WOMEN'S TEAM SUCCESSFUL IN BOTH CANADIAN DEBATES

Win Unanimous Decision Over McMaster University
Acknowledged Leader in Canadian Debating Circles.
Also Defeat Women of The University of Toronto

The Bates women debaters are back again this year, each one with his own Canadian debating trip. The debaters were successful in both tournaments. The first is the debate they held Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the McCleary room, University, Toronto, which is recognized as the leading institution in Canada for such contests.

The Bates team consisting of Miss Constance M. Drinkwater as head speaker, Miss Colette P. Melville, Mrs. Alison M. V. Bathurst, Miss Ada Jackson, and Miss Phyllis N. Hewitt defeated the University of Toronto women, 9-3, on the affirmative side.

The affirmative side was debated by a team composed of Miss Varina Little, Miss Margaret Ferguson, Miss Miriam G. Cameron, Miss Ethel J. Willcox, and Miss Dorothea C. Macbeth. Miss Little was the chairman of the debate and Miss Cameron the timekeeper. The affirmative side was defeated by 9 to 3.

Miss Minna Brown, one of the debate speakers, who graduated from the local high school, has been a member of the debate team for the past two years. Miss Brown has been the Chairman of the debate study committee of W. C. C. A., a member of the Pi Beta Phi conference committee, a member of the Outing Club, Captain of the Debate Team, a member of the Athletic Association, and a member of the Firestone Club.

Miss Bertha Keys, who was for two terms president of the coordinate women's club, is an active member in Education and Public Relations. She is the editor of the Student, and the President of the Student Government. She is a member of the Firestone Club, Seniority, Phi Beta Kappa, and Dandies and is also an active member in Education and Public Relations.

Miss Mary Griswold is a graduate of Bates High School and has been a member of the debate team for two years. Her activities include an involvement in the debate team as well as her service in the Freshman class as a member of the debate team. Miss Brown is also involved in Education and Public Relations.

Miss Ada Jackson, who is a member of the debate team, has been involved in Education and Public Relations. She is the editor of the Student, and the President of the Student Government. She is a member of the Firestone Club, Seniority, Phi Beta Kappa, and Dandies and is also an active member in Education and Public Relations.

A. OWELL BROWN

Men are wont to mourn the loss of friends and those they love. The world has ever mourned the loss of those who might have added to the sum of human happiness. The loss of Owell Brown is, therefore, doubly mourned.

Of friends he had sufficient. True he had no legions of hetman. But what few friends he had were devoted and true. Owell was a title "popular man". But those who knew him well were unqualified in the respect and admiration they held for him. He was moderate in the number of intimate connections with which he undertook his task. It is no idle flattery or hollow compliment to say that Owell Brown was a fine character, sensitive and refined, and he avoided contact with the lower tenor of the public. By his best qualities to take his place in the world, with honor, to himself and benefit to mankind. He approached his studies and all the rest of his college life, not as one approaches a distasteful ordeal, but with the firm conviction that his efforts here at Bates were a precious prelude to his accomplishments later.

He approached his studies and all the rest of his college life, not as one approaches a distasteful ordeal, but with the firm conviction that his efforts here at Bates were a precious prelude to his accomplishments later. Doubtless the young man was not perfect; but, if he had faults, then indeed he kept them to himself and far from the eyes of others. And yet, while Owell Brown was not an altruistic or highly social character, he was a man of warm and generous heart.

The world has ever mourned the loss of those who might have added to the sum of human happiness. The loss of Owell Brown is, therefore, doubly mourned.

SPEAKING UNION

The two reasons for the change are the desire of the club to add to the? prestige of the club by heavy endorsement of the group, and that students profit by the loss of Owell Brown is, therefore, doubly mourned.

GRAY VS. DARROW

Prex remained loyal to the debating traditions of Bates in his contest with Clarence Darrow at Portland last Friday. In the minds of many old men, Gray came out the little victor of this Gray vs. Darrow controversy.

Gray's superiority. He presented for his side a well-rounded case, wherein every point of the subject was covered except fourteen.

Summer School To Begin July 5

Prof. R. F. Hayes, A.M., head of the Department of Spanish, and Director of the Spanish Summer School, announces that the school will again be in session at Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, July 5. The school is open to both high school and college students.

The Garnet Sport Pant

"Pink" Original Edition

The last week has been an unusually successful one in Bates athletic circles as things are already shaping up for a big season. The Garnet Sport Pant is a new and unique creation and is the first of its kind to be offered for sale at an athletic store. The pant is designed to meet the needs of the new age in high school and junior high school boys. The pant is available in a variety of colors and styles to suit the individual needs of each athlete. The pant is made of high-quality materials and is designed to last for many years. The Garnet Sport Pant is a must for any athlete who wants to look good on and off the field. The pant is available at Bates Athletic Record for a price that can't be beat.

The Outlaw Basketball Schedule

The Outlaw basketball schedule is now available for the upcoming season. The Outlaw basketball team is one of the most successful teams in the state and is expected to do well this year. The schedule includes games against some of the top teams in the country. The Outlaw basketball team is looking forward to another great season and is sure to make a strong showing in the upcoming season.
