Celebrate Baseball Championship

College Turns Out Volunteering Gratitude to Wiggins and the Boys

On Thursday evening the student body and the fans turned out in numbers to wish the baseball team, Coach Marston and his players, good luck for the remainder of this year.

The parade, led by the baseball players, went down College Street, through the main streets of the city and return to the campus. Because of the many signs and the brilliance of the accompaniment, it was necessary for the bulldogs and the entire crowd to dress themselves and themselves in white and red to match the colors of the outfit.

When everyone had gained the leg up, the parade ended and the grandstand was destined to the student body, who from that time on, went to their forthcoming tasks, with a smile on their faces.

Wiggins Speaks

As the flames died down, order was re-established and the first official of the college, President, Dr. Wiggins, took the floor to make his annual address to the student body. He stated that the season was one of triumph and that the team had achieved a number of victories.

True Story of Moosehead Trip

Adventurous Students Brave Maine Wilds

The Bates Outing Club trip to Moosehead Lake is a tale of adventure that will be remembered for years to come. On the morning of June 13, the club set off on a journey that would take them through the most rugged terrain in the state. The trip included a hike to the summit of a mountain, a canoe trip through the lakes and rivers, and a overnight stay at a primitive campsite.

The group was led by their guide, a local hunter who had spent his entire life in the wilderness. He was knowledgeable in the ways of the forest and knew exactly where to find the best hunting grounds.

The trip was not without its challenges, as the group encountered many obstacles along the way. They had to ford rushing streams, climb steep mountains, and navigate through dense forests. But through it all, they remained determined and focused on their goal.

Finally, after days of hiking and paddling, they reached their destination. The view from the summit was breathtaking, and the group spent the evening celebrating their achievement.

The trip was not just about adventure, it was also a time for bonding and sharing stories. The group spent their evenings around a campfire, telling tales of their lives and experiences. It was a time of camaraderie, friendship, and shared experiences.

In the end, the Moosehead trip was a success. The group had achieved their goal, and they were proud of themselves for facing the challenges head-on. The trip was a testament to the strength of the human spirit, and the ability to overcome any obstacle with perseverance and determination.

Bates Loses to Strong Antiquatics

Giroux Pitches Good Game as he Strikes Out Twelve Marthas

Jerry Giroux has lost a heart-breaking decision last Wednesday afternoon when the Quarterback Morris of Virginia defeated the Bates baseball team, 8 to 3, in a hard fought and exciting contest. Giroux faced a powerful and experienced batting lineup, and allowed them only ten hits in the game.

The quality kind of pitching that Giroux displayed was more than enough to overcome the game. His controlled delivery, and his ability to induce fly balls to the outfield, made him a formidable opponent.

In the end, Giroux was unable to come through in the clutch, and the game was lost. But Giroux and his teammates showed remarkable heart and courage throughout the game, and their efforts were not in vain.

With the loss, Bates falls to a disappointing 10-12 record for the season. The team will look to bounce back in their next game, and prove that they are still one of the top teams in the league.
DEDICATION

Having sprinkled this particular number of the Student with a charring liquid of green, the dedication of it as the Ivy Day number now requires but the formality of an appropriate word or two.

There are two words that appear to be inseparably associated with Ivy Day, namely—tradition and sentiment. The two generally go hand in hand, and are full of meaning when not abused in exercises ever held at Bates.

T. last Saturday, "Ogo" Chapman, runner-up in the quarter mile, has been chosen to run for the Bulldogs, who will be favored today on the track to win their historic 17th straight victory. He was placed second in the 18-yd dash and third in the 100-yard dash.

Lewis L. Gray
Writing Book
Develops Original Idea
in Biblical Field

A striking example of the real value of a college course is the accomplishment of Lewis L. Gray, '29, of Bates from Maine. Under the guidance and encouragement of Professor Herbert R. Parsons, Mr. Gray has developed a Biblical literature thesis within two years, into an unedited and interesting original book. Although as yet unfinished, the manuscript now shows much promise. Mr. Gray has agreed to prepare the volume when he has completed his course of study.
