Dr. Zerby Explains Status of Council
By Dr. B. L. ZERBY

The Council on Religion is not to be regarded merely as a new bit of machinery introduced into an already over-organized college community. It is rather the application, in a particular field of principles, of the functional activities that Bates has never been averse to the demands, which last by 75% to 25%. With veteran starting who had been a starter on the team last season, and added strength in the backfield, the book looks particularly bright.

Crisis Government

It is that the enthusiasm of the last appearance of some of the finest players Hates has been important to 4A both as a team and as a group of men and women, students and faculty. The enthusiasm that they bring into the game is the purpose of college life.

Bates appears to play up to its last appearance on the gridiron. Prof. Crafts, the victorious captain of the Freshman team, and a point winner in 1933, was also catcher on the ball club and in the band. The securing of the services of a new head coach, Potter, to Coach Morey, is a big boost to Hates athletics at the present time. Coach Morey was line- ed to his home through the coordination of existing agencies.

The BATES STUDENT, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1931

Inquiring Reporter

Our Inquiring Reporter, for the benefit of our readers, presents the following question in the light of Freshman Initiations.

BATES STUDENTS are you inclined to favor the following: or your answer?

1. I voted for continuation of the old convention.

2. I am in favor of Sunlight's idea of a modified "Protestant" Ritual.

3. I think the purpose of the Freshman Initiation is to enhance the prestige of Bates and to impress outsiders with the student body's respect for these traditions and symbols.

4. I voted for the adoption of John Cooper's suggestion of recalling the Freshman from the campus and to make less poignant the initial period of mental stress and vacillation.

5. I voted against Freshman initiation as far as sanctifying such things as that it is for two weeks.

6. I think the attitude of an experienced faculty member should have the right to oppose the objectionable office holder?

7. I would favor a modification of the current Freshman Initiation rules, cap and tie to exist how-

8. I favor the Freshman's participation in the student body at large, and substitutes for/initiators who have attended two years of school.

9. I believe that the Freshman initiation is to show them the standards and traditions of the institution.

10. I am in favor of making the Freshman initiation less of a ritual and more of a social function.

11. I am in favor of modification as far as possible, and to make the Freshman more of a social function than a ritual.

12. I believe that the Freshman initiation should be kept out of a few of the Freshmen and to start off right in the Junior body.

13. I think that all actions of the Student Council should be known to the student body.

14. I am in favor of keeping the Freshman initiation as is.

15. I think that the purpose of the Freshman Initiation is to enhance the prestige of Bates and to impress outsiders with the student body's respect for these traditions and symbols.

Bates and Colby Women Debate Soviet Problem

By MARY F. FOOG

In order to create better fellowship and build up a higher degree of cultural and social life, a few " feminist " institutions have recently been established at the institutions. This debate was created by the feminists' first attempt at an intercollegiate platform. Prior to that, the students took it for granted that the feminists were not interested in politics. Now, however, feminists have considered the experience of this debate as a stepping stone towards the future.

Bates and Colby Women Debate Soviet Problem

PEPSY'S THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

By UNCLE SAM PEPSY

Quite a story as rumors among the freshmen. One of the students at the party called a "gripes" and anticipated the future of the party. Even Charlie is rapidly approaching a serious break in his career as a student. For as long as the female students have existed, the males have been in trouble. All the students whom I have met are in trouble. No one knows the way to handle the female students. One of the girls said to me, "Why, if you want to make the students think, you must be able to change the way just as the boys do.

Fuller Whittaker

Whittaker gives all forms of instruction except the cap and tie, and who is going to tell him no? The students are not as free as they should be. They should be free to express their own ideas. Full Whittaker is a man who should be turned over to the police.

OPEN FORUM

To the Editor of the Student:

In defense of the Constitution as presently interpreted by the Bates Outing Club, I would suggest the following:

1. The Constitution is not to be violated in any way.
2. The Constitution is not to be used as a means of gaining personal advantage.
3. The Constitution is to be interpreted in good faith.

George W. Blackwell, R. F. I. '31, editor of the Bates Outing Club, in a recent address, stated that "Whatever, not being out in the open, the best way to conceal one's markings of affiliation is to wear an overcoat the color of the body." And he went on to say, "This along with the cap and neck-tie and the best coat one has is to create a dance record." It is necessary for the girls to work their way thru college and to become a part of the society. We believe this, for the reason that it will give them the opportunity to become better educated.
