Whole college murmurs sudden loss of its beloved "Monie"

Impressive Funeral Services Held Today for Prof. Hartshorn Who Died in His Chair

PROFESSOR HARTSHORN

The chapel service of that morning was the most impressive that has ever been held in Bates College. A throng of students and others crowded the chapel to bid farewell to the beloved professor. Prof. Hartshorn was well known and respected by all who knew him. He was a kind and gentle soul, and his death was a great loss to the college.

The Silver Highway

I'll follow the white-boned highway,

As far as I can follow it,

Over the hills and through the valleys.

Oh! a road without a name.

As far as I can follow it.

The Silver Highway

And the road winds through a path of gold and silver:

The Silver Highway.

The stars are a bank of gold.

And the moon is a bank of silver:

The Silver Highway.

The stars are a bank of gold.

And the moon is a bank of silver:

The Silver Highway.

The stars are a bank of gold.

And the moon is a bank of silver:

The Silver Highway.

The stars are a bank of gold.

And the moon is a bank of silver:

The Silver Highway.

The stars are a bank of gold.

And the moon is a bank of silver:

The Silver Highway.

ON THE CARPET (Continued From Page Two)

of course it's all a matter of interpretation. But I think that Mark's article, as it appears in the March issue of "Geographical" Martin suffers from a "feeling of detachment from all that is going on about him and his former companions." What probably needs to be done is to continue the story as a perfect picture of life and its philosophies.

The Editor of the Bostonian sums it all up by informing the world as follows—"I have been to many places myself, but I know what it is to be in the middle of the action. It makes you realize what you are doing, and it gives you some idea of what it means to be in the thick of things." He then adds, "I think that this is what the Bostonian is all about." And so it is.

The Bostonian is the official organ of the Black Hills College, and it is produced under the direction of the editor, who is the same person that is responsible for the "Bostonian" of the Boston Athletic Association. The Bostonian is published four times a year, and it contains articles on a variety of topics, such as sports, travel, and current events.

Auburn American Legion Sponsors Untied Concert that Will Include Numbers by Every Prominent Musical Organization of both Bates and Bowdoin

The combined music clubs of Bates and Bowdoin are to present a combined concert Saturday night at the Lewiston City Hall, to be sponsored by the American Legion.

The participating clubs will be the Bates College Orchestra, directed by John Bertram, and the Bowdoin College Glee Club, under the direction of President Mullins. It will be interesting to note that the Bowdoin Glee Club will sing "The Long from the West," which they sang at the University of Wisconsin, and which was selected by the National College Orchestra, who refer to the Bowdoin Glee Club as the "greatest club in the country." The Bates College Orchestra and Glee Club concert will furnish several selections. This is the result of an attempt to make a united concert of two of the musical groups, and both clubs were enabled by this arrangement to present their best efforts for the American Legion's benefit.

PERSONALS

This week we have been unusually busy about the semi-formal and concert arrangements. Almost everyone said "yes" to our club and social invitations. The Saturday night "movie and talent show" was another step above and ped with half of the orchestra and chorus. A couple of the half of the faculty is not in attendance. The music is the work of Bowdoin and the Bowdoin traffic has been the predominating feature. But we are hoping conserving the clubs and the dances, we might suggest a series of piano and dance at Christ and Free Street Upper House.

One of the festivities of the week was that of Miss Laura Maine on Monday afternoon. Miss O'Dell placed the opening of a series of one hundred, according to a recent accomplishment by President. President Grosvenor Robinson and his guest Miss Laura Maine

To those who have already attended, thirty-five applicants have been selected, which will be announced in April. To the nine who are still waiting, we extend our congratulations and hope that you may be selected.
