In congratulating the winners in the greatest Camel contest we want at the same time to thank most cordially the approximately million men and women who displayed their friendly interest by sending in an entry.

We wish also to thank the millions of smokers throughout the country for the appreciation they are showing for our new Humidor Pack as is evidenced by the notable increase in the number of Camel cigarettes.

By means of this dust-proof, germ-proof, moisture-proof Camelphane wrapping the rich and full flavor of choice Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos have been air-sealed in Camels for your enjoyment.

If you have not tried Camels in the Humidor Pack all we ask is that you switch over to this brand for one day.

After you have learned how much milder, how much cooler, how much more enjoyable it is to smoke a perfectly conditioned fresh cigarette, go back to the harsh hotness of stale cigarettes if you can.

John Fuller, '31 has Poem in Anthology

Foretaste of Future Poetry in Future College Course

"Making the Grade", has included a début in the annual literary volume.

The anthology contains much music for the various grades, a little light poems, an occasional humoristic verse, and a few poems that are a trifle serious.

The collection includes verses of American poetry of the future. To give a foretaste of what to expect, and to indicate the height of these youthful efforts, the following is a letter written by John Fuller, '31:

Dear Park:

I have just finished writing a poem that I think you will like. It is about the river and the town where I went to school. I think you will like it because it has some pictures of the things I saw while I was there. The town is called "Little Town" and the river is called "The River". The poem is short, only two stanzas, but I think it has some good lines. I hope you will enjoy it.

Sincerely,

John Fuller, '31

Garnet Nine Takes Early Lead but Maine Ties Score in Ninth—Flynn Gets Run Home

BY WARREN O'ROURKE

Bates took a 3-0 lead in the second inning of the 13th inning game, also against Maine Saturday afternoon on the track... The last number on the scoreboard, however, slid hard and the score ended 9-5 in favor of Bates. Bates had no walks, but 11 hits... Maine had 1 hit and 6 errors. Maine's scoring in the second inning was due to a three-base error... Maine got a chance to tie the game in the ninth as Maine's springer dropped the ball and with two gone in the last of the eighth inning when the Bates basemen had a chance to nail the runner before the plate. Maine got 3 runs to tie the game in the ninth inning on a drive sent over the fence by Maine's outspringer and an error. Maine's ninth run came on a wild pitch and Maine's tenth run ended the game on an error... No Maine player hit double figures as all nine players of the team were out. Maine's time was 2:30.
