SCHEDULE

Oct. 11 Northwestern at Boston
Oct. 14 Springfieid at Lewiston
Oct. 11 State Meet at Orono
Nov. 17 New Englands at Boston

Bates hill and dales have already shown their stuff and commenced their strenuous training campaign in order to carry the New England title to Boston. Bates already holds the record of most shutouts in the history of the college. Bates has had annual encounters with New England teams for more than ten years.

Debate with Vermont

On October 20, the University of Vermont comes to Lewiston to continue the yearly argument under the Oregon territorial constitution. Bates has had annual encounters with Vermont for several years and this continues the friendly relations begun a few years ago.

An Invention in Debating

On October 27, freshmen Bates inaugurate a new feature in its long line of debating innovations, for at all hours over the National Broadcasting Company's nationwide network of radio stations a Bates team will meet a subject team in broadcast for the first time. The debate will be Bates fourth international debate held since this college inaugurated international debating about ten years ago.

The National Broadcasting Company through its representative, Mr. Harry A. Woodman of the Class of 1918, is sponsoring the debate and class Bates (Continued on page 4, column 3)
