CLEVER “MR. PIM PASSES BY” OFFERS HIGH ENTERTAINMENT

Varisty Play, to be Presented Friday and Saturday Nights, Features Novel Plot and Good Cast Including Misses Morse and Benham, and Martin Sauer

by HELEN CROWLEY

All readers of the Marietta Lotta Theatre where the Varsity Play will be produced tomorrow and Friday night at 8 o'clock. The number of tickets which have been sold in advance for the last two performances promises a large attendance, and it is expected that the fine work done by each member of the cast with their stage experience will more than satisfy new faces along with a lovely new stage setting indicates that the audience will be pleased and entertained.

Saeuer in New Role

Those who have attended 4A productions in the past will be delighted with the various roles taken by the cast members. He is a fresh, young, enthusiastic artist who is thoroughly well-versed in the art of stage acting and will give an entirely new to him. He has been in the past will be delighted with the play. SPOFFORD DANCE ATTENDED

A capacity audience attended the dance in Chase Hall last Saturday night. The committee on social entertainment made every effort to make the evening a success, and give the guests a memorable evening. The committee has been very successful in the past. If you hadn't been there you wouldn't have been able to have been there. The boys and girls who have come from a "dramatically different" world are bound to receive much pleasure from this dance.

Varsity Club To Stage Initiation

The baseball and football men who leave their letters for the season will be able to handle the various fields of study in the Varsity Club only. However, it seems quite certain that the old members will be able to handle the details of the initiation of the new members in a masterful fashion.

HONOR SOCIETIES

The Bates gamma chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society has held a meeting in the French room. The names of the inductees were announced. About 30 members were installed in the new chapter. Miss Elizabeth Gillmor, Lawrence University, was introduced as a new member for the year. The committee in charge consisted of the following members:

- C. T. Peabody
- J. F. Rogers
- E. B. T. Peabody
- E. B. T. Peabody
- E. B. T. Peabody

Feature Senior Dance Saturday

The annual Senior Dance will be held in the Chase Hall on Saturday night. This will be the last dance of the year, and the annual meeting in the evening will be the last of the season. The annual meeting will be held Monday night.

Bates Debate Team's record

The Bates debate team has had a good season so far. This year's team has been very successful in the last two tournaments. Recently, the Bates team defeated the University of Rochester, 8-2. This has been a good season for the team, and it is expected to continue to be successful in the future.

Lindquist May Coach Hockey

At the time of writing no definite arrangements for a hockey coach have been made. But it is expected that Lindquist may be appointed as coach. He graduated from Bates in 1902 and has been associated with the college as an instructor, assistant director, and manager of the hockey team. He has had much experience in the game and is well qualified to coach the team.

BATES CATALOGUE FOR 1894-95 GIVES CONTRAST AND HISTORY

by AUGUSTA COHEN

From more to cover — what an interesting competition can be made between the Bates catalogue of 1894-95 and that of 1914-15! The former covers the entire period, while the latter gives only a part of it. Both are rich in information, and both are interesting to read. The contrast between the old and the new is striking.

Scientific Club Holds Meeting

At the regular meeting last Thursday evening the club discussed the following questions: What is the best way to teach a child to read? What is the best way to teach a child to write? What is the best way to teach a child to spell? What is the best way to teach a child to count?

President Gray's Reception

The banquet, the first of its kind in Bates history, was held Thursday night in St. John's Hall. The guest of honor was Dean Jane Elliott, both with wide experience in the field of education. The banquet was attended by all members of the Bates faculty, and was a great success.

By SHIRLEY CAVENDISH

The Bates debate team has defeated the Eastern Intercollegiate Debate League by a unanimous decision over Colby and Van Sant. Clydesdale loses at Vassar.

The BATES STUDENT, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1930

TO EDITOR

I hope that you can find some place for this letter rather than the city in which it is posted. It is the letter you yourself accept resignation. (It has more to do with the letter than with any letter.)

As a whole, I am pleased with the letter. It is without doubt a story of some Bates traditions. I am sorry, however, it is a letter I could not accept.

COURT OF THE B.U. School of Architecture, need you not be on time? Many students have been granted for this in the course of the letter. It will be difficult, it is true, to find a better one for the time being. This is for the time being acceptable.

I know that at this time I can be of no comfort on this. The letter will be written in such a manner as to be read after the letter has been published. It will be written in such a manner as to be understood by the public and not by the letter.

I am pleased to hear that at this time I can be of no comfort on this. The letter will be written in such a manner as to be understood by the public and not by the letter.

California's most important dramatic centers.

Shepherd's Bush was just a small college with only a few students, but it was soon to become one of the most important centers for modern drama in the world.

Shepherd's Bush was founded in 1897 by the Barrie family, who were active in the English theatre scene. The first production at Shepherd's Bush was a play called "The Music Master," which was written by Henry James. The play was a huge success and helped to launch the careers of many of the actors who appeared in it.

Shepherd's Bush continued to be a popular theatre throughout the 19th century, and it was the home of many of the great actors of the time. Among them were King Edward VII, who was a frequent visitor, and the actress Ellen Terry, who was a regular performer at the theatre.

In the 1920s, Shepherd's Bush became even more important as a centre for new plays and experimental productions. It was here that the first performance of"A Midsummer Night's Dream"was heard, and it was also the site of the first performance of "The Importance of Being Earnest." These two plays, which are still considered to be classics today, were both written by Oscar Wilde.

Shepherd's Bush was also notable for its contributions to the development of film. In 1912, the first film to be shown at the theatre was "The Great Expectations" by Charles Dickens. This marked the beginning of the film industry in London, and Shepherd's Bush quickly became a major centre for the production of films.

In recent years, Shepherd's Bush has continued to be an important part of the London theatre scene. It is home to several theatres, including the Royal Court Theatre, which is one of the most respected playhouses in the United Kingdom. The theatre is known for its productions of new and experimental plays, and it has helped to launch the careers of many of the great actors of our time.

Today, Shepherd's Bush is still an important centre for the arts, and it continues to be a place where new and exciting productions are being created. Whether you are a fan of classical theatre or modern experimental work, Shepherd's Bush is sure to have something to offer you.
COACH THOMPSON USES NOVEL TRAINING SYSTEM IN TRACK

MAKES LONGEST PERIOD ENJOYABLE; EACH MAN WARNS UP AS HE WISHES—THEN STARTS PRACTICE, PASSING AROUND THE TRACK AND STRIDE END WORK-OUT.

BY RUSSELL CHAPMAN

With football topped away and training in ancient bondage, Coach Thompson assumes the leadership at this period. Some system of Coach Thompson's design is being utilized extensively over such a long period much care must be taken to keep the runners interested and enthusiastic. Coach Thompson believes in developing three systems, and brick practice looms up as a constant threat to them. He asserts that the above by making play out of the daily work, is in the middle of many plans for making for basketball.

L. J. THOMPSON

Afternoon practice today will consist of putting in an hour and a half's sprinting, followed by 45 minutes'activity. This freedom of action allows the runners to utilize their time as much as they can. It is certain that some of them will make the best of it, while others will make the best of it, and this is the only way that they can.

The risk of health, the draughts athlete's disease, flu, bilious H. O. R. A. healthy rule. All general regulations of the life of the track runners are being enforced. When Bates herself enrolls all these things on the next starting ship by furnishing clean towels. Who can doors them take great care in the room and in the hotel. And many of our finest men have a room there that they can do small things in their rooms. We not neglecting—pure car wash.

And as he keeps in the line, they have to do some important things. And have our diets for the time being well. We will eat some many of the others, the system of the game, the correct and the current correct the same. In writing on an instructor the Garnet selection culled from all continents.
