The time now comes for the present Student Board to yield its offices to succeeding generations. At such a time it is always appropriate to quote the last two lines from "In Flanders Fields," to the effect: "In Flanders fields the poppies grow, Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky, The larks, still bravely singing, fly,Scarce heard amid the guns below." As we would-be journalists go to seek a shallow grave after many weeks of fervid effort, we commit our task to the tender ministrations of the Student Board. We hope that the new Board may be as delightful to them as they are to us and that its woes will rest lightly on their shoulders.

The Christmas meeting of Macfarlane Club was held at 109 Wood Street, when Prof. Mawr presented a check to the club amounting to

CAPTAIN NILSON

To "Ray" Nilson, the captain elect of next year's football team, we offer our congratulations. A fine athlete, he represents the athletic spirit and dynamic philosophy, as one of the outstanding leaders in the State, as a hero of many of this year's hard-fought battles, notably the one with New Hampshire. He was the first back on the field after the victory over Maine, and he has been one of the best.

THE TRIBE CAME TOGETHER

In the Wilton Record comment on the news of the Little Theatre movement, "the editorial writer" notes the opposite movement and with it an object for their creative talents and an opportunity to express their particular dramatizing interests. The production of some dramatic piece of considerable experience, especially the presentation of their Christmas play, will put them together in a common interest, as they are to study drama together.

The colleges of Maine have developed a movement in that field. The University of Maine has developed one in Lewiston and the Bates College in Lewiston has strong attractions in this field. The Bates College in Lewiston has strong attractions in this field.

The Little Theatre movement is connected with the movement for the Better Schools of Maine. The schools and colleges are established for the development of the student body. The purpose of the Little Theatre movement is to promote good fellowship, to interest the student body in the workings of the school, and to make the student body interested in the welfare of the society and the community. The present officers of the society are Mr. Joe Gray, J. S. Macfarlane, and F. W. Pendleton.

The Macfarlane Club is a society with a splendid opportunity for the college to make itself the cultural center of the community.

RAYMOND NILSON ELECTED CAPTAIN FOOTBALL TEAM

RAYMOND Nilsom was unanimously elected Captain of next year's football team.

Year's captain is "Swede", alias "Neal", and has been a member of the varsity team three years, his official twenty-one a week. He is expected to be open, with a chance of two nights a week.

We trust that the look is out or being reserved and that the opportunity of chaperonage. There would be no chance for the "Student ship of the Garnet Sport Pan becomes a thing.

Mr. VV. Everett Wood was the delight of the college without voicing some of our finest men.

The evil. Many of us admire some of our fairest friends in Farmington, student body but we believe that those blessed with the gift of talent are not equal opportunity for research. It is unfortunate if there are those who believe they have justification in taking offense at the policy of the Student Body and who did not feel at leisure to confide their thoughts to the existing editors.

You will cease to work here if it will not be known that he has a prison record, and so a chance to make amends.

The essence of the major change is the disorganization and decentralization. The Publishing Association has had its annual task of selecting the major officials of the Student Staff and has determined that it was to work as an experiment.

The Purple Decade

Christmas—the very sound of the word invokes the spirit of Christmas. The crisp pines and firs, makes me see jolly face, makes me hear the rustling of small bells, and as of something holy, I know not what. I feel as if I am standing on the verge of making. And then of all the jolliest things about Christmas is the very sound of the bells. Bells are like music to me. It was really quite a mixture of the sublime and the ridiculous, of the beautiful and the comic, and with eyes wide open to that beauty, I was content.

The years went by and Christmas was no longer the same. The little girl who had given us so much joy was no longer there. But the memories of those happy days remained. The Christmas spirit continued to live on in our hearts, and we knew that even though Christmas may not be the same as it was before, it still held the magic of the holidays.

Dimensions for Lamp Posts Is Decided On

PRESXY and Harry Rowe Solve the Question

STUDENTS HOPE FOR LIGHT ON RETURN FROM VACATION

To clear up any doubts and mysteries that might be connected with the above heading, it is to be announced that this is a representation of the Hathorn Hall. So everybody who guessed that of washing and waiting, the tradition-ny lamp-post came up the walk be-more posts were slated to be put just like se those which had been taken away. One of those posts remained at the right of the steps, the other was made to stand at the foot of the steps nearest to the front of Parker Hall while the long one was unabated beside the first short one at the right of the Hathorns (steps). (Consult

The administration head already un-promised by sending away for two more of these posts was the wild hope of the student body that it will be on the lamps in its full garb of light when the vacation period is ended.

World Tour of Debaters

Booneham of the U. of Maine. There are the "hated rival" feeling in such a proposition as this. The editor of a Gannett Union abroad have taken an interest—and have many of the leading newspapers of the United States and foreign countries accepted the idea that debate is like arbitration wherever they go. Professor Quimby is helping the debaters in speaking techiques. He is Prof. Quimby's right hand man in this matter. He will help the students having different national outlooks, and vice versa.

women are of the utmost importance to furthering the interests of the

Mr. John Daniels, the Secretary of the English-speaking Union of the United States. The Union has branches in many countries, its purpose being to promote sanity and good will between English speaking nations. Mr. Daniels was very interested, and will probably do the enough of his power to facilitate the drawing of a schedule.

The itinerary of the tour is not set down yet. Probably The Bates team will not be able to set up a definite programme.
It is possible that it will be possible to visit Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa. The trip across the Indian Ocean and also the tramp up the Ganges and the Irrawaddy from Prome to May, the team will have the Pacific coast directly for New Zealand. In order to get there before the colleges they will also be able to visit the Hawaiian Islands and the Philippines. After a few weeks on the coast, they will be in Sydney. They will stay in Australia until the middle of July, after which they will leave for New Zealand.

When the men arrive in New York, they will submit to the social usage of the countries they are in session during July.
