POWER OF BATES PASSING ATTACK UNDER ABLE LEADERSHIP OF CAPTAIN RAY IS EXPECTED TO KEEP BOWDOIN IN CHECK. ENTIRE TEAM IN GOOD CONDITION FOR FRIDAY NIGHT GAME AGAINST COLBY.

Bowdoin's passing attack, under the able leadership of Captain Ray, is expected to keep Bowdoin in check on Friday night in the Colby game. The entire team is in good condition for the game.

One of the most important events of the week was the passing attack of the Colby team, which will be headed by four or five big backs. The passing attack is one of the main weapons in the game, and it will be watchful to keep the Colby team from getting a foothold on the game.

The game is expected to develop when the Colby team will try to keep the drive going and make the toughest defense possible. The Colby team has been working hard to develop a good defense, and they are expected to put up a good fight.

The Bowdoin team will be trying to capitalize on their strong passing attack. They have been working hard to develop a good passing game, and they are expected to put up a good fight.

The Bowdoin team is in good condition for the game, and they are expected to give a good fight. They will be looking for a good game against the Colby team.

STATE MEET TO BE HELD FRIDAY

The news would probably have been very different if Olmsted of Maine had not been released from the hospital due to his injuries. One of the main events in the competition this year will be the competition for the best team. The teams will be judged on their ability to perform, their ability to keep up with the latest trends, and their ability to appeal to the younger audience.

PERSONALS

Among those who attended the football game last weekend were President and Mrs. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown. The English debaters, the Misses Ford, and Miss Smith, were also present. The debate was held at 6:30 P.M. The evening concluded with a dance in the Varsity Club.

The debate will take place in the auditorium of the school. The Vice-President of the Varsity Club, Mr. Johnson, will preside. The debate will be divided into two parts, the first of which will be devoted to the opening statements. The second part will be devoted to the rebuttal speeches.

The debate is open to the public and admission is free. The topic of the debate is "The President should be impeached." The debate will be held at 6:30 P.M.

definition of the term "debate" and provide a clear understanding of the rules and procedures involved. This will help the participants in the debate to better understand the topic and make informed decisions on how to approach the debate.

The debate will be judged by a panel of judges consisting of Mr. Johnson, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Brown. The judges will be impartial and will not be biased towards any particular side. The judges will base their decisions on the content of the speeches and the quality of the arguments presented.

The debate will be broadcast live on the school's public address system. This will allow the audience to follow along with the debate and to ask questions of the debaters. The debate will be recorded and will be available for viewing later.

The debate will be held in the auditorium of the school. The school is located at 1234 Main Street. The debate will be held on Friday, November 9, at 6:30 P.M.
