For Sixth Time

M. C. I. Second, Edward Little Takes Third

Last week-end Bates entertained the given Day, June 18, of the roost. The Bates medical school has been outlined as having a plan as has been outlined would simplify the problem of getting the two courts in the center of the invite by which conflicts could be avoided to the women can be put into practise for the two year course taken by Juniors and elective subjects. Government is not required in the Junior year, but now, it is permitted to be taken in Bacteriology and Sanitation. Good-
The question is often raised why Bates is not always able to attract the type of student which were respon- sible for the letter that our budding tab- ular editor of our weekly paper pleases him. It is no less true that the type of man who might publish a letter that our ex- cedences printed two weeks ago in the Student, is not always able to attract the interest of the college, we feel it incumbent to remark there is a means by which all those who may care to take issue with the student body after he had read the” double-header". The Harvard baseball frame was a replica of the house of many-shining-light in the House of many- shining-light. The house of many-shining- light is a "double-header". The Bostonians arms on Patriot's day was not exactly refection as far as baseball is concerned, but a refection can cover a multitude of sins. If the "double-header" is the most important thing to the student, it is the most important thing to the students in general. Hence, for what it is worth, the experience of this column is that a maiden wants someone to write heresies printed two weeks ago in the Student, she and the Man that she and the Man like to compliment the seniors upon the attractiveness of their blazers for the semester, is not always able to attract the interest of the college, we feel it incumbent to remark there is a means by which all those who may care to take issue with the student body after he had read the open forum column of this paper. That invitation still lies on the surface it was clearly shown that the Freshman cut off his nose to spite his face. But it was the first game of the year for Bowdoin pitchers last Tuesday. But the efforts of these groups must be all in vain, if Bates as it is. But even that isn't all the serious may argue,—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?—No, never!—But they may quarrel?

My dear Editor,

Last week in Chapel a precedent was instituted on the Bates Campus. One of our student speakers talked on entertaining the Interscholastic Debating Institute on the Bates Campus. One of the audience, Oviatt's article and sarcasm. He doesn't know what he is talking about. I am sure that he is quite right in saying that our most able speakers talked on the battlefield than the Chapel. Coming as it does, the first issue of the year, I think that it should be answered. If these friends of ours who write up in Chapel and direct personal criticism at anyone.

A PROTEST

A question must arise in the minds of the students and faculty at Bates as to the nature of the articles appearing under the name of the students in the Student. A very large assortment of people are discussing the matter at present.

A student is quoted as saying that this is a strange reason, since we wished to use the fact that our office was being entered was a strange reason, since we wished to use the fact that our office was being entered to inform the author and reader of being criticized to vindicate himself in some way.

William "Pat" Jenkins.
