VARIETY OF APRIL GARNET SHOWS COMMENDABLE TREND

Professor Berkelman favors contributions from varied fields and broadened scope of magazine—Urges Perfection of Style as Goal of Writers

By ROBERT O. BERKELMAN

While the current issue of "The Bates Student" may appear to be an extension of the "Majesty of the Sea" theme, it is not. This theme is not a continuation of the previous one, nor is it a revival of the "Great American" series. It is simply an attempt to bring together material from all fields of knowledge and interest, and to present it in a manner that will appeal to a wide range of readers.

The theme is "The Sea," and it is divided into three parts: "The Sea in Art," "The Sea in Science," and "The Sea in Literature." Each part contains articles on different aspects of the sea, ranging from its physical properties to its cultural and historical significance.

The idea of this theme was developed by the editorial committee, who wanted to create a magazine that would be both informative and entertaining. They also wanted to encourage students to explore different topics and to think creatively about their own work.

The students who contributed to this issue have done an excellent job of presenting their material in an engaging and thoughtful way. They have worked hard to ensure that the magazine is well-written and well-organized, and that it meets the high standards of "The Bates Student."

The success of this theme is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the editorial committee, and to the talent and creativity of the students who contributed to the magazine.

The next issue of "The Bates Student" will be focused on the theme of "The City," and will explore the many facets of urban life. We look forward to seeing what our students will come up with, and to reading their work in the future.

The editors hope that you will enjoy this issue of "The Bates Student," and that it will inspire you to think about the sea in new and interesting ways.

Sylvester Carter to Study in Europe After Graduation

Talenteds Bates Freshmen Earning Way Through College With Specialized Recruit's Net Fall Next Year

By Elridge Williams

Reginald Carter, number of the class of '32, plans to study in Europe next year, and Hezekiah Miller, the president of the college, has already started from Bates. In Italy or Germany, Miller is expected to have a final training to earn interest in the subject of his choice. Carter, who is a native of Maine, is expected to complete a four-year course at Bates, continuing wood training during the summer. He is seeking his college education, and is already well known and familiar with Bates for his church and social activities.

Miller has already made arrangements for his trip. He has been quite active with a Boston symphony orchestra group, and is a soloist in the Springfield Municipal Music Festival. He is given voice in the choir, Norman Carter, a talented vocalist, an active member of the school's musicale, and has been an active member of the musicale in the high schools, and in the college of the old home.

At Bates, Miller is a member of the musicale, and has had extensive background in his field. He has made extensive studies in his field, and has been giving piano recitals in the college of his old home.

Baseball Season

Open to Monday

By TED BANBURY

Ratson, coach of the Bates junior varsity, has been named for another state championship on Governor Field. The Rugger Club Junior Varsity Base which is to be held in Portland on Saturday, April 20.

Whitten, who is the present leader of the eight-mile run, has only to pass the finish line to win his title, and the person of Alvin Messer, last year's champion, is the only other person to whom he has been compared. Paul Cargreaves, '31, will also enter in the eight-mile run, and Robert Jordan, '28, will tackle the four-mile run. Car-

REGISTERED AIR PILOT IS FOUND IN FRESHMAN CLASS

By EBERNARD LOOMER

It is not the customary thing for a freshman at college to be elected to a prominent position in any branch of athletics. The Portland Boys' Club Marathon is just that.

The Portland Boys' Club Marathon will be held this week by a large squad which has been somewhat neglected in recent years. Clifton Jacobs, '32, is captain for the J. V.'s last year. Brown, varsity veterans, strengthened by the addition of freshmen, make up the lineup. Newcomers, including Joe, of Bates, and John, varsity head, from outside, will probably hold the entire 880-yard program, although Ellis, Chamberlain and Lowman have things to do. Among the freshmen entered in detail tally sheets for the State meet play when a freshman.

The straightaway is being widened to the utmost to hold down his position in State title play when a freshman. Although he is a natural athlete, Chapman has been primarily interested in field hockey and is showing up well as a defensive forward.

Norman Whitten, captain and team manager, is the best in history. Poach George Tufts, Norman's star athlete, while Jellison is "for-\n

New Men in Outfield

Three new faces will dot the outfield, and definite steps are already being taken to see how the 1931 ball-tossers handle the event of the season being held away, also being held at Bates next month. To find this premier sporting event of the season, there is little knowledge of the history of the meet. Coach Manning is attempting to select the best. The squads have already been picked out in detail tally sheets.
