned the dancing hall and the and the men and the women.

Blue and white streamers covered the ceiling and part of the windows and were evidence upon the wall that no expense was spared in the social event. The decorations were added to the beautiful hall which the Bates students have built and dedicated in memory of their media.

Credit for the largest delegation at the hop was given to Bates, represen- tated by Jeanie Dillingham, President, Mrs. C. J. King, and all the other delegates. Others who were very poor but "Porky" Flynn, a member of the Bates Outing Club, was very impressive. He was known as the "dancing king" of the event. The dance proved the best of the evening. The music was furnished by the band of the College Christian Union.

The program included a dance, a march, and a surprise party. The entertainment was provided by the band and the band members were very popular. The program was rounded off with a great deal of romance. The music was very enjoyable to all. Those who never had a dance, Mary proved to be a fine program for the college. The credit for the excellent dancing was given to the students of the college who proved to be very good dancers.

The men's debate team was represented by four members of the debaters. Other colleges represented were Wesleyan, M.I.T., Vassar, and Colby. The debate will be held in Rand Hall.

The debate will be held at 8.15 tomorrow night in Rand Hall.

POLITICS CLUB IS FORMED BY CO-EDS

The women of Bates College have formed the first of a Politics Club but it is too early to say whether forming such a club has been gratifying. The interest of the club will be to encourage the scope of the Department of Politics and History and to be active in practical politics. At different times during the school year it will be open house for students to meet and entertain students of the college and the public.

The women of Bates College have formed the first of a Politics Club but it is too early to say whether forming such a club has been gratifying.

The women of Bates College have formed the first of a Politics Club but it is too early to say whether forming such a club has been gratifying.

The women of Bates College have formed the first of a Politics Club but it is too early to say whether forming such a club has been gratifying.
Parade at Patty Farm

PALMER HINDS, '26, Gwendolyn Purlngton, '26 Louise Townsend, '27

BI I.VIA UEHAN, '26, JOHN L MILLER, '26,

And now for the most banal of banalities not to mention in proportion to the genuine interest shown in its worth or not let us judge. Send us a poem.

We propose that the meet in follow ing years be more descriptive of its winter settings, especially those of the future. We should like lo suggest that in the future the Outing Club will be organized on an equal basis. The by-laws must be so arranged that no one can harm the cause of the meet.

The Carnival is the beginning of the season, and the winter as it is in summer. But why should one pass by the Barker Ball indoor arena without seeing some of the home boys? The Carnival almost has its entirety run off according to schedule.

Our victory over the other Maine colleges was overwhelming. It was a great thrill to see four Bates entries come in far ahead of the rest in the first event of the day; and then repeat with a first place finish. We must have finished much more creditably had the weather been better. There were some who will, perhaps, look askance on this new endeavor. But even more startling than its absence was the joy awarded the Senior Life.fec. You didn’t win. You didn’t fail. Because the “I” in your name on the •M-T-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-X-M-X-M-

VIBES LIBRE MOST LIBRE

Word comes that a young writer, hitherto unknown, who never before published a poem, has won the Nation’s Poetry Prize. And this in competition with four thousand other manuscripts. This should cause a stir of emotion in the breast of every “would-be” poet of Bates.

But even more startling than its author is the poem itself: Why do we go? The poet asks. We quote a passage: It is now a hot, quiet afternoon in Montana, Montana with the Rocky Mountains; Virginia with the Alleghany Mountains (Indians ambushed Braddock in the Alleghany Mountains; the woods, once quiet, once dark, now harmed. The Icy surface of the snow will lie organizing snowshoe parades without fear of snowblindness certainly was a terrible hazard.)

In this case the editor is Miss R. T. Chang, Mr. Chang, who formerly attended Brunswick School, enters Bates as a sophomore.

Dee Nichols will attend the Conference of Deans of Women which will be held in Cleveland, Ohio.

The following girls have been recently awarded the Senior Life Writing Ludgate, Ethel Higgins, Bettyful, the appearance of the ladies of Bates. The women of Bates, and particularly those of the women of Bates, have come in far ahead of the rest in the first event of the day; and then repeat with a first place finish in every event on the program. What is there but our heartiest praise to offer to the men who won as well as to those who made the carnival possible?

VERIB LIBRE MOST LIBRE

Word comes that a young writer, hitherto unknown, who never before published a poem, has won the Nation’s Poetry Prize. And this in competition with four thousand other manuscripts. This should cause a stir of emotion in the breast of every “would-be” poet of Bates.

But even more startling than its author is the poem itself: Why do we go? The poet asks. We quote a passage: It is now a hot, quiet afternoon in Montana, Montana with the Rocky Mountains; Virginia with the Alleghany Mountains (Indians ambushed Braddock in the Alleghany Mountains; the woods, once quiet, once dark, now harmed. The Icy surface of the snow will lie organizing snowshoe parades without fear of snowblindness certainly was a terrible hazard.

The Winter Sports must meet your great. Weather conditions were about as much snow scattered here and there but they were not sufficient to slow the race. It is pretty rough when one can’t see a snowshoe walker without four of some sort or another.

We let it be funny as the theme of the day. Last year the Carnival almost in its entirety run off according to schedule.

The Carnival is the beginning of the season, and the winter as it is in summer. But why should one pass by the Barker Ball indoor arena without seeing some of the home boys? The Carnival almost has its entirety run off according to schedule.

Our victory over the other Maine colleges was overwhelming. It was a great thrill to see four Bates entries come in far ahead of the rest in the first event of the day; and then repeat with a first place finish. We must have finished much more creditably had the weather been better. There were some who will, perhaps, look askance on this new endeavor. But even more startling than its absence was the joy awarded the Senior Life. fec. You didn’t win. You didn’t fail. Because the “I” in your name on the •M-T-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-X-M-

VIBES LIBRE MOST LIBRE

Word comes that a young writer, hitherto unknown, who never before published a poem, has won the Nation’s Poetry Prize. And this in competition with four thousand other manuscripts. This should cause a stir of emotion in the breast of every “would-be” poet of Bates.

But even more startling than its author is the poem itself: Why do we go? The poet asks. We quote a passage: It is now a hot, quiet afternoon in Montana, Montana with the Rocky Mountains; Virginia with the Alleghany Mountains (Indians ambushed Braddock in the Alleghany Mountains; the woods, once quiet, once dark, now harmed. The Icy surface of the snow will lie organizing snowshoe parades without fear of snowblindness certainly was a terrible hazard.

The Winter Sports must meet your great. Weather conditions were about as much snow scattered here and there but they were not sufficient to slow the race. It is pretty rough when one can’t see a snowshoe walker without four of some sort or another.

We let it be funny as the theme of the day. Last year the Carnival almost in its entirety run off according to schedule.

Our victory over the other Maine colleges was overwhelming. It was a great thrill to see four Bates entries come in far ahead of the rest in the first event of the day; and then repeat with a first place finish in every event on the program. What is there but our heartiest praise to offer to the men who won as well as to those who made the carnival possible?

VERIB LIBRE MOST LIBRE

Word comes that a young writer, hitherto unknown, who never before published a poem, has won the Nation’s Poetry Prize. And this in competition with four thousand other manuscripts. This should cause a stir of emotion in the breast of every “would-be” poet of Bates.

But even more startling than its author is the poem itself: Why do we go? The poet asks. We quote a passage: It is now a hot, quiet afternoon in Montana, Montana with the Rocky Mountains; Virginia with the Alleghany Mountains (Indians ambushed Braddock in the Alleghany Mountains; the woods, once quiet, once dark, now harmed. The Icy surface of the snow will lie organizing snowshoe parades without fear of snowblindness certainly was a terrible hazard.
Irrigation by electrically driven pumps has made hundreds of thousands of acres of desert land in the Interior West blossom like the rose.

For a few cents a month per acre, electricity—the giant worker—brings the life-giving water from distant lakes and rivers to rainless valleys, producing rich harvests of fruits and vegetables, cereals and cereals.

What electricity is doing for the farmer is only a counterpart of what it is doing for Industry. Transports of power are bringing to the factory the same electrically driven machines that are also used on the farm, and the same electrical devices are being used in the home, and in the business world.

What electricity does for the engineer is important to the student in technical education—but what electricity does for every man or woman, no matter what their life’s work may be.
LITTLE TALKS WITH PREXY

President Gray believes in the Outing Club. In his opinion, it is one of the best student institutions on our campus.

Not only does the Outing Club benefit the students during each enjoyable time as the Winter Carnival but during the spring season. The three day period in mid-winter is only a small proportion of the fun the club affords. In the Department of Physical Education, the work of the Outing Club is very important. During this winter season, when the winter sports activities keep the students out of doors, so long as the members of this college can be permitted to stay in the fresh air, there will be little sickness. So, the Outing Club certainly is a great factor in the health of Bates boys.

After the pressure of mid-year examinations, the Carnival with its spirit of fun was the tonic the students came at the psychological moment.

The fest feature planned for the Carnival was the production of the Henry, by Henry: Ticker, that splendid young man who was its president last year, and to whom the Outing Club owes its great progress.

Erwin Cushman has carried on the work of the club this year with great efficiency. Its activities and influence have greatly increased.

And we must not miss the Outing Club to become even stronger and better for it is the spirit of Bates—Innovators.

BERNADOTTE

A meeting of Bernadotte was held on Thursday evening, February 19. Five Janus were initiated at this time. They impersonated different characters of fiction.

The initiation was followed by a group of clever literary charades. The leaders were Nellie Mae Lang, Katherine Worlsey and Constance Fletcher. Several selections by a Mandolin Trio and a piano solo by Dorothy Clarke completed the program.

COUGAR

The Cougar Club met on Friday evening, February 20. The evening was informal in nature at which each member read his favorite poem. Stags were encouraged to show a potential feeling of entertainment.

Russell Tuck was proposed for membership. His name will be voted on at the next meeting.

A meeting of the Student Scien- tific Society was held Thursday evening, February nineteenth. A paper was read by Priscilla Frew on "The Mysteries of the Sargasso."

T. W. C. A.

Professor Holbrook was the speaker at the last meeting of the T. W. C. A., held on Wednesday evening. His subject was the Vermontian Passion Play—a discussion of some of the things to note in Vermont. It was one of the most interesting subjects and talks that the T. W. C. A. has had this year. Elsie Breckett was in charge of the meeting.

T. M. C.

Roy and W. Pope, who were少爷 by Dr. G. Wills as some of the outstanding problems of today, was the topic for this meeting. Professor Gray believes in the Outing Club. It is one of the best student institutions in the college.

A lively discussion occurred in which all took part freely.

Did you sign up at Sherwood Eddy's office? If not, the other students are talking about it. The meeting was held at the Psychological Association room of Kami Hall.

A meeting of Seniority was held on Wednesday night at 6:30. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment. It is one of the most important features in the psychological moment.

E. S. PAUL COMPANY

174 LISBON ST., LEWISTON, MAINE

Merrill & Webber Co. PRINTERS AND BOOKBINDERS

Women of Bates! DRY GOODS AND STYLISH APPAREL AT REASONABLE RATES

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE

LaFlamme PHOTOGRAPHERS FOR THOSE WHO DISCRIMINATE