Recipe For Sanity

By HENRY SUTHERLAND ELLIOT

Are you worried in a fight? Laugh it off. Are you worried in your right? Laugh it off.

Don’t take too many trifles. Laugh it off. Do you work too much? Laugh it off.

Are you near all sorts of troubles? Laugh it off, for it’s all right.

That’s all there is to it.

EXHIBIT A MERCURY — EXHIBIT B PEGASUS

THE GREEKS had an interview with the Bates football team in the offices of the Bates News. During this interview, the Greeks imparted some of the secrets of their success to the football team. The Greeks emphasized the importance of teamwork and mental preparedness. They also stressed the need for physical fitness and the importance of maintaining a balanced diet. The Greeks also shared some of their favorite pre-game rituals, such as visualization and music, which they believe helps them focus and perform at their best. They concluded by encouraging the football team to believe in their skills and to enjoy the game. The Greeks' visit was a morale booster for the team, and they left with a renewed sense of confidence and determination.
