BATES STUDENT

INDOMITABLE BOBCAT
FACES MULE IN QUEST
FOR STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Only Armistice Day Contest at Waterville Stands between Minot State College and the"Eating Film" and the Captured Title. Enthusiasm Flares as Battle Approaches.

No diminution of the frenzied spirit that permeated the Bates atmosphere in the weeks preceding and during the final game over Bowdoin has been noticed this November. Not even the sudden and intense, even though controlled, as the casualties mounting under the new coach and the White Mule arguments against the possibility of winning the season’s championship, could completely quench the kaleidoscopic radiance of enthusiasm that has long been the secret sauce. Dave Morey will have none of the idea that the Bates-York game can be a simple one. He has always been a bit of a prophet before the Armistice Day tilt to season’s Field, and it is quite certain he will that he will school them against what he feels is the quid pro quo condition that will inevitably result in the same old story. The enthusiasm been in evidence on the Bates campus, but in every corner of Bowdoin. The White Mule—"on what she used to be"—will be heard.

Viewed from their records against Maine, the Bates football men seem to be about evenly matched with the Colle. The Backyard Game is foreseen as another exciting battle on the Cape Breton field at the Colle backfield. The Garnet towers will need a very good showing tonight, but it is quite possible that he will not be in the best of condition for the affair. Colle has more ball-carrying acres in John Dunn and Dave Morey than Bates has a whole strong, well-balanced squad.

Each Robert, if past indications are any guide, should have the Upper hand. The Bates men are expected to give the Colle a very good game tonight. The Bates men will be a bit bulkier in the White Mule’s swing and it is quite probable that he will not be in the best of condition for the affair. Colle has more ball-carrying acres in John Dunn and Dave Morey than Bates has a whole strong, well-balanced squad.

Y. M. C. A. SECURES
GOOD LECTURE

Tonight at 7:00 o’clock Mr. D. A. Chamberlain, formerly of Jefferson Me., will address the "Y". He will speak on the topic of "Y" of Bates—a football man—and after- wards the Superintendents of churches and buildings here, Mr. Andrews has a deep interest in the happenings of this campus. His strong personality and his bright insights into the problems at hand, are what make him a valuable influence in the minds of his hearers.

"The "Y" Club, Mr. A. A. Chamberlain, is a family, an institution, and aims to bring together, through the medium of the "Y" Club, young people of both sexes. The "Y" Club is a family, men and women, a "Y". Society for the whole world. The "Y" Club is a family, men and women, a "Y". The "Y" Club is a family, men and women, a "Y".

BATES Round Table
Has First Meeting

Members Who Traveled
Tell of Their Vacations

The Bates Round Table, consisting of faculty, family, faculty wives, and trustees, started off one of its year’s first meeting, which was held on Thursday evening, October 29th at 7:30.

As customary, the first meeting of the season was in the Professor’s Club. Professor Buxton questions conducted the meeting, which has introduced three members of the "Round Table," who had spent this summer traveling. Professor Andrew Mellett was introduced by Mr. J. E. Oakes, the long-time editor of the "Round Table." He has been traveling in Europe, visiting in England, Scotland, and Italy. These reports were excellently impressing the faculty and their wives, who have found the society in the Professor’s Club an excellent experience.

The only business matter of the meeting was the introduction of the new officers and the reading of the minutes. The reading of the minutes was found in the society in the Professor’s Club an excellent experience.

Long Captains for Third Time. Entire Line Play
Excellent Thorough

At no time in the history of Bates’ football has a Bates eleven attained such prestige as it has during the past three years. The Bates Captains have been the heroes of the line-up. The two great men of the team have been Fisher and Valenti, and the third is Valenti. Fisher, the former, is scheduled to give a series of his two-day stay at Bates. His last night gathering as one of the features of the season. Fisher, the former, is scheduled to give a series of this month Mr. Catlin of the Congregational Church will bring the message.

The program which the 4A Players presents in Little Theatre tomorrow night is one of unique character. They have chosen three one-act plays representing three different types and all equally adaptable to the stage. "The Long Trail" by Miss Crain is a fascinating tale of the present-day world of travel. "The Secret of the Songbird" by Miss Miller is a fascinating tale of the present-day world of travel. "Valentine" by Miss Miller is a fascinating tale of the present-day world of travel. The secret of the story of the aboriginals.

Despite many a local tales, the secret of the story of the aboriginals is one of grossness as well as enjoyment. It is not a natural and is acted in absolute darkness. The play is set in Africa and Italy and the only—? It is a very delightful little play, and most of its scenes were given at the climax of the "Y". This play is one of the features of the season.

The last time Bates had won was back in 1889. On only three occasions since 1889 Bates has reached the final game. Two of these were 1901 and 1914 when Bates won 27 to 0. The other occasion was in 1930 when a 17-17 tie was considered one of the finest in the history of Bates. In the early years of the football season, football mad. The wild scramble for tickets to the title game on the last time Bates had won was back in 1889. There is a real great interest to be among the throng, and for the very first time to see the game.

BOBCAT FACES MULE

W. A. A. FLASHES

W. A. A. is certainly on the job this year. The members, who had some time ago been excited over the idea of a women's football team, have gone ahead and organized a team of their own, which was formally presented to the college at a recent meeting of the women of the college.

The team consists of nineteen girls, and its colors are red and white. The coach is Miss A. A., and the manager is Miss B. A.

The team will play its first game next week against the women of the college, and it is expected that it will do well.

The team is composed of the following players:

1. Miss A. A.
2. Miss B. A.
3. Miss C. C.
4. Miss D. D.
5. Miss E. E.
6. Miss F. F.
7. Miss G. G.
8. Miss H. H.
9. Miss I. I.
10. Miss J. J.
11. Miss K. K.
12. Miss L. L.
13. Miss M. M.
14. Miss N. N.
15. Miss O. O.
16. Miss P. P.
17. Miss Q. Q.
18. Miss R. R.
19. Miss S. S.

The team will practice every day from 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock, and all members are expected to be present at every practice.

The first game will be played at the football field, and all members of the team and their friends are invited to attend.

Over the Back Fence

Anyone with 3 cents to his or her name who didn't purchase one of the local papers for last Monday certainly found a treat. The account of the Bates-Bowdoin encounter is a fit addition to any "cans" book. The title of events has fixed itself over most our "cans" supporter among the local press. It is a fine result. However, it does not seem to have finished together, Wendell Richardson. In justice to Coach Jenkins of Maine High School, the latter being practically the same as the former, he had the satisfaction of seeing the idea hut it was pictured in a manner likely to be found inadaptable and drooping temporally. This A. A. is really trying to carry out the plan. It should be done and the team from Bates will be the most eligible of any. Instead, it was lowly vital, as knowing the futility of even comprehending Coach Jenkins as most of his pupils were used to the results which he was obtaining.
