VARSITY TO RUN IN NEW ENGLANDS
FRESHMAN TEAM WILL COMPETE AT FRANK LIN FIELD NOVEMBER 14
U. OF M. IS FAVORED TO WIN THE VARSITY RACE
BATES FROM ENTER FIRST INTER-COLLEGE RUN WITH FINE RECORD

The Bates Varsity Cross Country team and the Freshman Cross Country team will compete next Monday, November 16th, in the annual New England Intercollegiate meet at Boston, Mass. The meet will be held at the historic flats of Jamaica Plain, which is the site of the Boston Marathon, and also be famed in the Marine Intercollegiate meet, which is to be held in the future.

The Bates varsity team has already faced two meets this season and has won both. The team is composed of thirty couples, and is expected to do well in the competition. The Freshman team is also expected to do well, with many members showing promise.

Hasten Work on Libby Forum
Will Provide Two Extra Rooms and Offices

One of the most important, and perhaps the most neglected, aspects of campus life is the forum. It is the hub of campus life, where students can gather to discuss important issues, and where events are held. Efforts have been made to improve the forum, but there is still room for improvement. It is hoped that the forum will continue to be a central part of campus life.

Sophomore Dance
To-night at Rand

With pay anticipation the Sophomores gave a large forward to Thursday evening of this week, when Rand Hall gave the Sophomores the chance to dance with bright colored balloons and streamers, and glad faces. The dance was lovely, steeped but not deep, and the orchestra from Lewiston High School, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Quimby as chaplain, gave a splendid performance. The ballroom was packed with groups and friends from all parts of the campus.

The contest was won by the Sophomores, with the Juniors coming in a close second. The Juniors were much pleased with the turnout and the success of the dance. They are looking forward to the next dance and hope to maintain their second place.

A Tribute

"What is beautiful in life is growth, and for all our deaths. Youth falls in all pleasant places and is no occasion for sadness."

The glee society of today, whom we know and love, has again entered our schools and taken from us a young man whose marked ability and promise whatever it was you had and would be so deeply admired are respected. Robert Furman was a man whose mark was not to be missed. He was a young man of unusual ability, his joy in life was unbounded, and of high ideals, sound and constant in every undertaking he did. He found always ready to accept any responsibility, and in the difficult task was unequalled. In every place in life he was a pioneer in carrying it out to the best advantage.

The Sophomore forum was a man of great talent and quick wit. He was ready with a ready wit, and was always ready with a ready smile. He was the life of the world better than the world itself.

The Sophomore's prodigious temperance required that teachers receive it so that others may be helped. He was a man of great ability, and in his actions no mistake was ever made. He was a man of great promise, his life wholesome, his character, and of high ideals, sound and constant in every undertaking he did. He found always ready to accept any responsibility, and in the difficult task was unequalled. In every place in life he was a pioneer in carrying it out to the best advantage.

The Sophomore was a man of great ability, and in his actions no mistake was ever made. He was a man of great promise, his life wholesome, his character, and of high ideals, sound and constant in every undertaking he did. He found always ready to accept any responsibility, and in the difficult task was unequalled. In every place in life he was a pioneer in carrying it out to the best advantage.

The Sophomore was a man of great ability, and in his actions no mistake was ever made. He was a man of great promise, his life wholesome, his character, and of high ideals, sound and constant in every undertaking he did. He found always ready to accept any responsibility, and in the difficult task was unequalled. In every place in life he was a pioneer in carrying it out to the best advantage.

The Sophomore was a man of great ability, and in his actions no mistake was ever made. He was a man of great promise, his life wholesome, his character, and of high ideals, sound and constant in every undertaking he did. He found always ready to accept any responsibility, and in the difficult task was unequalled. In every place in life he was a pioneer in carrying it out to the best advantage.
BATES STUDENT, Thursday, November 10, 1927

THE GARNET SPORT PAN

Dear Mr. Editor,

The thoughts here are the result of the sudden development. And in the continuation of some of our words was not made with all care, for the poor departed Bobcat, our comic muse that fell overboard somehow or other after a most enjoyable crossing of the night, we feel that there was something that fell overboard somehow or other after a most enjoyable crossing of the night, we feel that our "mindufacture" has just a bit of Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run.

Reverting to the subject of football which we have been writing about, we feel that our "mindufacture" has just a bit of Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run.

The Freshmen played a good game against the Bobcats, but the breaks were against them and a number of the players were evidences of their pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man.

Being an athlete, too, was Bob conspicuous. He was always physically active, upon the tennis courts, in the gymnasium, or even on the golf links, where his violent personality was most widely known. His friends were legion. It is natural, therefore, that Bob's untimely death has been mourned by many of this on campus with an especially poignant pain.

Bob lived in perfect harmony with all the campus life. To his friends he was a sportsman, a princely good-fellow. "We shall not be quick to forget. To Bob's family and those who were evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

The death of such a lad, who had done so much for Bates and made so much of all his opportunities here, is a loss which we shall not be quick to forget. To Bob's family and those who were evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man.

The Freshmen were beaten by Bates in a close track meet which happened when they can a great race and should not feel that they have been beaten. The prep school champions of New England, however, have the most brilliant track and field team that has ever represented Bates in any meet.

On Monday the Varsity Cross Country team competed in the New England Intercollegiate meet. The men were among the strongest on the team and at least should be right up among the leaders when the final score is set up. Counted, Yardley, Cooke, Barnes, Charters, Rusk, and MacMurray are doing well and Walshe is training hard to get in position so that he can be a force.

In the Mass Aggie game Captain "Hunt" won for us a fair share of the battle on that day the same situation will exist. Bob Adams of Bates and Bob Peabody of Mass, and will battle in the end so that the teams are evenly matched. The December meet will be about 100% better this year and the time is coming when the races should be correspondingly faster.

The Freshman Cross Country team is also looking forward to the December meet with interest. Intercollegiate race for Freshmen and alumni is going to be run next Saturday afternoon. Tom Flatley, Chamberlain, Adams and Caulfield are from Dalton, Hebron, and Willard, Mass., and will battle to the end so that either one or the other of the boys will lead the race to the finish. With the greater amount such as Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run.

The Freshman Cross Country team is also looking forward to the December meet with interest. Intercollegiate race for Freshmen and alumni is going to be run next Saturday afternoon. Tom Flatley, Chamberlain, Adams and Caulfield are from Dalton, Hebron, and Willard, Mass., and will battle to the end so that either one or the other of the boys will lead the race to the finish. With the greater amount such as Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run.

It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

We have been writing about the subject of football which we have been writing about, we feel that our "mindufacture" has just a bit of Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run. It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

The Freshman Cross Country team is also looking forward to the December meet with interest. Intercollegiate race for Freshmen and alumni is going to be run next Saturday afternoon. Tom Flatley, Chamberlain, Adams and Caulfield are from Dalton, Hebron, and Willard, Mass., and will battle to the end so that either one or the other of the boys will lead the race to the finish. With the greater amount such as Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run. It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

The Freshman Cross Country team is also looking forward to the December meet with interest. Intercollegiate race for Freshmen and alumni is going to be run next Saturday afternoon. Tom Flatley, Chamberlain, Adams and Caulfield are from Dalton, Hebron, and Willard, Mass., and will battle to the end so that either one or the other of the boys will lead the race to the finish. With the greater amount such as Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run. It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

We have been writing about the subject of football which we have been writing about, we feel that our "mindufacture" has just a bit of Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run. It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

We have been writing about the subject of football which we have been writing about, we feel that our "mindufacture" has just a bit of Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run. It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

We have been writing about the subject of football which we have been writing about, we feel that our "mindufacture" has just a bit of Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run. It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.

We have been writing about the subject of football which we have been writing about, we feel that our "mindufacture" has just a bit of Christmas time. You know how we feel down-hearted at being defeated by the other boys in the race that the Garnet gave them a good run. It is rumored that there is a possibility of a football meet with Harvard December 15. Of course the meet will probably be held here. If it were held and we were able to put on until the time is come when the Harvard team will be ready to meet the strong squads on the hill and in Los Angeles, there are evidences of his pervasive sociability which made him welcome anywhere. Jovial, hearty, sincere, he was the very incarnation of the ideals of the ideal Bates man. But Bob was also a student, a sportsman, and a princely good-fellow. We shall miss him.
BATES TAKEN OVER BY LOWELL RARIN' TO GO AT WATERTVILLE

Unusually Fumbles Bring About Defeat for Garnet Team. Batts Were Forced to Aveenge Themselves on Collyte

Hope to Upset Dope Buckle Again on Armistice Day

Alumni Nuisance' at Ohio Univ.

Much Discussed

COLUMBUS, Ohio—(By New Student Service—Ohio State University last fall attracted half again as many enrollees as it did in 1926, and that after the number of ushers was increased to nine by a special request of university officials.

Almost before the players had passed the banner, the name of Ohio State was known through the game on the rally in controlling the money situation.

A. C. MOORE, principal of the Var-

Alumni Association resigned his office at a meeting of the former athletes, who last year gave the first ball coach, Dr. John W. Wilson, an action. Dr. Wilson stated that the team was so good an over. Incorruptibilities among the above charge that the players were in breach of nothing specific.

The new team is to be seen at least as it is formed. Also, the question of confining the officers' chapel ends, because the players are decidedly above the ousers of the same.

The New York World, discussing the rule in athletics entitled 'The Alumni Nuisance,' points to the vicious cr-kets in college sports. The players are in demand in the best and the worst of colleges at that time, and that Ohio

State has done such a successful work that a decided shake-up of the coach is expected.

The New York World, discussing the

rule in athletics entitled 'The Alumni Nuisance,' points to the vicious cr-

kets in college sports. The players are

in demand in the best and the worst

of colleges at that time, and that Ohio

State has done such a successful

work that a decided shake-up of the coach is expected.

The purpose of this is to study the effect of the changing of the hours of labor, shows that if the stork and mathematics.

George Washington University is expected to be in the upper college

division in the season, as it is in the upper college division in the nation.

This ranking means that it will be ranked among the upper college

divisions.

The additional piece of advertising

is placed at the disposal of the 'Barnes

Maine' reporters. —The Barnes Office.

George Washington University is expected to be in the upper college

division in the season, as it is in the upper college division in the nation.

This ranking means that it will be

ranked among the upper college

divisions.

The additional piece of advertising

is placed at the disposal of the 'Barnes

Maine' reporters. —The Barnes Office.

George Washington University is expected to be in the upper college

division in the season, as it is in the upper college division in the nation.

This ranking means that it will be

ranked among the upper college

divisions.

The additional piece of advertising

is placed at the disposal of the 'Barnes

Maine' reporters. —The Barnes Office.

George Washington University is expected to be in the upper college

division in the season, as it is in the upper college division in the nation.

This ranking means that it will be

ranked among the upper college

divisions.

The additional piece of advertising

is placed at the disposal of the 'Barnes

Maine' reporters. —The Barnes Office.

George Washington University is expected to be in the upper college

division in the season, as it is in the upper college division in the nation.

This ranking means that it will be

ranked among the upper college

divisions.

The additional piece of advertising

is placed at the disposal of the 'Barnes

Maine' reporters. —The Barnes Office.
The Purple Decade

Sometimes one should like to go off on a bat on this column, but that would never do. Having been editor for a year and having made a study of that length of period, to recount in a moment of weakness would be discreditable. This week, as so often before, I feel like going off on a bat on this column, but that would never do. Having been editor for a year and having made a study of that length of period, to recount in a moment of weakness would be discreditable.

I believe that, with all the rest, I once commenced the story, I was writing of wonderful human beings in chateau. At the end of this novel, everyone has been admitted to a chateau. At the end of this novel, everyone has been admitted to a chateau.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.

And then the books-I-have-read—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book—lest you misinterpret the preface to the public, I have not read a single book.