Bobcat Tackles Mule in Crucial Hockey Battle
Ben White Back in Line-up: Win Means Virtual Title For Condensed Garnet

One of the most interesting features of the gal action of events on Saturday's program will be the recognition of the Bates-Colby hockey feud for the State championship at the St. Dom's Arena. With the official announcement from the athletic committee of the renewal of hostilities between the teams, the mule defense on the main court and the bobcat will go into the ring over the ice.

To make the battle even more exciting, the referee will be Judge Ben White, the most noted referee in the state, and the old-time heroes of the game will be in the audience rooting for their respective teams.

Bates Victory Meets Virtual Title
A win for Colby will put the Water- ter College back in the running.

Fun and Rivalry In Intramural Winter Sports

By PARKER MANN
In most spectacular fashion of the evening, Osie Chapman duplicated his record-breaking feat of last year by flashing ahead of a field of nine starters including Phil Edwards and George Bullwinkle to cop the Bishop Chandler 1000-yard run at the annual Winter Carnival, one of those spectacles which help make up the true color of college life.

BATES WINTER CARNIVAL

Allow us at this time to present the Bates Winter Carnival for 1932. For one full year of the period of years the Outing Club has endeavored to give Bates students a winter carnival in which there would be fun for all. Sometimes the carnival attained its purpose and sometimes it failed. It failed due to inclement weather or lack of necessary co-operation. This year the directors, which you elected last year, have spent double the effort to produce a carnival with which we may all be well satisfied. The carnival days will include sports and other events to which we hope you will attend.

The carnival hop will be held on Rand Hall Field. A regulation intramural football game will be played immediately following this event. In this interdorm meet the other class teams in the gym. This Bobcat tackle game will be played in true rivalry, no quarter will be asked of by our administration officers who have agreed to end classes at 3:00 P.M. for the game. This is the time for the Objectors to fill in the gaps in their schedule. Women's Vice-President of Outing Club is Mrs. Inez Newell, '31. seal.

MEMORIES OF THORNCRAG ARE STILL FRESH TO BATES GRADS

By HILDA STANTON

A woman went and rallied at Thorncrag. Crowds of students swarmed to the camp, and thrum across country roads to sing college songs around a campfire.

Scampering lizards in the winter-time—rabbis primed in the spring—summer of the year is the time to go to Thorncrag. But how did Bates come to own this spot? Bates had no such thing as an Outing Club to plan outdoor sports, as many other colleges had. Similarly, they went to Hanover, a club procedure at Dartmouth, and came back to Lewiston with all sorts of plans for a similar club. But how did Bates come to own Thorncrag? Bates had no such thing as a Thorncrag.
