Moses and Watson Lose In Ind. and N. H.—Miss. Re-elected

When President Herbert Hoover Monday night at 10:15 delivered his first address of the campaign, and a Harding supporter, he closed the 1924 pres-idential campaign with a speech from Montana. The President's complete domination of the nation's political life was symbolized by the fact that he has staked his position on the election of eight senators, and it is likely that he will add to his list of four states.

Bates and Colby have the lead in this campaign, in which, more than other professions, they have much of anything to do with politics.

The Student and The World

By James Balano

The New York Times on October 23 in publishing the obituary note of Thomas, the recently deceased United States President, emphasized that the words 'great' and 'brilliant' were commonly used in reference to him, but that the true qualities of a great man were those of human qualities which Thomas demonstrated throughout his life. This is the approach which I hope to make in this discussion of the philosophy of Thomas, the man, and as I view him from the vantage point of his life's philosophy and its impact on my future thought, I derive from him a lesson that is true of each of us:

"He is a voice for the voiceless. Now, indeed.,"

"1 believe you know that old pipe better than you do me!"

Outstanding Irish Poet-Playwright Fascinates Audience With Brilliant Discussion Of Irish Literature And Drama

By Kevin Williams

This was the first George Colby lecture of the year, and was particularly popular with students of the upperclassmen. Following up her two desires: a homely audience and an audience that would respond to her lecture, she went on to discuss the problems of the Irish people and the difficulties they face in their everyday lives. The audience was captivated by her vivid and descriptive style, and the lecture was a great success.

GOES WHERE THE DOLLARS ARE

Advertisements today must contact buying dollars -- not merely having dollars. They must match with purchasers rather than just people. They must secure not borders or circulation.

Space buyers must stick to prices, 500 college men and women advertisers have thousands of potential dollars at their disposal each year.

At Bates, the Student pays where the dollars are -- it sells winning sales.

Bates Freshman and Colburn linebacker shared the spotlight in a 4-4 tie yesterday morning in your St. Paul Park, Lewiston. Bates led once in the game and Colburn in the other. While Colburn showed up throughout with good looking and much defensive play, he was overshadowed by the Bates defensive unit, which shut down the Colburn offense for an entire half of the game.

The Colburn halfback, who had two field goals in the game, was unable to score as Bates' defense held him to the one field goal. The Bates halfback, on the other hand, was able to score both of Bates' field goals in the game.

While the Colburn offense was shut down, the Bates offense continued to move the ball and put points on the scoreboard. Bates' quarterback, who had two touchdown passes in the game, was able to score both of Bates' field goals in the game.

The Bates defense, led by the halfback, was able to shut down the Colburn offense for a half of the game. The Colburn offense was unable to score in the second half.

BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

The faculty connection with athletics has not precluded the best of both worlds. As a matter of facts, the faculty connection has made the job of the coaches a little easier.

At a meeting last Wednesday, the coaching board of the arts faculty met with Coach Morey and Art Mathews, football coach, for the nomination of the next faculty co-chairman. In the present meeting, the coaches, of the faculties, are in the form of the committee, and on the recommendation of the faculty co-chairman,

Politics Clubs Select Seven New Members

Seven new members were elected to the Men's Politics Club at the regular meeting last Wednesday night, and of the three other clubs, the Women's Club and the Debating Club. Two new members, Frank H. Davis and Donald M. Walker, were elected to the new club. Five other club members, who have been absent from the club, were also present. The club is in the hands of the four new members and the club will meet on Friday night at 8:00 PM.

The conference will be held at the University of New Hampshire. The members of the committee, and on the recommendation of the faculty co-chairman, the conference will be held at the University of New Hampshire. No raw tobacco in Luckies—that's why they're so mild

We buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Luckies as the mildest cigarettes. The fact is, we never thought the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes. It's toasted! That package of mild Luckies
