Our Responsibility

EACH man and woman in the student body and faculty has a responsibility to himself and to the institution of which he is a member. This responsibility is not necessarily a leader. You are a representative of the students and by the manner of your conduct the reactions of others will be influenced. The visitor expects this display; that he is to understand how the 'man on the street'

SPOBTS STAFF

The reviews of the year are now in. On the whole, the year was one of great progress both on the athletic and academic side. We had a very fine season on both ends of the campus. It is entirely within reason to expect that the same high standard of excellence will be maintained this year.

Senior Chapel Cuts

THERE is no doubt that the cuts which have occurred in the senior class have been a success. They have been a source of great improvement in the atmosphere of the campus. We have also been able to show that these cuts have been a source of economy in our student body. They have helped to show the value of teamwork.

Christ Crucified

Because He Was Great Reformer

Dr. Zerby Speaks On Jesus To Rotarians

Dr. William Z. Zerby was the speaker for the Rotarians on Jesus. The address was given at the Bates auditorium. It was well attended and Dr. Zerby was able to give a fine presentation.

In his address, Dr. Zerby emphasized the importance of Jesus to the world. He said that Jesus was not only a great leader, but also a great reformer. He was a great teacher, and his teaching is still relevant today.

He went on to say that Jesus was a great humanitarian. He was a great social reformer, and his teachings on love and compassion are still relevant today. He was a great philosopher, and his teachings on wisdom and knowledge are still relevant today.

Dr. Zerby said that Jesus was a great prophet. He was a great teacher, and his teachings on faith and hope are still relevant today.

Dr. Zerby concluded his address by saying that Jesus was a great leader. He was a great teacher, and his teachings on leadership are still relevant today.

The address was well received by the Rotarians, and they were impressed with Dr. Zerby's knowledge and wisdom.

In an unusual move, the school has announced that it will host a football game on Saturday, April 21, for the benefit of the St. Johnsbury College athletic fund. The game will be played against the University of Vermont, and will feature theates of both teams, including the legendary "Flying Hogs" of St. Johnsbury.

Duplications In Gov't Bureaus

Says Prof. Gould

By ROBERT S. ROOKER

Bates College, Bates College, and Bates College, are among the institutions that have been criticized recently for duplicating their services. The duplications have caused a great deal of waste and inefficiency. Prof. Gould has called for an end to these duplications in all government agencies.
