THE PROHIBITION POLL

The stave vote on the XVIII Amendment which the Literary Digest is running will not only do a great deal to make drinking less in the future, but it will offer a big help to those who are interested in good government by the people. If it should come to a vote and be passed by a large majority, it will be an indication that the people of the country are ready to support any measure which will lead to the betterment of the condition of the nation. The vote will be taken in the fall, and it is hoped that a large number of voters will participate in it. The results of the vote will be announced soon after the election.

The nation is divided on this issue, and it is possible that a decisive victory for prohibition may be secured. However, it is important to remember that the vote is only an expression of public opinion, and that it does not necessarily indicate the will of the people. It is therefore necessary to consider the views of all persons who are concerned with the matter, and to make every effort to work for a better future for the country.

SPRINT FOOTBALL

The short, but extremely beneficial sprint football season comes to an end this week. The students who have been a part of the team have worked hard and have shown their dedication to the sport. The team has had a successful season, and the players have gained valuable experience. The members of the team are grateful for the opportunity to participate in this activity.

The team has been a source of pride for the college, and the players have made a positive contribution to the community. The team has also been a source of inspiration for others, and has shown that dedication and hard work can lead to success. The team has a bright future, and the players are excited to continue their efforts and to build upon their achievements.

THE GARDEN

Once more the Muses have been in league with the Lord of Lights and Sun. They have done their work and have given us a garden of beauty and delight. Perhaps a little harshly, perhaps a little too quickly, but nevertheless, the garden is theirs and ours.

The garden is a symbol of the union of nature and art, and of the beauty that can be created through the combination of these forces. It is a place of peace and tranquility, where the mind can rest and the spirit can be uplifted. The garden is a source of inspiration, and it is a reminder of the wonders of the natural world.

The garden is also a symbol of the unity of the students, who have worked together to create it. It is a reminder of the fact that, when we work together, we can achieve great things.

OUT ON THE CINDER
It didn't seem natural to see Max and Charlie sitting on the bleachers. They were almost standing on their heads, but they seemed to be enjoying themselves. Max was laughing, and Charlie was singing, and they both had a smile on their faces. Max was talking about the game, and Charlie was telling jokes. Max's face was aglow as he talked about the game, while Charlie's face was red as he told his jokes. It was a sight that was hard to forget.

W. A. A. NEWS

A telegraph combat tournament is being arranged between Union and St. F. with as much humor as well as interest. In spite of the reports from the combat news, no doubt, there are some very good shooters finding the oues in a hot time, for they are as much enjoyed as well as good for practice. The combat will be held on the coming Monday and Thursday at 7:30 P.M.

Debates at Bates College need not be confined to the campus. The Intercollegiate League announced the schedule of twenty-three debate teams across the country, including Bates College will be sent to Australia and New Zealand, and will come back for the home opening.

Debating a state championship. A baseball spring will make it easier for Bates in this regard, as it will be the spring of their world class. Many of these will be seen in the United States. Some states have not yet been able to charter clubs, but they are promised for the future.

Debate at Bates needs no introductions. The school is well known and respected. The group of young men who went to England last year to debate with Oxford and Cambridge will be seen in the United States this year.

The Intercollegiate League has approved the conduct of the Bates Debating League, Harvard having the power to withdraw this approval at any time. Bates College has not yet decided to accept the approval, but it is looking forward to a great deal of debate next year in the United States. This meeting will come in this year's report to the Bates Debating League.
