VARiSry Play “Grumpy” PLeases with Austin ACTiNg Brilliant LEAD

New P‘yers Give commendable Performance af Comedy-Mystery—Comedy Miss Misses—Lack of Student Support evident

By ROBERT G. HERREMAN

Presenting “Grumpy”, as the satirical play by Austin, which opened on the stage of the Little Theater last Thursday, the Players continued to give evidence of their ability to present a well-rounded program of entertainment. The production last week, which contained a mixture of comedy and tragedy, was not successful, due in part to the lack of support from the student body.

Y.W.C.A. Bazaar Has “Blue” Idea as Central Theme

The Annual Y.W.C.A. Bazaar, to be held January 9, 10, and 11, will feature a central theme, “Blue.” The idea originated last year by Miss Eleanor Libbey, who managed one of the booths, and will be continued this year by Miss Libbey and her colleagues.

Bates Broadcast Varied—Recommendation for Others

A graduate of the University of Oxford, the Rev. Dr. W. H. Dunham, ’32, delivered the weekly broadcast, “Bates Broadcast.” The program, which features a variety of topics, was well received by the students and faculty.

Oxford Group Members Guests on Bates Campus

Dr. E. B. Wood, Assistant Professor of English at Harvard University, visited the campus, bringing with him a group of Oxford Group members. The group, which is concerned with world peace and social reform, was well received by the students and faculty.

Carroll, Parker Uphold Tariff Against Visiting English Union Debaters

By FRANK MURRAY

The debate between the Bates Debaters and the English Union Debaters was held on December 10th. The Bates Debaters, under the leadership of Carroll, Parker, and MacEachern, upheld the tariff against the visiting English Union Debaters. The debate was well attended, and the students were enthusiastic about the outcome.
Merry Christmas

"I don't know what to do," cried Berge, laughing and crying in his sleep. "I am a sailor, and I am a sailor, and I am a sailor! I am a sailor!"

A Don Quixote Come to Judgement

The only comment we have to make at this time on the activities of the Bates College Rotarly Club, and their efforts to improve the general public's understanding of the values of our student group, is that the club has accomplished much more than we expected. The members of the club have been working hard to improve the general public's understanding of the values of our student group, and their efforts have been greatly appreciated.

The Oxford Movement

In the course of the Oxford Movement, it is the position of the Church of England that the National Church is not at liberty to give itself any new principles. This is evident by the fact that the Oxford Movement was not a part of the Church of England, but a part of the Church of England. This is evident by the fact that the Oxford Movement was not a part of the Church of England, but a part of the Church of England.

The Student Library

The Student Library is a national thing; here it raises the question of the province of government in the control of education, and the treatment of the student by the faculty guests. The question of the province of government in the control of education, and the treatment of the student by the faculty guests.

NEWEST FACULTY MEMBER POPULAR ON CAMPUS

Mr. Labourz, German Prof., an Interesting Personality

By EILEN E. BROWN

The recent addition to the Bates faculty, Mr. Labourz, a German professor, is a young and attractive personality. He is a young and attractive personality.

Recent Events

The attempts to draw the razor blade across their faces have suffered a serious setback; how many of these fellows will be able to do it is difficult to say. The attempt to draw the razor blade across their faces has suffered a serious setback; how many of these fellows will be able to do it is difficult to say.

Result of Bates Disarmament Poll

The results of the Bates Disarmament Poll were announced last week. The results of the Bates Disarmament Poll were announced last week.

MRS. GRAY HOSTES AT BIRTHDAY TEA

At a recent social event

THE BATES STUDENT, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 16, 1901

Pepys through the Key-hole

The Chaser, who has departed

Uncle Sam Pepys Jr.
The baseball games have been played under the stand, the lads have been playing under the tent. The games on the field were attended by hundreds of spectators.

Special ball

Although the people have been few, the games have been spirited and exciting. The Franklin field was filled with spectators, the players were dressed in their best clothes, and the organization of the ball was so complete that it was a splendid spectacle to see.

The New Square

Great pains have been taken to make the New Square as pleasant as possible. They have planted flowers and shrubs, and have put up a fountain. The result has been a most charming place.

The Senior Girls at Thorncrag

The senior girls at Thorncrag have been very busy. They have been making dresses for the new baby, and have been preparing for the coming spring. They have also been working on the new chapel, which is to be ready next month.

Elizabeth Taylor Studies in Greece

Acropolis and Marathon Visited As Tourists

Show Ignorance: And Donkeys Are Flitted

St. Margaret's Hotel, 600 Water St., Lewiston, Me.

The Gold Rush

Many people have come to the Gold Rush, and the country is full of excitement. The miners are working hard, and the prospect of gold is making them very happy.

The Best College Souvenir

A Bates Year Book

As last year's reclamation, subscribe to the 1932 "Mirror"

(Price at five dollars. The entire amount may be placed on the second semester term bill or in two dollars may be paid before January 15 and the remainder on receiving the book.)
By Edmund Smith

At St. Mary's School in Waterbury, Connecticut, is a headmaster of boys, Mr. Philip C. Smith. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Yale University and has been teaching there for many years. His teaching method is described as "organized chaos" by the students. Despite his reputation, he is respected by all for his knowledge and dedication to the school. His birthdate is February 14th.

PROF. MYHRMAN BACK FROM YEAR'S STUDY

It's the New Year and the College boys have returned from the holidays. The year has been marked by many changes and challenges. The football team has been working hard to prepare for the upcoming season. The chemistry department, led by Professor Myhrman, has been making significant advances in their research. The drama club has been rehearsing for their upcoming production, "Romeo and Juliet." A new student has joined the math club, and they are excited to work on their latest project.

HOCKEY SCHEDULE

Visalia

January

12 - 21 Visalia - at Fresno
23 - 25 Visalia - at Safford, Arizona
27 - 29 Visalia - at Flagstaff, Arizona

Visalia

February

1 - 3 Visalia - at Fresno
15 - 17 Visalia - at Safford, Arizona
19 - 21 Visalia - at Flagstaff, Arizona

Visalia