Be Folly and False—seeming to affect
Whatever formal gait of discipline
Shall raise them highest in their own esteem—
Let them parade among the Schools at will,
But spare the House of God. Was ever known

WELCOME BACK
We are glad to welcome all the old Bats grads among us.
Back-to-Bates Night is an occasion which we who are here in the college may renew our old acquaintances, gather new ideas, and have a general good time.
We know that you are here for much the same reasons; because you wish to see the old college again, to freshen memories of certain scenes and actions, and to help cheer another Bates team to victory.
We realize that it means something, some effort on the part of each of you to be here, and it is our hope that you may find something which will bring you back, at least for this one time in each year, to be sharers in the life of our Alma Mater.

SIDERATION OF THE MINOR DETAILS, SUCH AS DISCIPLINE, REGULARITY, AND EVEN THE CONSCIOUS EFFORT TO GAIN A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF RELIGION, WOULD BE NECESSARY AND THE HOUSE OF GOD IN OUR MIND WOULD BECOME A PLACE WHERE WE EXPERIENCED THE MORE PLEASURABLE SATISFACTION OF WINNING SOMETHING TANGIBLE AND WORTHY FROM THE EXPERIENCES OF THOSE ABOUT US.

BATES DEBATES MEET OXFORD

Lord Boyd, captured while in the service of Prince Charles Among the distinguished members of Mr. Lennox-Boyd's family is the 10th Lord Napier who was ambassador to the United States.

Entering Christ Church College, Oxford, with an honorary scholarship, Mr. Lennox-Boyd has kept up his academic reputation by winning various scholarship awards. His popularity with his fellow students at Oxford is shown by the number of offices he held including presidency of the University Association and ensigning in his election to presidency of the conservative association where he is shown to be wise, which could be universally helpful.

With his eloquent debating, varied ability, and personal charm, he will excellently uphold the Oxford tradition while in America.

PRESS CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION
Thursday afternoon the Press Club of the Publishing Association met to elect their yearly officers. Fred Hanscomb was chosen as President, Norman Edward's, Vice-President and Dr. Wright took the place of Mr. B. A. Spanish Club of Boston University. The subject for the debate was whether Will Rogers or Charlie Chaplin would make the better President. The debate was excellently upheld in English. The debate was held including presidency of the University Association and ensigning in his election to presidency of the conservative association where he is shown to be wise, which could be universally helpful.

WILL ROGERS was enthusiastically accepted as the best candidate for President of the United States, in a speech, and vice versa. A debate was whether Will Rogers or Charlie Chaplin would make the better President. The debate was excellently upheld in English.
It would be hard to say specifically what Stan's friends were pleased with. The Bates students against Maine last week was by no means the best game of the season, and the great energy that had been show by Maine on Saturday night. But the Bates team was not as bad as it had been in the past, and the Maine team was not quite as good as it had been in the past.

The game was played in front of a capacity crowd, and the fans were filled with excitement. The Bates team was led by the quarterback, who had been working hard at practice all week. The Maine team was led by the captain, who had been working hard at practice all week. The game was a close one, and the fans were on the edge of their seats as the final minutes ticked away.

The Bates team was able to hold off the Maine team in the end, thanks to a series of well-executed plays. The quarterback was able to throw the ball accurately to his receivers, and the Maine defense was unable to stop the Bates offense. The game ended with a final score of 14-10, in favor of Bates.

The fans were delighted with the outcome of the game, and the Bates team was pleased with their win. The Maine team was disappointed, but they knew that they had played their best game of the season.

After the game, the teams returned to their respective locker rooms. The Bates team was able to celebrate their victory, while the Maine team was able to console themselves with the thought that they had played well.

The fans were already looking forward to the next game, which would take place next week. Both teams were scheduled to play against the same opponent, and the fans were excited to see how the games would turn out.

The teams also engaged in some friendly rivalry, both on and off the field. The Bates team was known for their fierce competitive spirit, while the Maine team was known for their philosophical approach to the game. Despite their differences, both teams respected each other and enjoyed a friendly rivalry.

In conclusion, the game between the Bates and Maine teams was a thrilling and exciting one. The fans were delighted with the outcome, and the teams were pleased with their victories. Both teams were looking forward to the next game, and the fans were already planning their next visit to the stadium.
BOBCAT UNABLE TO SOLVE MAINE'S DAZZLING ATTACK

Powerful Backfield of Pale Blue, Led by Capt. Buzell, Sweeps All Before It in Its Touchdown Marches Born in Bates Team

The powerful Maine bear was in a dangerous mood last Saturday and after a meager diet of touchdowns throughout the season, finally managed to satiate his appetite completely on the defenseless Bobcats of Bates. Aaid by his powerful supporting cast, Buzell, the veteran captain, decided to call the score 6 to 0, and it is very likely that the final tally would have been more lopsided if the Bobcats had not been so plucky. It was a valiant exhibition for Bates followers to witness. However, from which they can find little consolation is the knowledge that they hardly teemmates belted thehaps, almost improbable, for it was the first time in the season that such a score was posted in the Bobcat's defeat. Aided by the merciless hammering of the Maine front, the hasty conference they all held in the field was late in the day and the first half finally disposed every inch of ground. Nonetheless, the Bobcats scored a touchdown in each period and the merciless hammering of the Maine bear artillery rendered the ephemeral struggling of the Garnet during the last two scores.

Little attention need be given to the details of the defeat because the score never showed better advantage. Triple crisis are not supposed to favor the defeated that enabled them to execute every nuance of the game. The training of the Green and while playing passes later that they would land the hay and the rest, were a few of the things that befell the nagging defeat to the Bobcats.

Scene Nilson summed up the whole affair philosophically and adequately. "EVEN the best teams show weaknesses," he said, "if they have to play against a very strong team. They failed, but I am sure that next time they will do a better job."

POLITICS CLUB BEGINS PROGRAM

At the regular meeting of the Politics Club held last Thursday evening, the program began with a defense and interesting program for the month of November. It is planned to engage in an active and thorough discussion of the Chinese question, the Latin American problem, and the farce situation on our political, economic, and social sides. A program consistent with Mr. Pollak's, Mr. Brenton and Mr. Travers was missed by President Knight to handle the program for the month.

On the night of the Chinese discussion, Mr. Reiss, a New York lawyer, gave a talk on "The Chinese." The discussion was sustained by a full house, and featured the following points: Mr. Reiss, Mr. Lin, Mr. Cook and Mr. Wolf, all of whom were present and engaged in an active and thorough discussion of the Chinese question, the Latin American problem, and the farce situation on our political, economic, and social sides. A program consistent with Mr. Pollak's, Mr. Brenton and Mr. Travers was missed by President Knight to handle the program for the month.

"For the moment, thousands of secret ballots to College Humor to fasteners andorreries in every college. In many schools, particularly in the colleges we have been referring to, the students are becoming more and more radical in their political and social views. The alternatives of the political parties and the candidates for public office are more and more discussed in the halls and classrooms. This is a healthy development, as it shows that the students are becoming more interested in the political and social questions of the day."

College Students Vote 2 to 1 for Hoover

Special Release By R. Y. Stevens, Editor, Maine Daily, November 2, 1928

A majority of the college students voted for Governor Hoover last Saturday in the election for President of the United States. The vote was taken by a majority of the college students who voted for Hoover in the last election. The majority of the students voted for Hoover, and the minority voted for Smith. The vote was taken in the following manner: The students were divided into two groups, those who voted for Hoover and those who voted for Smith. The groups were then counted, and the majority group was recorded as the vote for Hoover. The minority group was recorded as the vote for Smith.

The re-election of the college was significant, the majority of the running ballots on their front pages. Voting habits were shown to better advantage on the front pages, those of the students who voted for Hoover. The students who voted for Hoover showed their support for the President in the election by voting for him in the majority group. The students who voted for Smith showed their support for the Governor in the election by voting for him in the minority group. The results of the election were recorded as follows: Hoover 20, Smith 12."

Polar Bears Here Tomorrow

The Maine game at stake for a while, and his showing has influenced the coaches for his starting position. Shapiro, who is suffering from an injured foot, would also be well satisfied with this running lineup, but it is very likely that the injury will not prevent him from taking the field. As for the other positions, they will be filled by the players whose names have started the previous games.

It is only one indicated advantage that the Bowdoin team holds against Bates. Earlier in the season, the Bobcats defeated the Maine Aggies who were the only team that had scored on Bates. But that was in the early part of the season. The Bobcats are now ready to try their power, and finding under the marvelous cork of the Pfeiffer Bear. The Polar Bear can draw little hope or consolation from that. When it comes to Carroll Field tomorrow it will not be met by a small crowd, but by a long train of unfortunate circumstances that has been its bane in previous games. The prince is confident that the five will defeat the team in the game with Bow-din. Their morale is good and Coach Wiggis has taken drastic measures to improve it.

A crowd approaching 4,000 is expected. The Bowdoin student body has worked long and hard to attract the fans. The game will be held at the new stadium, which is located near the campus. There is no question that the game will be an exciting one. The Bobcats are well prepared and have been practicing hard for this game. The Maine team is also well prepared and has been practicing hard for this game. The game will be a good test of the team's preparation and will be an exciting one to watch.
