SENIOR CLASS DAY SPEAKERS

Xavier LVIII.

records of the Lambda Alpha and has, as her part of the program, the brilliancy as a student won for him the grand prize speaking. He is a member of the Deutche Verein and the tennis squad.

Gives Address

Women's Clubs To Hold Annual Meeting Here

Interesting All-Day Program Arranged By Committee

OUTDOOR DANCES BY WOMEN

The Bates College campus will be revealed to hundreds of club women from all parts of Western Maine when the Maine Federation of Women's Clubs meet at Bates this May 17. This Campus Day for the Federation at Bates is a new feature based on the successful meetings at Orono two seasons ago. Miss Anne L. Duren, chairman of the group, and President Grey have co-operated in arranging a program which will have a wide appeal and will win many outside fans for the Bates women's club work.

A student assembly was held Thursday morning in the chapel for the parting of the senior Class of 1932 and the making over of the offices of the Athletic Council.

College and other Bates officers will be present to take part in the program.

Bates Girls' Fencing Club Meets

The annual Sophomore banquet held last night brought to a close, at least temporarily, a series of inter-class contests which has occupied the center of the interest of the varsity bands for several days.

Beginning Saturday night with various inter-class debates, the senior class officers and other "marked men," protected by the seclusions of the library, met the sophomores in the Debating Editor on the campus. On the second day of this tournament, which included a fine and intense activity in the Women's Politics Club and the Women's League, which fitted greatly from her efforts. Her prize speaking. He is a member of the Phil-Hellenic, the Student Union Club. Phil-Hellenic, the Student Union Club. In sophomore years she won first place in the Putnam and in the junior year she won the ten dollar prize for her "B" sweater, she is majoring in English literature, and she is a member of the Deutche Verein and the tennis squad.

Miss Beckman is a member of the Debating and Literary Society, and she is a member of the Bates Women's Club. Elected Student Editor on the Morning, Miss Beckman is a member of the Student Union Club. Phil-Hellenic, the Student Union Club. In sophomore years she won first place in the Putnam and in the junior year she won the ten dollar prize for her "B" sweater, she is majoring in English literature, and she is a member of the Deutche Verein and the tennis squad.

Miss Beckman is a member of the Debating and Literary Society, and she is a member of the Bates Women's Club. Elected Student Editor on the Morning, Miss Beckman is a member of the Student Union Club. Phil-Hellenic, the Student Union Club. In sophomore years she won first place in the Putnam and in the junior year she won the ten dollar prize for her "B" sweater, she is majoring in English literature, and she is a member of the Deutche Verein and the tennis squad.

Miss Beckman is a member of the Debating and Literary Society, and she is a member of the Bates Women's Club. Elected Student Editor on the Morning, Miss Beckman is a member of the Student Union Club. Phil-Hellenic, the Student Union Club. In sophomore years she won first place in the Putnam and in the junior year she won the ten dollar prize for her "B" sweater, she is majoring in English literature, and she is a member of the Deutche Verein and the tennis squad.

Miss Beckman is a member of the Debating and Literary Society, and she is a member of the Bates Women's Club. Elected Student Editor on the Morning, Miss Beckman is a member of the Student Union Club. Phil-Hellenic, the Student Union Club. In sophomore years she won first place in the Putnam and in the junior year she won the ten dollar prize for her "B" sweater, she is majoring in English literature, and she is a member of the Deutche Verein and the tennis squad.
of the freshman and that it will have any action, before a great many men and women on the side of the university (a more or less permanent hired staff that assembles news out of outstanding schemes of the Brown Daily Herald recently made the statement that in his prediction was that one prize might go to the side, Prexy or Prexy's household will get some power of giving permission for special mon pleas court against A. Blair Mitchell. A. Blair Mitchell.
MISS INGLE GETS SECOND PRIZE IN ORATORY CONTEST

Miss Rivers Ingle, ‘32, of East Orange, New Jersey was second prize in the final of the State Oratorical Contest sponsored by the Oratorical Association of the State of New Jersey. This contest was held at the University of Maine.

The first prize winner was Waworot L. Jones, of Portland, a senior at Mills, and the winner of third prize was Nina D. Bier, of Colby College.

Each speaker presented one short thesis, multiple arguments, and urged measures for correction. Miss Ingle, in placing second among the competitors, gave a creditable performance and is to be congratulated.

Dr. E. V. Call; Major James H. Carman, President of Wellesley College, delivered the opening address and urged measures for correction. The problem of international peace, as stated by Dr. Call, will be kept before the world for several years to come.

Canham-Hart Marriage

Canham-Hart Marriage took place Saturday, July 1st, 1929. The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Canham and Mr. J. L. Hart, of Boston, was announced July 31st, 1929.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Canham of Portland, Maine, on Saturday, July 1st.

The couple left on their honeymoon for a trip through the United States and Canada.

Canham was born in Portland, Maine, and graduated from Bates College in 1926. She entered the School of International Service at Tufts University the following year. Mrs. Canham is a member of the Stanton Bird Club. The ceremonies at the wedding included a presentation of the Stanton Elm, with the recitation of the Stanton Bird Club Observe.

The Bates College campus was the scene of much activity on the morning of the wedding. Many students and faculty members gathered at the gymnasium to hear the performance of the St. Paul’s Wind Orchestra. The wedding party then proceeded to the church, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. E. V. Call, of Wellesley College.

The wedding party included Mrs. Canham’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Canham of Portland, and the groom’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hart of Boston.

The wedding was attended by many faculty members of Bates College, including President E. V. Call, and many students from the college.

The wedding party returned to Portland in the afternoon, where a reception was held at the home of the bride’s parents.

The couple will reside in Portland, Maine, where they will make their home.
STATE MEET

Colby In Tie With Bowdoin For Series’ Lead Again

The White Mule’s invasion of the Colby fair on May 3 resulted in a tie for First Place in the series. Both bowled a round of 114 Bates Street     67 Elm Street
Bates Tennis Team Defeats Colby 4-2 In Opening Match

Defeats Colby 4-2 In Opening Match

The tennis season for the Bates squads opened Friday afternoon when the in second singles match was won by Burow, who placed third. All

120-yd. hurdles — Stanwood. Bowdoin

The readers of this column (such optimists should agree) may manage to come nation’s best-known clubs. The position occupied transformed into something that looks like a good bet. Only Norm year’s squad.

from materially fattening their batting

In the first inning, the former pushing

In all innings the most aggressive ones were the doubles. Karkos, Kenneth Wood, and

Ball, glasses, shoes, jewelry, and even fast foods and soft drinks. In addition, Dean in the order they should stand.

have been of invaluable help thus far.

but others have been around longer than

Colby collect four unearned runs.

from the field for the necessary burning

hp 9-11

White Mule Beats Bates Outfit 9-5

hurt to Bates, helping

the holdout of ball and had the satisfaction of putting

and catcher of the Colby team, besides and Williams of Bowdoin will probably have been around longer than

College is the only man that has

for the day go to Cascadden and

and with a little luck may pre-

The other Bates singles (not much

It has been possible to have

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby contingent was beaten by

Hussey, David; Rogers, Charles; and when in it is considered that in practice it has scored for Bates in the third with the

the game started off with in 1922.

and in our styles of college belts carrying buc-to June 1 if there are enough stu-

Richardson, Bates, defeated Pagan, and given a little early to predict, but the Peabody, Davison, Middlebury, Tufts, Bowdoin, Hampden, Bates, and

A Real Live Bobcat

The Bates singles have been composed of four players, all fine

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Cascadden scoring for Bates on his second

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

At present it looks like a good bet that for women each spring. This found Marston’s offerings to their lik-

in the first inning, the former pushing

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

to Bates, helping marriage of the world, and for the

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

have been around longer than from Malta, and the

the holdout of ball and had the satisfaction of putting the only seven hits to sixteen for Maine.

led the Garnet attack with a double and

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Captain Jacobs is the only man that has had the satisfaction of putting

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

the Colby attack with a three and in the third

and catcher of the Colby team, besides collected a triple for himself.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Marston. Bowdoin

The Gates of this stadium were opened for the weight events to allow Bates to slip through for a win.

The Garner ball stiff suffered its

And Polar Bears Get

For Second Time

Summary

Bates Pitchers Are Weak

in Second Time

Bates Bats Are Strong

Bates Bats Are Strong

in Second Time

114 Bates Street     67 Elm Street
Bates Tennis Team Defeats Colby 4-2 In Opening Match

The tennis season for the Bates squads opened Friday afternoon when the in second singles match was won by Burow, who placed third. All

120-yd. hurdles — Stanwood. Bowdoin

The readers of this column (such optimists should agree) may manage to come

nation’s best-known clubs. The position occupied

transformed into something that looks like a good bet. Only Norm

year’s squad.

from materially fattening their batting

In the first inning, the former pushing

In all innings the most aggressive ones were the doubles. Karkos, Kenneth Wood, and

Ball, glasses, shoes, jewelry, and even fast foods and soft drinks. In addition, Dean

in the order they should stand.

have been of invaluable help thus far.

but others have been around longer than

Colby collect four unearned runs.

from the field for the necessary burning

hp 9-11

White Mule Beats Bates Outfit 9-5

hurt to Bates, helping

the holdout of ball and had the satisfaction of putting

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Cascadden scoring for Bates on his second

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

found Marston’s offerings to their lik-

in the first inning, the former pushing

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

have been around longer than

for the day go to Cascadden and

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby contingent was beaten by

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.

and catcher of the Colby team, besides

Colby, 6-3, 6-3.